American Legion Home: Fund Will Benefit From First Performance Planned

The Glee Club members for this year have been selected and the work has begun, Miss Clara Bancroft, director, announced Wednesday.

The girls selected as members of the Glee Club are as follows: Edith Bennett, Annie Laurie Bell, Jane Brooks, Margaret Cannon, Frances Carson, Alexa Daley, Mildred Daniels, Leonora DuFourn, Beverly Doughtery, Pardee Greer, Louise Howell, Floye Ivie, Mary M. Johnson, Nellie Johnson, Nettie Johnson, Elizabeth Kelley, Blanche Locklear, Andrey London, Dot Morgan, Marion Middleton, Joy Miller, Evelyn May, Carroll Peeples, Mary Anna Pinckard, Sarah Pyle, Carrie Raycroft, Laura Mae Shinkle, Juanita Sermons, La Forest Smith, Vivian Stanfield, Grace Swindle, Leah Sutton, Kathryn Toole, Evelyn Tomison, Madder Watson, Ruth Williams, Charlotte Walton, Pearl Wilson, Margaret Wade, Frances Young, Doris Young, and Mary Greer, accompanist.

The first entertainment, will be an operetta given for the benefit of the American Legion home. Prominent Valdosta people will take the leading roles, and the College glee club will act as chorus under the direction of Miss Bancroft. The glee club of Em-} terica will probably be given around the time? The Y. W. C. A. at the Georgia State Woman's College has some very definite ideas as to what could be done with the time. The Y. W. C. A., and two stands of novels. Miss Meeks of the First Methodist church. Mr. Meeks spoke of the danger of sub-cinging the individual to the mass-hr and possibly the planting of new shrubs.

The money for the labor for this project is being gathered from the students. The raise is the same but a couple of two room suite for bed patients to the quiet side, the creation of the hall into a waiting room for dispensary patients, the addition of a laboratory, an extra bath room and an office with a dark room for transillumination and ophthalmoscopic work are our additions from space little used last year. And then as if to make our pleasing reality complete, walls have been retinned, woodwork done in ivory and radiators all dressed up afresh.

At last, but by no means, least, Miss Marjorie Carter of Norfolk, Virginia is with us. If, and when we give swimming, she will be the instructor, for she is a life guard. In the Health Service she will take over much of the work. Also, as plans are on to carry out some laboratory and metabolic work in connection with the state university and college system's mental tests.

Princeton University administrator recently announced an expansion plan that calls for the raising of $7,750,000.
The Campus Canopy

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE STUDENTS OF THE GEORGIA STATE WOMANS COLLEGE, VALDOSTA, GEORGIA.

EDITORIAL STAFF
LEONORA DUFOUR ... Editor
ANNIE JO EGGLESTON ... Associate Editor
MARY EDWIN THARPE ... Mem. Staff
ELIZABETH GREEN ... News Editor

ASSOCIATE EDITORS
Features: Marion Reid; Sports: Mary Maggert; Art: Betty Hardy; Society: Priscilla Kelley; Exchange: Paula Sapp.

BUSINESS STAFF
JO DANIEL .................... Business Mgr.
LEONORE JOHNSON ........ Advertising Mgr.
AMES WATKINS ............ Circulation Mgr.
RUTH WILLIAMS ............. Asst. Circulation Mgr.
AMES WATKINS ............ Circulation Mgr.
ELIZABETH GREEN ......... News Editor

ADVERTISING: Chappie Bragg, Josephine T. Jackson, Alva Carter, Pauline, Pearl Wilson, Margaret Hudson, Janie Joiner, Helen Vedder, Ethel Young, Whitaker, Vivian Stanford, Grace Swindle, Kathryn Toolie, Alice Taylor, Mary Jemison. CIRCULATION: Mary Griffin, Helen Felder, Lydia Joiner.

Accepted for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of March 3, 1917. Authorized January 30, 1919.

1935 Member 1936 Associated College Press Distributor of Collegiate Digest

AND OLD STANDBY—FRESHMAN INTELLIGENCE

From the recent tests given the freshmen of the college we would be tempted to state that the freshman intelligence is slightly above that of last year, as seven freshmen were exempt from freshmen English as the result of placement tests as compared with two last year. But, unfortunately, that was not the only test given the freshmen this year.

The student government exam was one of those given freshmen and some of the answers will go down as part of the tradition of alma mater. It seems that one freshman thinks that a busy day is the one you place on your door when you want to eat; another gets slightly mixed up on “taps,” and still another, when told to dress for dinner as she would if she were going to church replied: You mean wear battle- dress.

So it seems that our freshmen have been spending all their time declining nouns and comparing adjectives, and that after all the good old academic subjects, first in freshman hands are the daughters of the institution.

Seniors at the Newark College of Engineering have voted in favor of allowing women to enter their classe.

Biochemist Hector Mortimer told the American Neurologic Association recently that our skulls get denser as we grow older. And the condition is ten times more common in women than in men!

CINEMA CYNIC

BY PRISCILLA KELLEY

It has been said by “one who knew that there is one infallible for that can be used in Valdosta to make a picture a success; that is if it contains some good songs. In this case “Follies Berger,” with Maurice Chevalier, should be extremely popular, as it contains not only catchy songs and some excellent dance routines. Speaking of dance routines—Ruby Ke (with hubby, Al Jolson) will be brought back by popular request adding a new charm to the picture. That number that Guy Lombardo played so much during the summer “About A Quarter Of Nine,” is one of the hits from this picture.

The all technicolor film, “Be Sharp,” adapted from Dr. Gulph’s own Thackeray’s “Vanity Fair,” arousing a great deal of controversy whether or not technicolor is to stay. “The Stage” commented it was an extremely crude period piece, but that its future is promising. As for the picture itself it is a highly entertaining one, keep the audience in a slightly nervous state throughout. In fact the main character is so vivacious and high strung that some of the boys from W. C.’s, recent senior classes, usual quite calm and placid, had the jitters in the middle of the performance as was forced to leave the theater.

Michelle Hopkins a native of her hometown too!

Shirley Temple, star of “Curly Top” assumed international importance as soon as she was recognized in this country. In France, she is acclaimed the most popular Hollywood star. For “Curly Top,” the French version of “The Littlest Rebel” since “Curly” has been studied French for a year and is quite proficient in it.

It might be of interest to some of the parallel reading French students that Louis Hemon’s classic of French Canadian life, “Maria Chapdelaine” has been brought to the screen in color, horror and beauty. It was awarded the Grand Prix du Cinema Francophone.

If the picture of the Baer-Louf fight is as exciting as the radio account of it was, it should be well worth seeing.

That man Louis must be some boxer, as W. C’s recently senior classes, usual quite calm and placid, had the jitters in the middle of the performance. W. C’s recent senior classes, usual quite calm and placid, had the jitters in the middle of the performance. W. C’s recent senior classes, usual quite calm and placid, had the jitters in the middle of the performance as was forced to leave the theater. A Miriam Hopkins a native of her hometown too!

KAMPUS KALEIDOSCOPE

A cheer for the freshmen who breezed through college at the beginning of each year still glow with the warmth of “young love,” thus providing some choice bits of news for this column.

For instance, there is that ultra-attractive freshman whose heart belongs to a Sigma Nu—the self same Sigma Nu who has sent many girls off to school with fluttering hearts in his day. And then there is the little Fitzgerald roommate who just has to go home for the weekend because the one and only is leaving on a long, long trip to be away for ever so long.

Nor could we fail to notice the “sisterly” feeling that exists between a Freshman senior and an Albany man. Perhaps mutual interest in the former’s brother has something to do with this.

Have you noticed the blonde reason for the frequent appearance of young Neal Scott on our campus? And they former’s brother has something to do with this.

To call 918 since the dance Saturday night, you'll see us knowing that they made up with our “little brothers” as quick as a flash.

Even though this column is especially devoted to freshman news this week there are a few items of interest among the upper classmen that just can’t be overlooked.

There is the sophomore who still puts ice cream foremost on her diet, and the junior who is still true to a B. M. O. C. at Emory Junior and another junior who had already had four animated telephone conversations with a party unknown in Cordele, and a big-eyed sophomore who is wearing a brand new engagement ring, and a Moultrie sophomore.

Sunday night date from the home town called that he just couldn’t wait and so would come on Tuesday night instead.

NOTICE

Dr. Durrenberger accepts the challenge of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Reade to engage in a tennis match, the play to begin Thursday afternoon. He will have as his partner, Dr. Harold Gulliver. He plans to play two sets a day for the first days of the meet, and

In contrast, the Department of Agriculture, have had their dignity severely jolted by the influx of Brain Trusters, Junior Brain Trusters, and their various appointees and disciples.

The Department of Labor is an outstanding example. Once its Bureau of Labor statistics had as personnel a great many elderly, slow-moving people, but now if you were to drop around you would find a considerable sprinkling of youthful statisticians.

INTELLIGENCE

Our freshmen this year.

Our freshmen have in many cases infected the towns full of such clerky people, plus vates, have in many cases infected the towns full of such clerky people, plus

But, unfortunately, that was not the only test given the freshmen this year.

The student government exam was one of those given freshmen and some of the answers will go down as part of the tradition of alma mater. It seems that one freshman thinks that a busy day is the one you place on your door when you want to eat; another gets slightly mixed up on “taps,” and still another, when told to dress for dinner as she would if she were going to church replied: You mean wear battle- dress.

So it seems that our freshmen have been spending all their time declining nouns and comparing adjectives, and that after all the good old academic subjects, first in freshman hands are the daughters of the institution.

Seniors at the Newark College of Engineering have voted in favor of allowing women to enter their classe.

Biochemist Hector Mortimer told the American Neurologic Association recently that our skulls get denser as we grow older. And the condition is ten times more common in women than in men!
LETTERS TO AUNT SOPHIE

All letters to Aunt Sophie are carefully censored before printing, so do not be bashful! Come on, Keds!

Dear Aunt Sophie:

I'm a young girl considered attractive by my friends, but someway I just don't rate with the boys. Is there anything I could do to win love, romance and thrills? Longing P. S.—I wear nice clothes and can cook and sew. I am domestic.

Ans: My dear Longing: Your troubles lies in the postscript of your letter.

No playboy wants to sit in the parlor praising pie-crust and puddings. He'd rather be out doing the rhumba or holding your hand by the moonlight. Come out of the kitchen! Be modern! Buy a new lipstick and use it, sister, use it! And above all, don't shun the less attractive men for the bright lights. Bankrolls are no respecters of pulchritude, you know. And just in case you marry money, what per cent cut do I get?

That city young thing,
That coy young thing.

Dear Aunt Sophie:

Why don't girls like me? It's true that I am an ex-pugilist and have cauliflower ears and a squash nose—but true love disregards details. Can you help me?

Bango.

Ans: Dear Bango:

My, but you sound like a horticulturist's nightmare—or a vegetable somnambulist! What you need is the address of a good plastic surgeon or a good boat rigger. I will gladly furnish either on receipt of two bucks or one five!

Toodle-o—
Aunt Sophie.

PERSONAL MENTION

The Valdosta Cotillion Club met Monday afternoon at the Valdies Hotel.

Mary Perry will spend the coming week-end in Atlanta with friends.

Nettie and Nellie Johnson spent last Sunday in Cordele with their sister, Miss Louise Johnson.

Jeselyn Moseley attended the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Lane in Clayetteville Monday evening.

Virginia Teasley had as her guest Sunday Miss Mary Malone Hicks of Vienna.

Marjorie Groover and Walter Warren, of Quitman, were the guests of Ann Groover, Wednesday. Marjorie was a member of the '35 graduating class.

Miss La Verne Bell and Miss Maxine London were the guests of their sisters, Annie Laurie Bell and Audrey London this week.

Mrs. Hugh Cannon, accompanied by Mr. Francis Brannon of Cairo, were the guests of Margaret Cannon Sunday.

Frank Middleton of Albany, spent Saturday with Joy Miller. Mary Alderman spent Sunday in Pavo.

Jimmy Rossiter, and Joe Purter were among guests of Mary DuBois Sunday.

Parepa Moore of Lyons, Ga., visited on our campus Wednesday. C. L. McCord of Jacksonville, will visit Foye Clarke Sunday.

William Dupriest and Allan Clements, of Moultrie, were the guests of Barbara Hatcher and Margaret Abernathy Sunday.

Boodie Hatcher of Moultrie, formerly a student here, was a visitor on the campus Friday.

Willene Smith spent Sunday at her home in Patterson, Ga.

Vivian Paulk will spend the week-end with her parents in Fitzgerald.

Frances Walton visited her sister, Charlotte, last week-end.

Mrs. Inez Olliveros of Savannah was a visitor on the campus Tuesday.

Mrs. E. T. Wright, of Sparks, visited Bernice Rountree Sunday.

Ouida Murdock spent the weekend in Meigs.

Virginia Buntin spent last week-end in Albany.

Mrs. E. T. Parker was visiting her daughter, Sara, last week-end.

Trecy Long and Julia Harrell had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Harrell.

Churchwell's Department Store

College Girls Headquarters

"Always a booster of the College and a booster for Valdosta."

"A FRIENDLY Store—with styled right merchandise always at popular prices."

Make Our Store Your Headquarters

Churchwell's
Nicknames Are Never Outgrown By Adults

BY CHAPPIE BRAGG

Nicknames, the bane of a parent's existence, and the delight of a child's life, are not, sad to say, outgrown along with childish freckles, snaggle teeth and short dresses. On our own college campus we have splendid examples of nicknames which bring sometimes joy and sometimes sorrow to their respective owners.

"E. K." and "P. K." make a nice family circle, do they not? But would not Priscilla raise her hands in horror if it leaked out that at home they call her "Tuffy"? Then take "Jaco" Griego, for instance. Strange that she shouldn't get her "moniker" through a mistake made by a boyfriend.

Of course "Jo's" and "Reds" are common as on all campuses, but "Tad" which is really a Junior, being handed out.

The following staff has been announced to aid in the publication of the yearbook: Lucille Thompson, business manager; Luella Giddens, assistant business manager; Leonora Do Four, literary editor; Amanda Bark-dale, advertising manager, Leila Mae Tyson, assistant advertising manger; Myra Heckett, snapshot editor; Carol Forrester, assistant snapshot editor; Ames Watkins, activities editor; Frances Garbutt, art editors.

Ten thousand students at a Los Angeles relief school are paid to go to school—and do they cut classes?

The Country Store, operated by the F. W. C. A., will sell ice cream now that a frigidaire has been installed in the store.

Yale and Harvard students will meet in annual "intellectual" contest for a prize of $5,000 awarded in the will of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Putnam.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Whipple spent Sunday afternoon with their daughter, Carolyn.

Mr. David Jones was the guest of Virginia Giddens Sunday.

Mrs. Bert Libby visited her niece, Annie Laurie White, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Cox of Lenox spent Sunday with their daughter, Lucy.

Mr. Ormande Martin, of Flemington, was the guest of Mary Alice and Nell Martin Sunday afternoon.

Marjorie Butler, a former student here, spent Sunday with her sister, Helen.

Martha Woods, spent the week-end in Dawson.

The largest delegation of students from any foreign country to the United States comes from China.

Parents and even grandparents are now given the opportunity to take regular courses with and earn university degrees in afternoon study under a new adult education plan developed at the University of Southern Caliifornia.