Three New Teachers Join GSWC Faculty This Term

Dr. Frank R. Reade, president of the college, has announced three changes in GSWC’s faculty for the 1942-43 term. Dr. Oliver Stone has accepted a position in the faculty of the University of North Carolina. Prof. Erick Pister succeeds Dr. Harold Punke as Professor of Education, and Miss Ruth Rees has been elected to fill a vacancy in the Sociology Department.

She succeeds Alan Alary Longley in the Sociology Department and has announced three changes in GSWC’s faculty for the 1942-43 term. Dr. Oliver Stone has accepted a position in the faculty of the University of North Carolina. Prof. Erick Pister succeeds Dr. Harold Punke as Professor of Education, and Miss Ruth Rees has been elected to fill a vacancy in the Sociology Department.

Freshmen Urged to Return Info Sheet

Freshmen are urged to fill out their application for college which will be due at the University of North Carolina. They are required to meet the regular sessions.

This fall for the first time in its history, the Georgia State College has an enrollment of men as students. This is an emergency measure which will be continued during the in-absentia term until the regular schedule is resumed.

Students who have registered for the new term will include William H. Briscoe, who is enrolled in the University. Only men living in Valdosta will be permitted to enter the college for study.

Dr. Reade has included men in its summer school enrollment for a number of years.

Student Government Association and the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet are cooperating with college authorities in the planning of Freshman Week. This will be held in co-operation with the local Y. W. C. A. Cabinet. Students will attend state and local activities. During Orientation Week new students will be introduced to the college. The Freshman class will be given an opportunity to express its ideas on the future of the college.

Dr. Reade, president of the college, and Miss Annie Perry, Dean of Women, will officially welcome members of the Freshman class at the first assembly of the term.

Men Students Are Admitted at GSWC

Dr. Frank R. Reade, president of the college, and Dr. Oliver Stone, who is succeeded by Prof. Erick Pister, have announced the following changes in GSWC’s faculty for the 1942-43 term. Dr. Oliver Stone has accepted a position in the Sociology Department and Miss Ruth Rees has been elected to fill a vacancy.

Dr. Reade’s courses have been offered for the Freshman Class at Picturing the sculptor, Pygmalion, and Jean Longley, who was the sculptor. She succeeds Alan Alary Longley in the Sociology Department. She is now taking a trainee in the field of sculpture.

Three New Teachers Join GSWC Faculty This Term

Dr. Frank R. Reade, president of the GSWC, has announced three changes in the college’s faculty for the 1942-43 term. Dr. Oliver Stone has accepted a position at the University of North Carolina. Prof. Erick Pister succeeds Dr. Harold Punke as Professor of Education, and Miss Ruth Rees has been elected to fill a vacancy in the Sociology Department.

Dr. Stone’s courses have been offered for the Freshman Class at the college. The Freshman class will be given an opportunity to express its ideas on the future of the college.

Dr. Reade, president of the college, and Miss Annie Perry, Dean of Women, will officially welcome members of the Freshman class at the first assembly of the term.

Socks and Buskin To Present Skit

Socks and Buskin, the Dramatic club of the Georgia State Woman’s College, will present a series of skits on reading on Monday evening, September 28, in the college auditorium, according to an announcement made by the president of the club. The series of skits will be entitled “Last Name’s Gone,” which will begin with “The First Name,” which will be presented at 9:15 P.M. on Monday evening. This will be followed by “The Second Name’s Gone,” which will be presented at 9:30 P.M. on Tuesday evening. The series will conclude with “The Last Name’s Gone,” which will be presented at 9:45 P.M. on Wednesday evening.

Socks and Buskin To Present Skit

Socks and Buskin, the Dramatic club of the Georgia State Woman’s College, will present a series of skits on reading on Monday evening, September 28, in the college auditorium, according to an announcement made by the president of the club. The series of skits will be entitled “Last Name’s Gone,” which will begin with “The First Name,” which will be presented at 9:15 P.M. on Monday evening. This will be followed by “The Second Name’s Gone,” which will be presented at 9:30 P.M. on Tuesday evening. The series will conclude with “The Last Name’s Gone,” which will be presented at 9:45 P.M. on Wednesday evening.

Socks and Buskin To Present Skit

Socks and Buskin, the Dramatic club of the Georgia State Woman’s College, will present a series of skits on reading on Monday evening, September 28, in the college auditorium, according to an announcement made by the president of the club. The series of skits will be entitled “Last Name’s Gone,” which will begin with “The First Name,” which will be presented at 9:15 P.M. on Monday evening. This will be followed by “The Second Name’s Gone,” which will be presented at 9:30 P.M. on Tuesday evening. The series will conclude with “The Last Name’s Gone,” which will be presented at 9:45 P.M. on Wednesday evening.

Socks and Buskin To Present Skit

Socks and Buskin, the Dramatic club of the Georgia State Woman’s College, will present a series of skits on reading on Monday evening, September 28, in the college auditorium, according to an announcement made by the president of the club. The series of skits will be entitled “Last Name’s Gone,” which will begin with “The First Name,” which will be presented at 9:15 P.M. on Monday evening. This will be followed by “The Second Name’s Gone,” which will be presented at 9:30 P.M. on Tuesday evening. The series will conclude with “The Last Name’s Gone,” which will be presented at 9:45 P.M. on Wednesday evening.

Socks and Buskin To Present Skit

Socks and Buskin, the Dramatic club of the Georgia State Woman’s College, will present a series of skits on reading on Monday evening, September 28, in the college auditorium, according to an announcement made by the president of the club. The series of skits will be entitled “Last Name’s Gone,” which will begin with “The First Name,” which will be presented at 9:15 P.M. on Monday evening. This will be followed by “The Second Name’s Gone,” which will be presented at 9:30 P.M. on Tuesday evening. The series will conclude with “The Last Name’s Gone,” which will be presented at 9:45 P.M. on Wednesday evening.

Socks and Buskin To Present Skit

Socks and Buskin, the Dramatic club of the Georgia State Woman’s College, will present a series of skits on reading on Monday evening, September 28, in the college auditorium, according to an announcement made by the president of the club. The series of skits will be entitled “Last Name’s Gone,” which will begin with “The First Name,” which will be presented at 9:15 P.M. on Monday evening. This will be followed by “The Second Name’s Gone,” which will be presented at 9:30 P.M. on Tuesday evening. The series will conclude with “The Last Name’s Gone,” which will be presented at 9:45 P.M. on Wednesday evening.
To the Class of ’16

[Text continues with various topics and events related to student life, campus events, and news of individual students.]

Sketching

Miss Marjorie Carter, who by this time is known to every occupant of the dormitory, is a native of Virginia. She is a graduate of the college and the smallest dormitory girl in several years.

Miss Carter's duties by no means end with in-room ball meetings, every now and then she is seen at the college dining halls, first aid lectures, and work as an Assistant Dean of Womans' College. Among the last people on campus.

She received her B.S. at the College of William and Mary, and her M.A. in biology at the University of Virginia. The Survey of Biology is one that leaves every student who has taken the state exam in that subject praising her teaching methods.

During the summer Miss Carter spent a week in the Adelphi camp in Virginia, as riding instructor. She is an excellent riding instructor at GSWC, and still rides today.

Miss Carter's dining hall table is usually the last to leave the room, after the others have gone on long after meals are over, usually centering about plans for important dances that the classmen who hear on an amusingly humorous manner and feel that Carter into a conversation about the young man himself.

Miss Carter is an advocate of changing the name of the college to something more brief and less commonplace, she is concerned with improving the health conditions of the dormitory girls, and giving anyone helpful hints on posture and relaxation.

Freshmen who are in doubt about any college regulations are urged to speak to Miss Carter concerning them. If Miss Carter is not available, Mrs. Hopper or Sara Catherine Martin.

Martin

Reminiscences of Freshman Days

Many of the classes, concerts, institutions, policies, and events that made your college life so exciting are now but a distant memory. But, if you search through your mind, you will find a trace of the feeling when you first started college and the excitement you felt. It was a time of change and growth, and you were eager to learn more about yourself and the world around you.

Some of the best memories of your college days are the conversations you had with your fellow students. You shared your thoughts and feelings, and you learned from each other. Those conversations were a way of connecting with others and understanding their perspectives.

In conclusion, your college days were filled with many memories that you will cherish forever. Even though you may not be able to relive the past, you can still remember the joy and excitement you felt during those years. So, let's celebrate the memories of those wonderful days, and continue to make new memories in the present.

The Campus Canopy

Published weekly by students at the Georgia State Women's College

Associate Editor

Ruth B. Sheppard
Managing Editor

Franklin Jones
Assistant Editor

N. C. Martin

Rejected

Kampus KALEIDOSCOPE

Martin

Reminiscences Of Freshman Days

Many memories of classes, concerts, institutions, policies, and events that made your college life so exciting are now but a distant memory. But, if you search through your mind, you will find a trace of the feeling when you first started college and the excitement you felt. It was a time of change and growth, and you were eager to learn more about yourself and the world around you.

Some of the best memories of your college days are the conversations you had with your fellow students. You shared your thoughts and feelings, and you learned from each other. Those conversations were a way of connecting with others and understanding their perspectives.

In conclusion, your college days were filled with many memories that you will cherish forever. Even though you may not be able to relive the past, you can still remember the joy and excitement you felt during those years. So, let's celebrate the memories of those wonderful days, and continue to make new memories in the present.

The Campus Canopy

Published weekly by students at the Georgia State Women's College

Associate Editor

Ruth B. Sheppard
Managing Editor

Franklin Jones
Assistant Editor

N. C. Martin

Rejected

Kampus KALEIDOSCOPE
Student Government Head Attends World Conference

Miss Sara Catherine (Kitty) Martin has returned from Washington, D.C., where she attended the World Convention of International Student Assembly, which brought together 350 students from 53 nations. The assembly was enthusiastically supported by the governments of United Nations and the foreign delegates were chosen and sent by their governments. This convention was probably the only official Allied international conference which will be held during the war.

The program was planned around the past, present, and future, and considered under the theme, "The End of Imperialism," "The Peoples Century," and "The Peace of Interdependence." It was attended by the World Convention of International Student Assembly, and the foreign delegations of their countries. Miss Martin represented the North American continent at a breakfast at the White House on Wednesday morning and on a coast to coast radio broadcast with Mrs. Roosevelt and five foreign delegations on Thursday night. She was given a ride by Mrs. Roosevelt in a White House car, and attended a garden party at the Executive Mansion on Saturday. She represented the U.S. delegation on steering committees and helped to draft the credo, a set of principles determining their attitude toward the conduct of the war and the making of the post-war world. Before acting with the embassies or legations of their countries, Miss Martin served on the committee on arrangements for the conference and was active on many other committees. She made the nomination for the young man who was elected president of the U.S. delegation. "The Way-cross Journal Herald."
Sports Club Plans Parties For Frosh

The Sports Club, largest of campus clubs, will entertain Wednesday night for the Freshman Class. The Sports Council is planning a hike with a blue dog supper, the destination being Joe-Keo's Mill Pond. After hiking back to the campus, the group will gather in the gymnasium where upperclassmen will see that the new girls have well acquainted with the Sports Club in a very entertaining manner. Later there will be games and contests on front campus. The nosegay supper will be prepared through the courtesy of the college dining hall.

The Sports Club's plans for Freshman Week don't end with one party, however. They have arranged an open house to which all freshmen are invited on Friday afternoon at the House in the Woods. There will be short demonstrations of campus sports and a splash party in the pool.

The vice-president is to be elected, Evelyn O'Neal Johnson having resigned. The Sports Club is governed by these girls with the assistance of a council. Sports Council is composed of faculty advisors, officers, and a group of girls interested in different sports on campus. The personnel of the council changes somewhat each quarter. Faculty advisors of the Sports Club include instructors in physical education. They are: Miss Leonard, head of the department, and Miss Ruth Reid, Miss Kermere Carter, and Mrs. Johnny Oliver.

The Sports Club plans parties for Frosh. Wednesday night for the Freshman Class. The Sports Council is planning a hike with a blue dog supper, the destination being Joe-Keo's Mill Pond. After hiking back to the campus, the group will gather in the gymnasium where upperclassmen will see that the new girls have well acquainted with the Sports Club in a very entertaining manner. Later there will be games and contests on front campus. The nosegay supper will be prepared through the courtesy of the college dining hall.

The Sports Club's plans for Freshman Week don't end with one party, however. They have arranged an open house to which all freshmen are invited on Friday afternoon at the House in the Woods. There will be short demonstrations of campus sports and a splash party in the pool.

The vice-president is to be elected, Evelyn O'Neal Johnson having resigned. The Sports Club is governed by these girls with the assistance of a council. Sports Council is composed of faculty advisors, officers, and a group of girls interested in different sports on campus. The personnel of the council changes somewhat each quarter. Faculty advisors of the Sports Club include instructors in physical education. They are: Miss Leonard, head of the department, and Miss Ruth Reid, Miss Kermere Carter, and Mrs. Johnny Oliver.

The Sports Club plans parties for Frosh. Wednesday night for the Freshman Class. The Sports Council is planning a hike with a blue dog supper, the destination being Joe-Keo's Mill Pond. After hiking back to the campus, the group will gather in the gymnasium where upperclassmen will see that the new girls have well acquainted with the Sports Club in a very entertaining manner. Later there will be games and contests on front campus. The nosegay supper will be prepared through the courtesy of the college dining hall.

The Sports Club's plans for Freshman Week don't end with one party, however. They have arranged an open house to which all freshmen are invited on Friday afternoon at the House in the Woods. There will be short demonstrations of campus sports and a splash party in the pool.

The vice-president is to be elected, Evelyn O'Neal Johnson having resigned. The Sports Club is governed by these girls with the assistance of a council. Sports Council is composed of faculty advisors, officers, and a group of girls interested in different sports on campus. The personnel of the council changes somewhat each quarter. Faculty advisors of the Sports Club include instructors in physical education. They are: Miss Leonard, head of the department, and Miss Ruth Reid, Miss Kermere Carter, and Mrs. Johnny Oliver.

The Sports Club plans parties for Frosh. Wednesday night for the Freshman Class. The Sports Council is planning a hike with a blue dog supper, the destination being Joe-Keo's Mill Pond. After hiking back to the campus, the group will gather in the gymnasium where upperclassmen will see that the new girls have well acquainted with the Sports Club in a very entertaining manner. Later there will be games and contests on front campus. The nosegay supper will be prepared through the courtesy of the college dining hall.

The Sports Club's plans for Freshman Week don't end with one party, however. They have arranged an open house to which all freshmen are invited on Friday afternoon at the House in the Woods. There will be short demonstrations of campus sports and a splash party in the pool.

The Christmas council's plans for Freshman Week don't end with one party, however. They have arranged an open house to which all freshmen are invited on Friday afternoon at the House in the Woods. There will be short demonstrations of campus sports and a splash party in the pool.

The Sports Club plans parties for Frosh. Wednesday night for the Freshman Class. The Sports Council is planning a hike with a blue dog supper, the destination being Joe-Keo's Mill Pond. After hiking back to the campus, the group will gather in the gymnasium where upperclassmen will see that the new girls have well acquainted with the Sports Club in a very entertaining manner. Later there will be games and contests on front campus. The nosegay supper will be prepared through the courtesy of the college dining hall.

The Sports Club's plans for Freshman Week don't end with one party, however. They have arranged an open house to which all freshmen are invited on Friday afternoon at the House in the Woods. There will be short demonstrations of campus sports and a splash party in the pool.

The vice-president is to be elected, Evelyn O'Neal Johnson having resigned. The Sports Club is governed by these girls with the assistance of a council. Sports Council is composed of faculty advisors, officers, and a group of girls interested in different sports on campus. The personnel of the council changes somewhat each quarter. Faculty advisors of the Sports Club include instructors in physical education. They are: Miss Leonard, head of the department, and Miss Ruth Reid, Miss Kermere Carter, and Mrs. Johnny Oliver.