CARNIVAL SET FOR OCTOBER 27th

Senior Class Presents Carnival, Skit and Dance

The Senior Class presents the Senior Carnival, Skit, and Dance! That long awaited night is almost here. On Saturday night, October 27, at 7:30 P. M., those dignified seniors will lead all of G. S. W. C. and a great part of Moody Field off to a night of fun and frolic.

Starting it all off will be the carnival at which there'll be a little of everything. Best of all will be the House of Horrors. This place of mysteries, thrills, and unknown happenings will be the place of all places. Other attractions will be bingo, fortune telling, side shows, fishing, and, of course, there'll be plenty of hot dogs and cokes.

After the carnival, and around 8:30 everyone will adjourn to the auditorium where Ida Maud McKinnon and Robbelee Pattillo will direct that sensational Broadway hit, "And The Lamp Went Out."

Starring in this production are:
Ida Maude McKinnon—Reader
Jean Rowe—Exelyn De Vere
Harriette Singletary—

Mrs. De Vere
Bea Williams—Ralph Grayson
Mildred Wisdom—
Herbert Vanderslice

What doesn't happen in "And The Lamp Went Out" just doesn't happen.

To wind up the evening there will be a dance in the Rec Hall from 9:00-11:30 with Halloween as the theme and lots of men to make it exciting.

RALPH GRAYSON and HERBERT VANDERSLICE fight to win the affection of EVELYN DeVENE in the Senior Skit to be presented Oct. 27.

Baptist Student Union Names Four New Officers

The Baptist Student Union at its regular bi-monthly meeting Thursday, October 11, elected four new officers to fill in its vacancies.

The new officers are: Sancil Holder, 1st vice-president; Louise Massey, 2nd vice-president; Betty Keene, 3rd vice-president; and, Bobbie Snow, reporter. The old officers include: June Sears, president; Virginia Bolen, secretary-treasurer; Lolla Lee Holder, Baptist Training Union representative; Carolyn Bowen, Sunday School representative; and, Ruth Reynolds, chorister.

The Baptist Student Union, one of the newest organizations on the G. S. W. C. campus, was conceived some years ago as a means of drawing the Baptist students attending G. S. W. C. into a closer relationship with the First Baptist church of Valdosta.

The founders realized how easy it was to drift away from the church when suddenly transplanted into new surroundings. They felt that by organizing all of the Baptist students into a group they could create a church-home away from home.

The First Baptist church has already begun its campaign to make its members on campus feel at home. Not long after school started, a social under the supervision of Mrs. Samuel Register was given to welcome back the old students and to greet the new ones. Every Sunday a bus is sent to take the students to and from Sunday School and Church in the morning and Baptist Training Union and church at night. Within the next two weeks the Baptist Student Union membership cards will be issued to the eligible students. Qualifications for membership are that you be either a member of Sunday School, the church, or Baptist Training Union here.

VALDOSTA CLUB

With the purpose of bringing closer cooperation between town and dormitory students the Valdosta Club is one of the most outstanding clubs on campus. The qualification for membership is that a student be a graduate of Valdosta High School and live in town. The officers of the club are: president, Betty Hutchinson; secretary-treasurer, Ed Roberts; and reporter, Grace

New Members of Sock and Buskin Present Two Skits

At the meeting of the Sock and Buskin Club, Tuesday, October 16, at 7:30 in the play production room, the new members entertained the old members and directors with two skits.

The first skit "Wild Nell and Her Final Sacrifice" was an Indian love story which was done as a pantomime. The cast of this comedy skit was:

The Reader—Mary John Rodgers
Wild Nell—Catherine M. Phillips
Handsome Harry—Anne Shipp
Lady—Nan Seaman
Sitting Bull—Velma Ansley
Young Brave—Peggy Raiford
Bulla Bulla—Marjorie Massey

The other skit was the ever popular "Rail-road Crossing," which was a comedy. The cast of the skit included:

The Ticket Agent—
Caralyn Stafford
Ma—"Nicky" Williams
Pa—Cornelia Tuten
The Children—
Mary John Rodgers
Annette Manley
Louise Walker
Nan Seaman

After the skits were presented the president, Robbelee Pattillo expressed her appreciation for the very delightful program.

The vice-president, Louise Rees, told the members what types of programs were to be expected at the future meetings.

The treasurer, Elizabeth Pate, announced the plans to have the dance Saturday, October 20, and Robbelee gave a list of the various committees.

During an informal discussion, Miss Sawyer said she would announce the title and plans for the fall play next week in the CANOPY.

Ten Fire Officials Appointed by Keene

Betty Keene, who is in charge of fire drills, has appointed, with the approval of the Executive Committee, the fire lieutenants for this year. Those in Converse Hall are: Ann Knepton, Virginia Hiesler, Betty Allen Smith, and Martha Jane Miller. Ashley Hall is represented by Faye Dixon, Louise Jones, and Ann King. Kathleen Grantham, Nell Kenney, and Marguerite Storer are the lieutenants from Senior Hall.

The duties of these girls are to check the rooms and call the roll at fire drills.

Parrott, Geiger Are Named To Junior Officers

Patricia Parrott, a day student from Hahira, and Colleen Geiger were elected vice-president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, of the Junior class at their meeting Monday, October 15. Dorothy Davis presided.

Pat, as she is known on campus, is a member of the Senior Honor Society, and also the Math-Science club. Colleen is a member of the Fine Arts Club, the Circulation Staff of the Campus Canopy, the House in the Woods Committee, and a member of the Kappa team of the Sports Club.

At this meeting the president also named the committees who will serve the After-Dinner Coffee for Sunday, October 21.

Introducing Valdosta

By BETTY HUTCHINSON

"G. S. W. C. is an unusually nice college," are the words of Rev. Leonard Cochran, a person very closely connected with the college and very interested in the students.

Although Rev. Cochran is not a native Valdostan, with him as Pastor of the First Methodist church and a citizen of the community, Valdosta is greatly enriched. He was born in Stonewall, Georgia, and attended the county schools and later graduated from the preparatory school at Emory-at-Oxford College. It was here he received his call and entered the ministry, receiving his degree from the Asbury Ministerial College in Wilmore, Kentucky. During the summers of the years he was attending the ministerial school, he preached revival services, but his first pastorate, after entering the South Georgia Conference in November of the year of his graduation, was in Lake Park. From there he went to Pearson, then to Sylvania, from there to Savannah, and then in 1943 came to Valdosta.

In 1937, Rev. Cochran was given a trip to the Holy Land by Dr. Huey of Homerville.

Rev. Cochran has visited the college many times and takes a personal interest in the girls. He was one of the persons responsible for the First Methodist church Sunday night suppers and programs, especially planned for the college students and other young people, and which are enjoyed

International Relations Club Maps Plans

The International Relations Club met on Tuesday night, October 16, in the House in the Woods to initiate and entertain the new members. The meeting, presided over by Harriet Arrington, the president, was the first of the year.

The projects of the club were reviewed to acquaint the new members with the type of work done. Among the projects mentioned were those of Russian War Relief, Red Cross knitting, the rolling of bandages, and the Community Chest Drive.

The I. R. C. has sponsored for several years the Community Chest drive on G. S. W. C. campus. The contributions toward this drive are used to support our community and International U. S. O. needs. The club asks that every student contribute as much as she can. Members of the club will visit each dormitory room so that everyone may contribute to this worthy cause.

At the latter part of the meeting, a historical quiz was given and refreshments were served.

The Little Things

It's the little things in life that count but how often do we stop to think about just that? That extra little something you might have done for your roommate or the girl next door might have put a different light on the entire day.

A little brighter smile, a little more warmth in that "hello," a little more sincerity in that "how are you?" might mean more just at that moment than all the teas, parties and dances in some persons life.

How about the little things around you every day? Don't they add up to college life and your like or dislike for it? Saturday night dances; after-dinner coffee on Sunday; bull sessions "most any time;" that special look of the moon coming through the pines; breakfast in the House-in-the-Woods on Saturday morning; Friday night hikes; taps on Sunday night; cramming before exams. They all add up to spell e-o-l-l-e-g-e and whether we like it or not might depend a great deal on what we put into it.

You know that when you put a nickel in the coke machine you'll get one coke. No more, no less. Well, that's how everything works. Put a lot into what you do and you'll get a lot. Put nothing in and you'll get just that—nothing.

Just a little thing called co-operation can go a long way. What say we try it.

Collins The Atomic Bomb

"What shall we do with the atomic bomb?" This is the current question occupying the minds of the leaders of this country at the present time. The question, and its answer, has grave possibilities for the future of the whole world. There is one faction which believes that the secret should be released to the Allies in order to maintain the good-will fostered during the war. The secret, they claim, will soon be discovered by them, as it was by the U. S., and any good impression which we could have created by charitably sharing our secret will be done away with. This group believes that only through world-wide cooperation will peace be maintained, not through the temporary possession of a secret so potent as to scare other countries into submission.

There is another group which thinks that, since this power was developed under the leadership of the U. S., this country should control its use, for the welfare of mankind. Even though the other countries have some idea as to how the bomb was made, their knowledge is by no means as complete as that over which our country has control. This control, this group believes, should be kept in the hands of a country which, at least if it follows its historical standing on such points, will never use it for conquest and tryrrany. They believe that the most effective means, for preventing wars, is to keep out of the hands of those who would wage war, the means and knowledge at present available.

These are only two points of view on the question. There are many others. The question is still being debated, and probably will undergo much more debate before it is ever solved. At present all that is really certain is that there is such a question, and that it is of utmost importance. After all . . . "What shall we do with the atomic bomb?"

"Perhaps one of the greatest dangers which any country can be exposed to arises from a kind of trifling which sometime steals upon the mind when it supposes the danger past, and this unsafe situation marks at this time the peculiar crisis of America . . . We are a people who, in our situation, differ from all the world. We form one common floor of public good, and, whatever is our charge, it is paid for our own interest, and upon our own account."

—Thomas Paine,
The American Crisis, 1782

"The same strength which won us the war will win us the peace. Buy Victory Bonds for dear life, and for lives that are dear."

—Fanny Hurst.

Through The Keyhole

By GRANTHAM and CARSON

Some of you gals are trying mighty hard to keep that gossip low but watch out 'cause we'll get you yet!! And this is a warning. Of all the happy people this week DOTIE DAVIS heads the list, being the proud possessor of (not a diminutive) but a large picture of Albert in his "thallor thuit." Her theme song might be, "Wonder when my baby's coming home?"

What is distance to Howard when he comes to see the charming ELIZABETH PATE? That 1200 miles was a joy ride for him—(Well, anyway he left Patey in smiles.)

Little JERRY SHEFFIELD is just bubbling over since, well, not her one and only . . . but one of her old friends, Bubber Fudge is coming home. But ain't it fun to see old friends again?

You'll be surprised what some sailors can do . . . This time he stretched a 50 mile pass all the way from Charleston, S. C., to Dosta to see LITTLEBITS DICKERSON . . . How these towns do move around!!

PAULA HARDAGE has been fightin' 'em off right and left. Sunday night the Marines landed, then on Monday the Air Corps flew in.

Wonder what Fitzgerald football player gave CAROLYN MATHIS that football helmet . . . Couldn't be it was Billy Bagley? What about it Carolyn?

Just call ILEANA GILBERT having no control of her heart. Anyone who would let a long distance call from a man get them upset . . . Well, maybe Tom Drake was a sorta' special one.

"From the hall of Montezuma back to civies" is SIS ROBINS theme song since Clifton has been discharged.

Ever'body hold yo' bref! That lovely, gorgeous creature in Ashley hall has finally gotten a letter from a man, or was it two? Well, anyway, STAFFORD is expecting an earth quake any day now.

NAN SEAMAN seems to be the telephone fiend in Converse Hall every night promptly at 10:00. Give some of these other love birds a chance, Nan!

It might be a soldier, it might be a sailor, or it might even be a guy from the Marines . . . BECCA JENNINGS is the lady in question this time. She's always got 'bout one too many anyway.

Sweets for the sweet(?) That's what I always say. JOLLY, "Sleepy" HILL could share that candy she got by surprise . . . from some unknown admirer they tell me.

I'm wondering who the Freshman was who same to the dance and asked if there were any high school boys there and after the discovery decided to stay. "Someone's robbing the cradle."

SARAH ADCOCK thinks weddings are so exciting, 'specially when she meets a Bill Merritt and gets mail from him.

Familiar faces seen on Campus . . . those of KITTY HARMS and "STINKY" STORER . . . Nice to have ya' back gals!

He's at it again, gals . . . That "Guy named Joe," from Napier Field has RUTH TURNER'S interest. Ain't love grand?

The dance seemed to be hitting an "all time high" Sat night. More people having fun — and more good dancers — eh! PEGGY RAIFORD?

How true it is that red-heads are the best ones — and DOT FUTCH seems to be getting in full swing of things trying to hold two of 'em at the same time . . . 'Tain't fair . . .

"Tuff" is what we call the situation after Ed flew to Macon all the way from Oklahoma and still couldn't get to see SARAH SMITH before he had to fly back.

HARRIETT SINGLETARY has been sportin' around at the Officers' Club with Captain (mind you) Tom Duffy. More popular people 'roun' this place!

Jacksonville, Fla., wasn't too far, but its better still for them to be at Moody . . . whatcha' say, MERRITT DYAL . . . You oughta' know.

From the Isle of Capri comes a most beautiful gift to GLADYS THAMES. And just who was the young gentleman involved in this, Tink?

BOOTS POWELL isn't doing so bad for herself lately. She still gets that letter from him regularly. Good going, gal!

Friends who have friends . . . a-ha, good deal, eh MOPHER?

They always told me that the early bird gets the worm, and that man who called BETTY BUSH at 4:30 a. m. didn't lose any time.

Bye 'til next week and until then we'll be at the keyholes again.

EFFIE POWELL

Vienna, Georgia's gift to G. S. W. C. is Effie Powell who is president of the Y. W. C. A., a biology major and a chemistry major.

Polonaise by Chopin, is Effie's favorite semi-classical music and Till The End of Time, is her favorites are olives, fried chicken, is her favorite band leader.

Effie likes to eat all the time and anytime but her special food favorites ar olives, fried chicken, and chocolate cake.

Effie likes to read and she has a newly acquired taste for biographies. She also likes biographical movies and movies that tell a story. She particularly likes these types of movies but movies in general are a favorite pastime.

Arranging and planting flowers and just flowers are Effie's hobby. So anytime the O. A. O. sends you some roses get Effie to arrange them.

When I asked Effie what her idea of a perfect man was, she immediately said Perry. Her thoughts of a perfect man begin and end with Perry so that settles that.

Effie likes pretty clothes and she says she likes extremes—on other people. She is partial to short hair and high heel shoes and her favorite colors are green and black.

Effie doesn't like egotistical or absent minded people but she does like a person who is dependable.

Dancing, tennis, movie-going and riding at night, gives another slant on Effie's personality. The time of day just before night makes Effie almost swoony, well sleepy anyway.

Effie doesn't like a dirty room so she should make a good house-keeper for Perry.

After graduation, Effie plans either to get married or to go to Emory University and study to be a Laboratory Technician or get

Martin Huntington Library

In Pasadena, California, there sits a mansion on the top of a hill overlooking the entire city. It is the gift of a generous man to a once artless loving state. This man was Henry Huntington who left his home and the 859 surrounding acres to California to be used as a library, art gallery, and a resting place.

Mr. Hunting made his millions through the Southern Pacific Railroad, and spent them in Europe collecting.

To date, these are some of the things you would see at the old Huntington mansion:

1. Part of the works of Robert Burns. In my opinion Burns was one of the best and it is very exciting to actually see the words the poet put upon the paper himself.
2. Parts of Benjamin Franklin's writings.
3. The first King James Version of the Bible.
4. Hitler's personal copy of "Mein Kampf," which is very large, beautiful, and was recently presented to the Huntington Library by General Eisenhower.
5. Beautiful hand-made tapestries from France, Turkey, and Persia.
6. "Some of the first religious paintings of Italy.
7. Porcelain vases, figurines, Louis XIV, XV, and XVI furniture, snuff boxes, etc.
8. "Pinky" by Lawrence.
9. "The Blue Boy" by Gainsborough.
10. "Sarah Siddons as the Tragic Muse" by Reynolds.
11. "Lady Hamilton in a Straw Hat" by Romney.
12. A beautiful five acre cactus garden of every kind known.
13. An Oriental garden and the Wishing Bell. "If you strike it and it echos twice, your wish comes true."
14. Lots of beautiful shrubbery, statues, etc.

Even the rabbits seem to love this lovely place. You can count the little animals on the lawns by the dozens.

This mansion with its grounds, is like a true spot of heaven on earth.

WHERE IS EVERYBODY?

By ANNE SHIPP

A question often asked here is "Where is Jane or Anne or Betty or Barbara? What is she doing?"

Wondering myself, I went on a search and looking over the '44-'45 sophomore and junior classes I found a large number at the University of Georgia. Among these girls are Joanna Barneau, Carolyn Dozier, Katherine Green, Rose Hall, Lib Hill, and Sis Hinton. Others there, too, are Betty Lee, Dot Reynolds, Virginia Summer, Wade Wilkins, Laura Helen Downs, Carolyn Pittman, Margaret Rackley, Lynette Robison. You could almost call U. of Ga. an annex of 'WC.

Several of our girls have joined the married ranks. Those that have tripped down the aisle are Charlotte Taylor, Betty Jane Remson, Mary Crum, and Anne Keene. One girl will jump into matrimony next month. She is Madge Williams of McRae.

The career women from our school are Hazel Walker, who is working here in Valdosta; Billie Smith, teaching; Lou Sims, works in Fitzgerald; Peggy Ford, teaching; Caroline Davis, teaching also. Dot Boyett is working in Brunswick; and Martha Barrow is teaching.

Other schools, some out of state, have taken a number of our gals; Duke attracted Elaine Young. Shorter has several former students, one of the latest being Sara Sudderth. Catherine Monsees ran off to the U. of Tenn., which has Gladys Penland too. Jane Baldwin is going to Business School in Washington, D. C.

I wasn't able to get info' on all the girls from the two classes that aren't back and what I have, came off the grape-vine . . . so I ain't knowin' if it's all right or not . . . Anyway, we miss 'em and wish them luck wherever they are.

Winners in the Home Ec. Club Dressmaking Contest were: JOAN DAVIS, designer, and MARY THARPE, model.

Novel Contest Is Feature of First Home Ec. Meeting

The Home Economics Club held its first meeting of the year on Wednesday, October 10, at 8:00 P. M. The officers for the year were introduced to the new members by the president, Ethel Bently. The other officers are: Vice-President, Margie Massey; Secretary, Mary Tharpe; and Treasurer, Joyce Hill. Elections were held for the following positions: Historian, Virginia Hagon; Chairman of clothing clinic, Peggy Williams; Chairman of Freshman refreshment committee, Ray Jean Norman; Parliamentarian, Jean Painter; and program committee, Ila Downie, Betty Thompson, and Ann Lewis.

An outstanding feature of the program was the contest held to determine which of the new members was the most original dressmaker. Each new member created a newspaper dress for one of the old members. First place winners were; designer, Joan Davis and model, Mary Tharpe; second place, Ruth Kent and Peggy Williams; third place, Betty Smith and Carolyn King.

The Home Economics Club will continue to sponsor the Clothing Clinic every Saturday morning under the direction of Peggy Williams. The Clinic, which is held in the Home Economics Laboratory, provides sewing facilities for the college students.

Forty-two members are on the roll of the Home Economics Club this year. They are: Josephine Balliet, Ann Bass, Ethel Bently, Jackie Bowen, Virginia Cook, Hilda Crum, Joan Davis, Ila Downie, Marjorie Ferguson, Kathryn Gauden., Elsie Harvey, Mildred Hiers, Joyce Hill, Virginia Hagon, Ruth Kent, Betty King, Carolyn King, Ann Lewis, Margie Massey, Louise Massey, Patricia McCollough, Isabel McLeod, Betty McPherson, Madge Mobley, Joyce Moon, Betty Moore, Ray Jean Norman, Jeanne Painter, Miriam Powell, Joy Roland, Martha Sanders, Betty A. Smith, Johnnie Stokes, Martha Lee Syms, Jacquelyn Talton, Mary Tharpe, Betty June Thompson, Sara Frances Tuttle, Rosalind Wilkins, Peggy Williams, and Gladys Willis.

A Freshman's First Letter Home

By JOYCE BURCH

"Dear Mom"

"You've Got Me Where You Want Me." "This Is Just A Baby's Prayer At Twilight." I wish you were her to "Rock A Bye Your Baby With A Dixie Melody." "I Don't Care Who Knows It." "I'm Homesick—That's All." "But I'll Get By." "Cry and You Cry Alone."

I hear "There's A Lot of Moonlight Being Wasted." "A Shy Guy" asked me to "Stroll In the Park One Day" but Miss Carter said, "No Can Do." "Same, Shame On You."

We don't know "Who Threw The Whiskey In the Well." Our Freshman motto is—"Lady Be Good!"

"Some Sunday Morning" I'm going to take a "Sentimental Journey" home, so "Open Up That Door." "It's Gotta Be This or That." I'll Arrive on "The Atchinson, Topeka and The Santa Fe" or "The Chattanooga Choo Choo."

"It's Been a Long, Long Time" but "I'd Do It All Over Again." "Don't Ever Change." "Always Yours"

Gunter, Bowen Conduct Vespers Program

Betty Gunter was the speaker at Vespers Thursday night, October 18, in the Chapel, and Carolyn Bowen was in charge of the program.

Choosing for the title of her talk, "Our Lives Are Books," Betty explained that our hearts are open books for people to look at, and what they see there, is up to us. As with a book, the cover and title count for little; it is what is on the inside that really matters.

Annette Pickren will tell the story of the hymn, "Abide With Me," at Late Vespers Sunday night and Louise Walker will sing.

GOD'S CLOUDS

Clouds are strange enchanting things that float across the sky.

They shift and change their shape and form and always sail on by.

They never seem to stop to rest—they move now fast, now slow.

How often do I stop to wonder where it is they go.

Some clouds are dark and some are light

And some are rosy-hued . . . I like to think that on these clouds

A Master paints His moods. If we could know the tale they tell,

Could glean from each its story, We'd have a clue to what God is—

A vision of His Glory!

But God's too great for man to know—

He's far above our ken— If we could understand our God, Then we'd be Gods, not men!

Lambdas Triumph Over Kappas In First Match Game

By MARTHA CHASTAIN

The first match game of the year was won by the Lambdas 4-1. Before a large crowd of spectators lined up behind their cheerleaders the Purple team came through with the needed power to turn back the Reds.

Scoring in the first few minutes of the game, the Kappas were off to a good start, but with the Lambda forwards hustling down the field, the score was soon tied 1-all by Virginia Bolen's goal. Not satisfied, the Lambdas kept taking the ball down the field and once there, Bolen put it over and under the cross bars for three more purple points. Hurn accounted for the Kappa point.

The Kappas had grand teamwork but just lacked the vital scoring punch. Morriss Smith and Jean Rowe did some beautiful ball carrying, passing and dribbling. Bobbie Townsend and Joy Roland got the ball deep in Lambda territory many times, but failed to score against such a defensive as was put up by Newsome. Several times, the Kappas were in scoring position but Newsome deftly threw herself on the ball and returned it to the Lambdas.

Honor Societies Hold First Meeting

The Freshmen and Senior Honor Societies held their first meeting of the year Thursday night, at eight o'clock, in the House in the Woods.

Jean Martin, president of Senior Honor Society, officiated. Plans were made for interesting and educational programs to be given at the meetings this year. To test the I. Q. of every member three contests were held. First, an animal word contest, second, a riddle contest, and third, a contest of well known poems. Elaborate prizes were given to winners of the contests.

Officers of the Freshmen Honor Society are:

- Betty Keene—President.
 - Pauline Jordan—Vice-President.
 - Edith Jones — Secretary and Treasurer.
 - Bobby Snow—Historian
- Officers of the Senior Honor Society are:
- Jean Martin—President.
 - Elizabeth Pate—Vice-President.
 - Martha Wilcox—Secretary and Treasurer.

S. G. A. Names Members of Soph. Council

The S. G. A. announced this week the names of the girls who are to serve on the Sophomore Council for the year 1954-55.

The main duty of this council are to chaperone at the House in the Woods on Sundays, to sell doughnuts during the week, and to keep the halls quiet during morning watch and Vespers. They ask the cooperation of the student body.

The following girls have been appointed:

- Betty June Thompson.
- Lolla Lee Holder
- Edith Jones.
- Carolyn Bowen.
- Mary Thurpe.
- Charlotte Goodwin.
- Miriam Powell.
- Sara Smith.
- Martha Rose Bowen.
- Annette Manley.
- Margaret Hardy.
- Pauline Jordan.
- Mary Ann Brown.
- Jean Painter.

June Sears and Patty Dixon were a source of worry to the Lambdas because of their lengthy kicks, but even with this asset, they failed to score.

Both teams played well and showed great promises. This is only the first game and who knows which team will come out on top.

The lineup was as follows:

LAMBDA

- Bolen—Center forward
- Gilbert—Right inside
- Moxley—Right wing
- Gainey—Left wing
- French—Left inside
- Dellinger—Right half
- Miller—center half
- Bowen—Left half
- Haygood—Left fullback
- Jackson—Right fullback
- Newsom—Goalie

KAPPA

- Bobbie Townsend—Center forward
- Collins—Right inside
- Roland—Left inside
- Morriss Smith—Inside forward
- Hurn—Left inside
- Dixon—Center half
- Sears—Left half
- DeMott—Right half
- Johnson—Left fullback
- Tompkins—Right fullback
- Mathis—Goalie

Assembly Committee Plans for Coming Year

The Assembly Program of October 10, consisted of two pictures. The first, THREE TO BE SERVED, was about capital, versus labor, versus consumer. The second picture was a TRAVEL OGGIE ON VERACRUZ. Joseph Cotton was narrator. It showed Mexico's varied colored flowers, odd clothes and customs.

The Atomic Bomb, its principals, manufacture, and political affects constituted the program October 17. Mr. Mosley, Mr. Spragens and Dr. Gulliver were the speakers on the three phases of the bomb.

The Assembly Program Committee includes Mr. White, Mr. Spragens, with Dr. Gulliver as chairman. They are asking the cooperation of the clubs and associations, so that each one will have an assembly program during the year. Already several have been scheduled, including the Serenaders.

Volley Ball Game Won by Kappas

By CAROLYN MATHIS

Coach Tack Brunson's fist educated Kappas slammed out an easy victory over the Lambda eight in the first match volley ball game of the fall quarter.

In the first half the teams appeared evenly matched and the score at the end of the first period was 18 to 17 in favor of the Kappas. During the middle of the first half, mainly through the efforts of Jean McClung, the Lambdas forged momentarily into the lead only to fall behind later. Betty Efird and Ann Shipp were among Kappa stars while Jean McClung takes the Lambda honors.

Early in the second half, the Lambdas, lead by Carson, moved into a commanding lead only to have Betty Efirds serving steal their glory and eventually the game. Brunson and Shipp were among the second half stars. The game ended in a Kappa runaway 48-28.

KAPPA

LAMBDA AND KAPPA MEET AGAIN

Those long waited for match games finally got here. There were thrills and spills all over the place when the Lambdas defeated the Kappas in American Ball with a score of 4-1. In spite of that, the Kappas turned the tables in Volley Ball with a score of 48-28.

STRAIGHT AIMERS

It seems that we have quite a few William Tells this year. You've really missed something unless you've seen Bette Alderman, Morris Smith, Annette Manley, and Ann Stevens shoot. "Coach Kenny" also reports that the beginners are very rapidly pushing their way toward the top. Why not go out some Saturday morning and see what it's all about ??????

CHEERING AND SINGING

The cheerleaders, both Kappa and Lambda, were really on the beam last Wednesday. Both teams introduced new yells and songs which went over with a bang!!!! All they needed was a little more help from the spectators. Keep up the good work Cheerleaders!!!!

LAGGING JUST A LITTLE

The "Upperclassmen" haven't quite gotten into the swing of things yet. Something tells me that they had better get out and start loosening up those stiff joints for that Upperclassman-Freshman game which is just around the corner!!!! We're really in for some competition—s-o-o-owhat we need now is a little cooperation AND some practice.

PING-PONG

The ping-pong table is still up in the Rec Hall!!! Incidentally, we'll have another one up in a day or two and in case you want a few tips on good playing you might watch Effie Powell and Edith Collins.

STAR OF THE WEEK!!!!!!

The "Star of the Week" goes to Betty Efird, that cute little blonde who calls Albany home. She is a member of the Freshman class and the Phi Kappa team. Out of the 48 points made by the Kappas in Volley Ball, Betty made 25 of them. That really was some good serving. Congratulations to you Betty!!!!!!
