College Plans 25th Yule Festival

Annual Christmas Festival Will Be December 16
In Ashley Hall

As has been the custom of the college for twenty-five years, students, faculty members and invited guests will celebrate the evening before going home for the holidays with Ye Olde English Christmas Festival.

Master of Ceremonies will be Mrs. Lenora Dwy, as the "Lord of Misrule." Her underling, the Court Fool, will attend to any misruling the master of ceremonies happens to neglect.

Medieval Manor

The festival on this campus is a reproduction of one that might have taken place in medieval times in an ancient castle. The banquet hall is festively decorated with green vine, Christmas berries, mistletoe, lighted tapers, and brightly colored tapestries.

Present at the Festival will be the Lord of the Manor (Dr. and Mrs. Frank R. Bead) with their invited guests, who will sit on a dais overlooking the entire hall.

"Processional"

Singing "Aedeste Fideles," the students, transformed for the evening into the good people of Merry England, stream into the feast hall attired in costumes of lords and ladies, peasants, Robin Hoods, milkmaids, and others.

Alumnae Give Fountain

Members of the GSWC Alumnae Association plan to present the college with a fountain as their Anniversary gift on the college's 25th birthday in January.

The fountain of cut stone in the Spanish type of architecture will be three-tiered with a pool, and will be placed in the main walkway in front of West College for $1,400. Plans were drawn for a fountain when the campus layout was originally planned, and the fountain will add materially to the beauty of the college plant.

Contributions are being received daily from alumni in numerous cities from New York to Miami. Efforts have been made to contact each alumna as every one will want to have a part in making the gift.

Almost 6,000 students have registered since the founding of the college in 1913; over 1,000 are listed officially as alumnae.

sake of anyone who might be remotely interested, there will be no Campus Canopy next week. Those who have exams, not to mention holidaze. And speaking of holidaze, the staff will (we hope) spend them collecting material for a gala, gala issue to celebrate the college's 25th Anniversary. The Silver Jubilee Canopy will probably appear around January 13.

Freshmen Will Sing Carols On Festival Morn

Dormitory girls will awaken on the morning of Christmas vacation to the tune of "Silent Night." The freshmen members of the Glee Club will softly and teasingly awaken students from slumber by singing Christmas carols up and down the dormitories.

The Glee Club begins its carols of good cheer at 6:30 and continues the lovely songs until 7:30. Senior Hall, then Ashlies, and hankies, featured at Briggs and Keller's are very new, and, oh, so outstanding. Should he be of a more dignified type perhaps a less conspicuous gift is desirable. You only have to name it; they can serve you.

So there you have it. Anything you wish to purchase, but rather than take my word for it, why not see for yourself?

YWCA Pageant

Those taking parts in the pageant were: Ruby Lilly, as Mary; Leona Birdland, as Joseph; Virginia Smith, Mary DuBois, Margaret Abernathy, as angels; Pardee Greer, Edith Bennets, Montine Cowart, as kings; Elizabeth Garbutt, Mary Hudson, Dody Wilson, as shepherds; Margaret Weir, Bettie Williams, Hazel Williams, as little girls.

Silver Jubilee Set for 1938

In commemoration of the twenty-fifth year since the founding of GSWC, January 14, 1918, have been set aside as the dates for celebrating the Silver Jubilee. Assembling in Valdosta for the occasion will be many distinguished educators of this state and country.

Junior College

GSWC had its beginning as a junior college in 1913 when it was known as the South Georgia State Normal College, devoted to the training of teachers. In changing the function of the school from the Normal College to a four-year Liberal Arts College, the school was given the name of the Georgia State Women's Colleges open to women.

There have been only three college presidents since the founding: Dr. R. H. Powell, the first president, the late Dr. Jere M. Poulter, and Dr. Frank R. Read, the present president.

The evening proceeds from the comic and the ludicrous to the comic and the ludicrous, from the whimsical to the serious, and from the serious to the comic. As the evening progresses, the music passes from the whimsical folk carol to a religious note, which deepens at last with the beauty and grace of the stately minuet.

Now the lights are extinguished, the entire company march out to the candle-light recessional, "Silent Night, Holy Night," and there comes to our ears an interpretation of the meaning of Christmas. The music is adapted, and very well, at the same time practicable on a campus or in a community. Plans have been made to accommodate two thousand students, professors and advisors.

Fall Exams

Final exams begin Tuesday, November 17, and will not be conducted under the new plan.

Students will vote on the faculty - student proctor system after the Christmas holidays.

A vote of 4-1 in favor of the new system was taken by the SGA president at a meeting of the student body on November 17. However, the committee was called primarily for another purpose. Only one third of the students were present, and the vote cannot be official.

New System

The new system whereby both students and faculty report dishonesty on exams is growing, in favor with the students if the vote taken Thursday is any indication.

At a faculty meeting Thursday afternoon, the teachers expressed the opinion that the new system should be discussed more fully before going into effect. They believe that each student's vote should be counted.

Fall Exams

Final exams begin Tuesday, November 17, and will not be conducted under the new plan.

Student Directory

A joint - faculty directory compiled by the Junior class is expected to be completed today or during the first of next week.

The directory will list students and faculty members' home addresses and telephone numbers. Dormitory addresses are not listed because the school is small.

According to Mary Hudson, the directories will be mimeographed. The covers will be red and black, the school colors, and will be attractively finished. Three hundred copies are being made and there will be a charge of one copy.

You see, he had to hurry off about his rounds and had to trust the monitors with such late rewards. We all love "the night before Christmas"— for you see, Santa leaves the Festival for us and wishes us Godspeed in our homes where he will see us again and talk over old times with us in our dreams on Christmas Eve.
