GREENS ARE HUNG IN THE ROTUNDA

The traditional hanging of the greens took place at the Vesper services Thursday evening, December 13th. The Seniors of the college were in charge of the service.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Weatherford, President of the Y. W. C. A., impersonated the Christmas Spirit. She related the legend of the Child Christ wandering from place to place in search of a home in which to be a guest. She then told the story of Mariah who lighted candles in all of the windows. This legend, said Miss Weatherford, "is the story of the Greens." The Candles, to show that Christ is welcome and to light His path.

The Druids carried trees and holly into their homes in the winter, in the hope that the spirit of the woods and streams would take refuge among them from the storms of winter, so that they might be ready to bring new life in the spring. The Seniors enacted this old practice, each taking a wreath and placing it in some appropriate place in the Rotunda.

The Seniors taking part on the program were: Gerry Arrington, Marjorie Groover, Virginia Sheppard, Lucy Hammond, Ruth Ellis, Dorothy McFarland, Dorothy Simpson, Carolyn Askew, Carolyn Green, and Margaret Zippel. The Greens were hung, and the program concluded with an address by Seniors, who told the students about the origin of the Yule Candles, to show the spirit of the birth as the students pantomimed it in front of the Holy cradle.

Dr. Farbar Speaks

The Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Alimae Temple, will present a program of Christmas carols during the Festival tomorrow. It is the annual custom of the Club to sing carols on this occasion, and to present programs of Christmas music elsewhere in Valdosta.

The Glee Club proper will sing "The Bar's Head" which is a feature of the boar's head ceremony. "The Christmas Tree," "All This Night Bright Angels Sing," The Candelighting Song, which accompanies the Candelighting ceremony, and "Good King Wenceslas." The entire student body will help in the singing of "Silent Night, Holy Night," "Advent Eieder," "What Child Is This," and "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen."

The trio, composed of Pearl Wilson and Lorraine Odom, alouis; Elizabeth Sims and Evelyn May, second soprano; Edith Bennett, Florence Tharp and Joy Miller, contraltos, sang at the Vesper service at the Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening. They sang a program of French, Welsh and old English carols.

The Glee Club, together with the trio, sang in Assembly last Wednesday afternoon. The trio sang a number of Christmas songs including "O Holy Night," and the Glee Club sang the old traditional air, "Old King Cole."

CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT

Another Christmas Festival became history tonight, when Miss Leonora Ivey, the Lord of Misrule, and Rachel Coxwell, Fool, succeeded, in entertaining the Baron, Dr. Reade, and his court in Christmas really began at the college last Thursday with the hanging of the greens. Although our Festival is primarily a Christmas Festival there are still many lovely customs of the season that are hangovers from pagan days, when greens were brought into the house to assure the people of the good will of their gods. Even today the cheer and goodwill of the Christmas Spirit is ushered in by greens. Tradition stands that the honor of hanging the greens at our college should rest with the Seniors. Tonight the stage was set for the banquet in the Feast Hall, where the Lords and Ladies of the court, wealthy families of the college, and guests invited. The group assembled in the Great Hall with the lighting of the Yule Log in the Rotunda fire place. The college had made its way into the Feast Hall as the Glee Club sang carols. The Greens were put on especially to show the progress of the Y. W. C. A. Miss Hopper, the faculty, and a few assembled guests sat on a dais in the middle of the room. At the tables were Misses Hoppa, talk, upperclassmen and freshmen alike.

The dance of the Fools was the first dance. Fourteen figures, clad in green and various colors capered about. Their heads were fashioned after that of Janus, the two-faced god. The dance was performed by the following:

(Continued on Page Four)

MISS SAWYER PLANS TRIP

Miss Louisa Sawyer, head of the Home Economics Department, is planning to put on especially to show the progress of the Home Economics Department, had charge of the program. Her class has been studying all this quarter, and the review was put on especially to show the progress made during the quarter.

MISS SAWYER PLANS TRIP

Mrs. Louisa Sawyer, head of the Speech Department, is planning to put on especially to show the progress of the Speech Department, had charge of the program. Her class has been studying all this quarter, and the review was put on especially to show the progress made during the quarter.

DANCES AND CAROLS ARE FEATURED ON PROGRAM

The annual Christmas pageant was presented by the Y. W. C. A. at the Rotunda of Ashley Hall on Sunday evening. The setting for the pageant was a village in some place in Spain. The comic scene was the Holy Birth took place. Students in the college played the roles of the various Biblical characters that appeared in the story.

Miss Sara Rachel Coxwell, of Leesburg, played the part of Mary, and Miss Virginia Tuck, of Thomasville, played the part of Joseph. The wise men of the Orient were composed of Misses Sheppard, Ruth Jones, Mary Parker, Martha Hackett, Lucile Tyner, Virginia Zippel, Alavta Carter, Patsey Sparks, Carol Forrestor, Esther Smith, Carolyn Whipple, Louise Smith, Pinky Peet, and Kitty O'Neal, and Priscilla Kelley.

During the pageant music was furnished by the choir, and several special selections were introduced. The pageant was presented. Miss Joy Miller, Miss Florence Tharp, and Miss Ruth Williams sang the various parts of the song "The Kings of Orient Are" in costume. Miss Myrtle Parker furnished the violin accompaniment for the carols.

Miss Vangie Trickle read the story of the birth as the students pantomimied it in front of the Holy cradle.
The Campus Canopy

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE STUDENTS OF THE GEORGIA STATE WOMANS COLLEGE, VALDOSTA, GEORGIA

Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917. Authorized January 20, 1919.

THE STAFF

LEONORA DUFOUR .................................. Editor
LEILAA URQUHART .................................. News Editor
AMANDA BARKSDALE .................................. Assignment Editor
CAMILLE ROGERS .................................. Business Manager

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

News
ANTONETTE ANDREWS ..................................Sport
MARGUERITE McCALL ..................................
DORIS YOUNG ..................................
Mary agnes roane ..................................
CAROL FORRESTER ..................................
CIRCULATION
PRISCILLA KELLEY ..................................
VIRGINIA HUGHES ..................................

Youth and War

Much has been written lately on the subject of youth and war, and the thought rises immediately as to the manner in which such a controversy would affect us. Apparently, we are shut safely away from raging discontent in Europe. Ours is a small world.

We are students attending a small college in South Georgia—far away from the Spanish unrest; far away from the Croats, Slovenes, and Hungarians; far from Vladivostok and Manchuria. There are those in our student body who are quite ignorant as to where, and what, the Sarajevo dispute is—it means nothing to them.

In 1914 there were thousands of young women who had never heard of Sarajevo. A crown prince was assassinated there, and two years later the same young women were saying their last farewells to the men who meant everything in their lives. An incident that occurred in the province of Bosnia claimed lives in Emporia, Kansas and Chillicothe, Ohio. Some, husbands, and fathers went across the seas to fight from homes where the word Bosnia had never been mentioned.

There is something for youth to think about. Now is the time of Christmas. For a few weeks the world will forget its grievances in the thought of “Peace on earth, good will to men.” But with the new year, the old disputes will arise again. It does not concern us in any way now. The disputes matter not. It is the consequences that affect us.

We are the citizens of tomorrow. As such, it is our duty to prevent in every way that we can, the mistakes of today’s generation from maturing. For it is the echoes of today’s mistakes that will break tomorrow. The World War was not begun in 1914, it had been brewing for years. It took only a spark to light the conflagration.

It is our duty to educate ourselves in the ways of peace in order that we will not make mistakes that will cause future generations to suffer.

The attention of the youth of today is being attracted more by peace methods than by war. It can view the effects of the last war which are still with us, and it does not wish to make the same mistakes so that its children will have to pay the price of the folly.

So much of this has been said before, millions of times. Yet, it is the truth, and as such it needs no explanation.

The Christmas Festival

The things dearest to the hearts of graduates are the traditions of the college that they attended. A college is built upon its traditions, and no matter how small the institution, it has its hallowed practices.

Our college has a number of lovely traditions, but the annual Christmas Festival is without doubt one of the most effective. To the Freshman it is breath-taking, and to the Senior it grows more beautiful with the years.

A great many colleges do not place any emphasis upon Christmas and its meaning, but our college places a large amount in the meaning, before we leave for the holidays. This practice is an excellent one. The student has more of the Christmas spirit after he has seen anything so lovely.

There is not an alumna of the college who does not treasure the memories of the Christmas Festivals.

After looking over the situation, we think that we should institute a college for brides. The Fashion Show was very clever. We wish that every dress had been equally... Chic, style, and good taste ran rampant. There is nothing quite as lovely as the Christmas Festival. May it live forever! And while we were out there shopping, and enjoying the carols, we do feel sorry for the Freshmen. But we could get around too when we were that age. Leila Mae and a couple of them, are still on the prowl. The Dance is seen together frequently. And who did we see the editor at the movies with the other night? It must be due to similar tastes. And speaking of tastes, how about the Christmas dinner? Rachel is the pickie one’s favorite. And Seniors went very high-hat on Sunday. Oh, for the pleasures of an upper-classman! P. K. and a certain young man are still getting along very nicely. Good work in these times. Then, the Pine Branch was unusually quiet. We poked around there monthly, but then we can’t have our cake and eat it too... After Christmas, over sea, and those pondering swans will return.

The Scotch we have with us always... And Vangie is still looking to buy a Red Chevrolet, too... We’d give anything for Frances Hinson’s hair... And us a dish-water blonde!... We still think that we have one of the most beautiful campuses in the South... And the Pierrot and Pierrette costumes are quite “de wovwanked” (with apologies to the Barretts) things. But everyone who has seen them so far has been quite taken with them. We wish that we would get an invitation to those plays that the Play Production Class gave... Gentle hint... All donations will be appreciated. The Athletic Council splurged the other night too... And the Club for the students of the grand success... Hardy and Dris­kell amuse us to no end... We give out vote to the Senior House for popularity... And those steak suppers always are able to draw forth the feminine sighs... Hey, wait a minute—we’re hedging on Cinema Cynic.

Now that the Christmas Festival is over, we have the Sock and Buskin play, the Glee Club concert, and May Day to look forward to—with a hundred other social events... Is there anything more to compare with that—this is the last year that they will get mention... There will never be another like Garbo in our estimation... And Herbert Marshall will always be able to draw forth the feminine sighs... Hey, wait a minute—we’re hedging on Cinema Cynic.

We have used up a good bit of my time talking about one picture but true to form for me, I have not stuck entirely to my subject, so after all I am not to be blamed. There have been some rather heated discussion about my love for Garbo, for and against, since last week. I am glad I have been able to find what I like in the one either adores or hates Garbo. Of course I hope the former wins out, for the image of the latter is more notable to see another picture of her. But wasn’t it Caesar who said that he had rather be King of the Gauls than a mere robber? I had rather be Paul Lucas.

Cinema Cynic

Leila Urquhart

A cynic’s column is no place to say you to John Boles, Brian Ahearn, is my opinion in the question? My friend, than five impersonals—but what someone who was really my hates me and one who was really my wasn’t it Caesar who said that he had posed to be in itself a great honor? I had rather have one person who was loved me and one who was really my thanks you. I have found that everyone—except against, since last week. I am glad, have been some rather heated discussion about one picture that the Play Production Class gave. The Fashion Show was very clever. We wish that everyone who has seen them so far has been quite taken with them. We wish that we would get an invitation to those plays that the Play Production Class gave. Gentle hint... All donations will be appreciated. The Athletic Council splurged the other night too... And the Club for the students of the grand success... Hardy and Driskell amuse us to no end... We give out vote to the Senior House for popularity... And those steak suppers always are able to draw forth the feminine sighs... Hey, wait a minute—we’re hedging on Cinema Cynic.

Now that the Christmas Festival is over, we have the Sock and Buskin play, the Glee Club concert, and May Day to look forward to—with a hundred other social events... Is there anything more to compare with that—this is the last year that they will get mention... There will never be another like Garbo in our estimation... And Herbert Marshall will always be able to draw forth the feminine sighs... Hey, wait a minute—we’re hedging on Cinema Cynic. Now that the Christmas Festival is over, we have the Sock and Buskin play, the Glee Club concert, and May Day to look forward to—with a hundred other social events... Is there anything more to compare with that—this is the last year that they will get mention... There will never be another like Garbo in our estimation... And Herbert Marshall will always be able to draw forth the feminine sighs... Hey, wait a minute—we’re hedging on Cinema Cynic. Now that the Christmas Festival is over, we have the Sock and Buskin play, the Glee Club concert, and May Day to look forward to—with a hundred other social events... Is there anything more to compare with that—this is the last year that they will get mention... There will never be another like Garbo in our estimation... And Herbert Marshall will always be able to draw forth the feminine sighs... Hey, wait a minute—we’re hedging on Cinema Cynic.
RITZ

Theater

Wednesday, Dec. 19

"MENACE"

PAUL CAVAUGH and

GERTRUDE MICHAEL

Thursday, Friday, and Saturday

CHARLIE RUGGLES

MARY BOLAND

FRANCIS LEDERER and

JOAN BENNETT in

"PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS"

---

SPENCER—EDLEMAN

Captain and Mrs. F. W. Spencer, of Savannah, announce the engagement of their daughter, Adelaide Elizabeth, to Samuel Warren Edleman, of Savannah. The wedding will take place on December 25.

SENIORS ENTERTAINED

Miss Gertrude Gilmer entertained the members of the Senior class at Open House at the Senior House on Patterson Street last Sunday afternoon. The guests who called between the hours of four and six included: Billy Lastinger, Bill Oliver, Charles Joyner, John Oliver, Peyton Lawson, Julian Stovall, Clete Jackson, Bill Culpepper, Woody Dennis, Ansley Cope, Mills Lane, J. E. Culpepper, Walter Warren of Quitman, John Lilly of Quitman, Clyde Dorse, John Coleman, Clement Greene, Tom Wells, Dub Talley, Billy Schroer, Arthur Crabtree, Harris Dillies, Jocelyn Touchton, Marshall Paulk, James Dasher, Mr. James Stokes, Dr. Harold Punke, Mr. John Odum, and Harris Perry.

Miss Willene Roberts, of Valdosta, left today to spend the Christmas holidays in New York City. On her return trip home she will spend a few days in Cincinnati visiting relatives.

Mrs. Roy Sumner entertained Miss Louise Odum, bride-elect of this month, with a tea shower at her home in Ashburn on Friday, December 7.

Miss Annie Powe Hopper and Miss Iva Chandler will spend the Christmas holidays in New York City.

Miss Alimae Temple entertained her voice students with a buffet supper at the studio last Saturday evening. The guests included: Joy Miller, Pearl Wilson, Florence Thorpe, Virginia Kirkland, Martha Gardner, Ruth Williams, Jeannette Shifrin, Avrylea Burch, and Edith Bennett.

Miss Rosalyn Eubanks will visit in New Orleans during the holidays.

Miss Louise Sawyer entertained her expression pupils with tea on last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Iva Chandler entertained the Reading Club last Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Mildred Larsen, on North Williams Street. The house was decorated with poinsettias, the refreshments in red and green, carrying out the Christmas color scheme.

The topic of discussion for the evening was Pirandello's plays.

Miss Louise Sawyer will spend Christmas in Shreveport, Louisiana.

Among the out-of-town guests for the Festival this evening will be Judge and Mrs. M. D. Dickerson, of Douglas; Mrs. Jack Williams, of Waycross; Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Pryor, Jr., of Fitzgerald. Guests from Valdosta will include Mayor and Mrs. J. D. Ashley; Dr. and Mrs. A. Griffin, Judge Frank McCrackin, and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Mathis.

MYRICK—MILLER

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Myrick, of Quitman, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marie Kathleen, to Leo Clinton Miller, of Pavo. The marriage will take place during the Christmas holidays.

SHOWER FOR BRIDE

Miss Sara Bingham entertained with a shower in honor of Mrs. Hoke Smith, a recent bride, at her home on Adair street last Monday. The dining room was decorated in a yellow and green color combination, and the living room was charmingly arranged with pink and green note predominating. Those invited included: Miss Clyde Kendall, Miss Vanelle Kendall, Mrs. Marvin Vinson, Jr., Mrs. Arthur Conyers, Miss Mary Perry, Miss Broun Hatchinson, Miss Louise Smith, Miss Esther Smith, Miss Elizabeth Wilkes, Miss Billie Ham, Miss Kathryn Taylor, Miss Grace Lahey, Miss Elizabeth Larsey, and Miss Leonora DuFour.

During the afternoon Miss Henrietta Denman gave a musical reading: "A Chinese Romance." Miss Bingham was assisted in the entertainment by her sister, Miss Frances Bingham.

SEEN IN THE SHOPS

We grant you that you can’t get up town to do your shopping this week, but we can remind you of the stores to do your shopping in when you return. We have been looking around again this week, and we have been made eyesore by the sights, and green with envy.

At Mrs. Whittington’s there is a heavenly red wool dress that resembles our old favorites of the summer, the eyelet dresses. It is quite a novelty, and quite voguish. And the heavenly display of lingerie was still in the window as we wrote this.

Speaking of red, have you seen that red dress in Varnedoe’s? The lucky thing that buys it will certainly have our envious glances. There was a Russian toque in the window—We have no adjective to describe the chic of it. Just look in a late issue of Vogue or Harper’s Bazaar and let them do it for us. And of course the short little jacket that went with the ensemble was precious.

Churchwell’s have a handsome layout of men’s clothing. Why not think of the boy friend once in a while when you are shopping? Or Dad, or Brother, or just any member of the masculine parade that you are particularly fond of? It is they who foot the bills after all.

Brookwood has a nice display of candy. There is nothing that will draw us more than a box of good candy. Like a magnet! They also have some cosmetic combinations that are easily secured. One of the advantages of Brookwood is its proximity.

---

Mrs. Briggs Tea Room

Visit us for Your Sunday Evening Suppers

Excellent Home Cooking

---

VISIT

Brookwood Pharmacy

Right off the CAMPUS

Free Delivery

To the College

Call 336

---

Star Laundry

Wishing Our G. S. W. C. GIRLS

— a —

VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS and a HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR!

Laundry and Dry Cleaning

Phone 54
SPORTS

The Phi Lambdas had a very important meeting Monday, December 10, in the chemistry lecture room for the purpose of electing a president for the Association for the next two quarters. The vacancy is due to the graduation of Annie Belle Weatherford, of Savannah, at the close of the winter quarter. Miss Una Ritch, of Jesup, was elected president, and Miss Margaret Hudson, of Newton, was elected vice-president.

The Athletic Council had its regular meeting at the House-In-the-Woods Tuesday, December 11. The members of Council were entertained at supper by the secretaries and treasurers, organized sports managers, and campus games managers, of both associations. Those present were: Miss Leonora Ivey, Miss Elizabeth McRee, Louise O’Leary, Annie Rice, Bernie Weatherford, Una Ritch, Carol Forrester, Josephine Daniel, Pearl Wilson, Louise Driskell, Mildred Turnbull, Dorothy Ogletree, and Estelle Roberts.

Next quarter there will be a number of changes in the Athletic Associations as those pledges who have met the requirements will be initiated into either the Phi Kappa or the Phi Lambda Associations.

FRESHMEN ELECT OFFICERS

At Freshman Conference November the twenty-seventh, Virginia Zipples, of Savannah, was elected secretary, and Sarah Martha Pyle, of Valdosta, was elected treasurer of the Freshman class for 1934-35.

A committee composed of Juanita Kennedy, Alvata Carter, Carolyn Whipple, Ann Brooks, and Susie Mathews nominated several candidates for the offices. For secretary Virginia Zipples, Carolyn Askew and Frances Mathews were nominated for treasurer, Sarah Martha Pyle and Helen Ashbrook. The nominations were submitted by Juanita Kennedy, then voted on by the Freshman class.

PINE BRANCH OFF PRESS

The Pine Branch, literary quarterly, made its first appearance for this year on Friday. This issue has a number of outstanding articles and poems in it. Contributions were made from the Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes. Poems were written by Ola Lee Powell, Ethlyn Massey, Eloise Ogle, Kathryn Connell, Antoinette Andrews, Hulda Summer, and Leonora Dufour. Short stories were contributed by Virginia Tuck and Ethlyn Massey. Lorene Johnson and Elizabeth Larisey wrote two very clever essays for the edition, and Lee Stearns, Jo Daniels, Elizabeth Larisey, and Ethlyn Massey reviewed several of the newer books on the rental shelf in the library. A number of new sections have been added to the magazine, and it is different in its content this year. Only literary material is published, whereas previously news of the campus was published also.

The Critical Tips column has been retained and was written by Kathryn Connell. A new column on contributors has been inaugurated where the contributions and their authors are reviewed. A section on campus activities entitled “Patterns and Sketches” is also an innovation.

The next issue of The Pine Branch will be published in February, and students may start handing in contributions with the first of the year.

THE WEEKLY POSER

Last Week: Q.: A man having a seven gallon measure and a four gallon measure and no other container of any description goes to a well to get exactly five gallons of water. How does he do it?

Ans.: He fills up the 4-gallon measure and pours it into the 7-gallon measure. Then he refills the 4-gallon container and pours from it into the 7-gallon container as much as the latter will hold, or 3 gallons. This operation leaves him with 1 gallon in the 4-gallon measure. He completely empties the 7-gallon container and pours the 1 gallon into it. Then he again fills the 4-gallon measure and empties it into the 7-gallon measure which gives him the desired 5 gallons.

SOLVE THIS ONE BY NEXT WEEK

Assume that the earth is a perfect sphere and that a band is stretched about the equator so that it fits snugly. What would this distance be?

CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT

(Continued from Page One) Students: Alexis Daley, Margaret Hudson, Virginia Ingram, Ruby Harrison, Marie Middleton, Permelia Oliff, Sara Owens, "Tree" Smith, Shelby Sparks, Lella Urquhart, Doris Young, and Margaret Wade.

The next dance was the dance of the Christmas dolls. In this dance foreign countries received the emphasis. Emma Ambos represented Sweden; Lotta Griffin, Switzerland; Jesselyn Griggs, France; Mary Lois Hitch, Russia; Josephine Joubert, Spain; Priscilla Kelley, Sweden; Marie Miller, Holland; Ethlyn Ogletree, Spain; Lorene Thomas, Sweden; Elizabeth Tillman, Switzerland; Vivian Vincent, Holland.

One of the most famous of the old English dances is the dance of the Morris Men. They danced before Elizabeth, Queen of England, and their dance has been given since the days of the first Festival. In the group were: Bobbie Cochran, Geraldine Collins, Ellie Etheridge, Martha Gardner, Theresa Graham, Louise Harper, Martha Johnson, Martha Jones, Johnnie May Kelley, Blanche Looper, Lora McPhaul, Lois Pafford, Lois Perry, Sara Martha Pyle, Jane Twitty, Carolyn Whipple, Annie Laurie White, and Ruth Williams.

Miriam Adams, Chappie Bragg, Clara Louise Driskell, Billie Ham, Barnie Lou Newsome, and Dorothy Pizzuto were Knights of the Hobby Horse. Astride their prancing steeds they assailed the Hall, each bearing a gift for the Lords and Ladies of the court.

The last dances of the Festival were costumed stunningly, and the Pierrot and Pierrette dance was one of the loveliest of all. The costumes were of Black and White, with silver stars sprinkled over the tulle. The dancers were: Emma Ambos, Marie Joiner, Nellie Mae Gannon, Edna Merle Gibson, Esther Smith, Virginia Tuck, Mary Askew, Amanda Barksdale, Carol Fess, Matilda Tillman and Ames Watkins.

The last dance was the lovely, graceful Minuet with the Minuet and Minuet played as accompaniment. No Christmas Festival is ever complete without the powdered wigs and lace of Minuet Days. The Lords and Ladies of the Minuet were: Cleo Barber, Louise Odom, Jo Daniel, Patsy Sparks, Vanessa Kendall, Vangie Trimble, Estelle Roberts, Clare Lawson, Virginia Tuck, Joyce Tipton, Mildred Turnbull, and Louise Smith.