THE GEORGIA STATE WOMAN'S COLLEGE, VALDOSTA, GA., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1944

Number 6

Frosh Select House Council

At a House meeting on Thursday night, the Freshman class elected its Freshman House Council. Four girls were selected, one from each wing of every floor of the building. Those chosen were Neill Rehberg, Kirsten Peterson-Kegons, Carolyn Sanderlin and Rebecca Jennings.

The council will compose a Court and carry out House regulations. They are to be regular Student Government officials, and is there- fore subject to issues summons and warnings.

Until the election, the Freshmen have elected the Senior House Council, which is composed of Carolyn Mann and Martha Lindsey.

Fine Arts Club Plans Bazaar

At the November meeting of the Fine Arts Club, it was announced that the Club will again sponsor the Fine Arts Club plans Bazaar as well as a dance on Nov. 25. The Bazaar is a traditional project of the club at the beginning of the war.

Katherine Sharp and Rosalind Decker of the club announced that the Bazaar is scheduled for Saturday, November 8, and possibly until Set- tember 25. The Bazaar will give students and faculty members an opportunity to sell miscellaneous gifts without leaving the campus. The club will also receive a commission on the sales. The objects will be selected and chosen by the girls and will be by the girls and their minor, speech.

Carolyn Garbutt and Frances Prince will be in charge of the decorations.

A GATHERED GOSSIP

By KATHLEEN GRANTHAM

"Oh, Johnny" is CAROLYN STAFFORD'S new theme song. And how he CAN sing it! At least AVAILABLE JUNIE. If anyone knows the whereabouts of this creature, man, or mouse, let us know immediately.

JETTY JANE BRYANT and GORDON love it, and they say MARGRET HENDRICKS and Honey, "You're a Joe too. She's a 'Hard Hearted Hula Hula' from Blackfield."

Last year they called him the handsome football playboy from state college. But this year Bill is the only handsome JAMES HENDRICK who frequently blows in to see CYCLOPS.

Hey, BOLEN, how about a piece of that candy? When they say it with candy, it's "LOVE.

Do you get a phone call from RACHEL? (From DAVID?) Say you're going home this week? ... snicker snicker!!!"

ITEM OF INTEREST: "Old Married Ladies" can now include FELICIA RICHARDS, who has finally settled down for a BILL. A mouse on the loose is SGLO. (We would say.) But, after a goose, but we still like you, TARYN.

High flying "Sally Beth" is ANNE KEENE, since she went to Texas State. And now she's going to see JOHN.

A familiar face seen on the campus was that of CHARLOTTE WILLIAMS, who was "Missed for a while" because she was "in the sand". This is the most execrable type of political activity that may be hurt. SPORTS

Tennis Tournament

CALLING ALL ARCHERS:

The Sports Club is sponsoring an archery tournament this month. You may not be Robin Hood, but you can have a good time out and shoot a few rounds. You'll probably be surprised at your score, and who knows—next time you might win first prize. And besides, it'll be lots of fun. There's much to be said for archery. Keep your eyes open for details on this page, so I'll just say, "Watch for announcements.""

DANCE

The Dance Committee is busy planning the last Match Game. Spirit is needed at this event, so put on your best clothes and come out to support our team.

---

Archery Tourney Will Start Dec. 2

The first archery tournament of the year is scheduled for Saturday evening, December 2. It will be open to all freshmen only, and will be Kappa-Lambda competition that will count points for the Sports Club. Pennant will be awarded in the spring to the team having the most points from competitive sports.

All indications point to close competition between the two teams. Archery will prove to be a new sport for many of the members of this freshman class. Yet, this activity will not only provide good sport, but also give the members of both teams the opportunity to get to know each other better.

Purple Team Breaks Tie; Wins Game 4-2

Fine teamwork last Wednesday afternoon gave the Llamas a win over the Advisors in the last Match Game. Spirit was needed at this event, for both teams were out to win to break the tie.

Llamas Defeat Kappas, 23-17

The Llamas added a few more to their score for the plaque when they won the second volleyball match last Wednesday afternoon. At the half the Llamas had a strong lead, 9-4, but were unable to keep it up. The last quarter saw the Kappas rally and complete a drive that would have won the game had it started sooner. The last half saw the Red team bring their score closer, but the Llamas still led the负荷 with a score of 23-17 when the final whistle blew.
