December and March graduates announce Hood Sisters

Clothing Class — Will Present Fashion Show

The students of G.S.W.C. will be entertained by a fashion show presented by Miss Lola Drew's beginning sewing class on November 20th. This class will model the dresses that they have been working on this quarter. They have carefully selected their material, style, and colors to bring out their best potentials.

Gwen Adkins will model her shell pink Botany flannel dress. While Susan Branch, winner of the National 4-H Club Clothing Contest will show her soft pink, tailored crepe, which features interesting pink and blue stripes. Also included in the show will be blue dress of Mary Davis, Emily Anne Crum will wear her striking red velvet afghan crepe and a new note. Her side pockets on Rosa Yarbough's blue dress add a new note. Her straight rayon cotton fabrics as the new material, Emily Anne Crum will wear is quite the thing been quite active. Sometime ago a Deputation Team To Go U. S. O.

The Deputation Team of the Y.W.C.A. will sponsor a program at the U.S.O. Sunday afternoon, including a fashion show and Vesper program to be given. Those who are scheduled for this program are Betty Rentz, Edith Collins, Catharine Garbutt, and Betty Street.

Seniors Raise Large Sum For W.B.S.F.

Seniors, current students, alumni, and friends of the college contributed to this fund every year by a combination of means of entertainment. One thousand sociologists belong to the student organization contributed to this fund every year by a combination of means of entertainment.

Heart Of A City To Play In Auditorium Tonight

Heart of A City, a play in three acts by Lesley Storm, is to be presented by the Sorority of the Arts and the Play Production Class of the Georgia State Women's College, in the Auditorium tonight at 8:30 clock.

The play, Heart of A City, under the direction of Louise Brown, is both a comic and heroic comedy on show, and a small stage play drama. It will be the last of the fall season, and a new play will be presented in March.

Assisting Miss Sawyer in directing Heart of A City is Miss Anna Richter, Student Manager is Helen Davis, assisted by Nell Patton, Sara Petry, Merrick McIntosh, and Carolyn Dozier. Eddie Powell is Business Manager, assisted by Lorraine Anchors, Margaret Bird, and Dorothy Wiehle. Miss Williams is in charge of publicity. The deputation team includes Martha Bolder, Martha Thomas, Martha Chastain, and Joan Hersey of the Properties Committee with Maryland Rowland and G. B. Davis in charge of moonlighting. Committee is Rachel Cunningham, Nita Harris, Elizabeth Keate with Pauline Carter as chairman.

LETS FINISH UP BUSINESS!

Almost done. We've read the last quarter of this quarter's work and are ready to move on to the next.

Kampus KALEIDOSCOPE

Who did we see around campus this weekend? These two girls. They were chatting near the Student Union, and I couldn't help but overhear their conversation.

They were discussing something about a math problem in their calculus class. One of them said, "It's so frustrating. I just couldn't figure it out." The other one replied, "I know, right? But I think if we work together, we can solve it." They ended up spending the afternoon working on it, and I heard them cheering when they finally got it right.

I decided to try my luck on the basketball court this weekend. It was a beautiful day, and the stands were packed. The game was intense, and I was on the edge of my seat the whole time. However, I ended up getting injured and had to leave early.

Let's get back to work and wind up all unfinished business on time this year. We can enjoy our Christmas vacation with a clear conscience. We know what we must do and we know the deadline for doing it.

If you've written a poem or a story, stop and read it. Don't wait until the last possible minute, and don't tell anyone else what you've written. They might not understand it.

One good afternoon in the library, take care of your upcoming work. They might just think you're busy and not notice you're not doing anything.

It's time to return both articles. They might think you're too busy to write anything else. It's important to keep them occupied and not let them believe you're not doing anything.

Goodbye and good luck to everyone who'll be away next quarter. Thank goodness, when we come back after the holidays, the only thing we'll have to do is to catch up on our work.

Gladys Renland, Advertising Manager

From all reports the last quarter games were quite an improvement over the ones at the first of the season. The students in the high and the sportmanship had markedly improved. This is excellent. We are sure to see some good games.

Thank goodness, when we come back after the holidays, the only thing we'll have to do is to catch up on our work.

If you've borrowed Neighbor Jane's pet scarf to go with Dear Roommate's best sweater, now is a good time to return both articles. They might think you're being busy and not notice you're not doing anything.

The news was received yesterday that heat had finally reached the library. Just in time for exam-takers to enjoy! At last the whole campus is reasonably warm and we must now turn our attention to other matters.

Goodwill

From sunsets to sunsets our time is long. Our paths are winding but we know they always lead us back to where we started. We have been brought together by a shared love for books, and together we form a united spirit.

I sat in Vespers Sunday night, surrounded by friends and family. The church was filled with music and the sound of everyone's voices. We were all singing songs of gratitude and thanks. The service was beautiful, and I felt a sense of peace and tranquility.

Afterwards, I met up with some friends for dinner. We had a lovely time catching up and sharing stories. The food was delicious, and we all enjoyed each other's company.

We parted ways, but I left the service feeling renewed and uplifted. I know that I will carry this experience with me for a long time to come.

I am grateful for this moment and all that it represents. I am grateful for my friends, for my family, and for the love and support that I have received. I am grateful for this life, and I look forward to everything that is yet to come.

MORE HIKING AND less resting was the program for last week’s hike. The hike was for the entire Sports Club and although the crowd wasn’t as large as on previous hikes, it is a lack of interest and enthusiasm that is no compliment to our athletes. Another tournament may be planned in the future, but we’ll give everyone time to realize that the cooperation and interest of the students is needed to make anything a success.

Full all heard that Laura Helen Downs is our tennis champion so that is only one proof that we have good ability along the fine games line in the freshman class. The finals were close and must be excited and Allen and Downs both played a swell game.

CALCULATING for sports practice will not be given out this quarter but a chart will be placed in Ashley and one in Rutherford to be used in signing up practices which will also be placed in the gym for the town girls.

Lambdas Win Close American Ball Game

Evidently Wednesday was just a good day for game because after the fastball game was over, the crowd gathered at the American Ball field to witness another exciting game.

The cheering sections for the two teams gave several "loud" yells and then with a quick sprint they were at the scene of the action. The game was on.

The Lambda team: Pate, Wilson, Thompson, Smith, and Enright. The Kappa team: Summerford, C.F., Beach, Worley, and Newsome. It was a good game with a score of 3 to 2.

The Lambda team: Downs, C.F., Bolon, R. Inside, Remon, L. Inside, Smith, R. Wing, Guenther, L. Wing, Edwards, C.H., Peacock, R.F. and Newsome was goalie. Substitutes were, Armstrong, Duncan, Pead, and Drexel.

The Lambda team: Summerford, C.F., Beach, Worley, Vines, L. Inside, Hinton, R. Wing, Clements, L. Wing, Allen, Pate, L. Hightower, and Smith was goalie.

As for the tournament in general, good sportsmanship prevailed throughout, particularly by the Hampton. The tennis abilities were exhibited on the whole exceptionally well and lots of promising players gained some valuable tournament experience. Almost all of the matches were close and two points in the tennis court play made the game exciting. The Lambda team really did cheer their team and won.

Laura Helen Downs, Thomaston freshman, was crowned "Queen of the Courts" last Saturday afternoon when she defeated Helen Allen, Lena, Junior, 6-1, 6-3. The match was a lot closer than the score indicates, for almost every game was decided at the last possible moment.

Downs displayed one of the best round games seen on these courts in a long time. She has a very strong forehand, coupled with a net game that makes her a dangerous opponent on anybody’s court. Playing a driving game throughout, both players got over several good placement shots, and many long rallies created much excitement among the spectators.

Allen’s ability to make almost impossible shots kept the match really exciting, but Downs, playing consistently long drives to the baseline, finally came through to win.

This tournament uncovered several good players among the many contestants. Ruth Hauser, who was defeated by Allen in the semi-finals, is a very strong player. Her weak backhand proved her undoing so to speak. Hinton played a very good game, but her weak backhand proved to be one of her assets. The Lambda team: Thompson, C.F., Smith, L. Hightower, and Newsome was goalie. Substitutes were, Armstrong, Duncan, Pead, and Drexel.
