The Rev. John Sharp Addresses Students At Vesper, January 24th

The Reverend John Sharp, District Superintendent of the Valdosta District of the Methodist Church, addressed the Georgia State Woman's College students in the Upper Rotunda of Ashley Hall, Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Sharp was introduced by Miss June Sears, president of the Baptist Student Union, who welcomed him to the institution and expressed appreciation for the privilege of having Rev. Sharp speak to the students. The Reverend also informed the students that he was a member of the Baptist Student Union and that he was just that.

The Reverend then took his place in the middle of the room and addressed the students. He began his address by mentioning the importance of the work of the Baptist Student Union and its contribution to the college. He also spoke about the strength of the union and its ability to bring together students of different denominations.

After Rev. Sharp concluded his address, the students were given a chance to ask questions. Many students asked questions about the work of the union and its impact on the college. Rev. Sharp was able to answer most of the questions and provided additional insights into the work of the union.

The address concluded with Rev. Sharp thanking the students for their attention and wishing them all the best in their future endeavors. He then took his leave and the meeting concluded.

Georgia Art Exhibited in Ashley Hall

Selections from the annual Georgia Student Art Exhibits were reviewed by the staff of the Georgia State Woman's College, Ashley Hall. The exhibits were displayed in the gallery of the same name and were selected by the art department of the college. The selection was made by the art faculty of the college and was based on merit. The exhibits included paintings, drawings, sculpture, and prints in a variety of media. The art was selected to reflect the breadth of the college's art program and to showcase the talent of the students.

The exhibits were opened to the public and were available for viewing throughout the month of the exhibition. The exhibits were well-received and were well-attended, with many visitors commenting on the high quality of the art.
How Much Can You Take?

How often have you been guilty of saying, "I know you can do it," and then not believing it yourself? Most of us have at one time or another. But when you get down to bare facts most of us can take more than we realize.

An interesting example of how much one can take is vividly portrayed in a letter written by one of the correspondents. The letter describes a very intense scene in a movie of the life of an average French soldier, Jean Baptiste Cothon, Jean Martin, Clare Carson, and the German tanks. One of the scenes is described as follows:

"I had 20 men killed—and 30 more seriously injured in a week. I lost the light, theatre, and heat were completely out; can you take it? It seems that you can if you want to bad enough."

Better here until the end of 1944 when our bombers began to bomb the Germans. The Germans were running away to Africa or to the east.

For a while he was forced to work as a medic and was put in charge of the German prisoners as a medic and was put in charge of the German prisoners of war. He said, "In 1940, the Germans once more after being liberated by the Americans, they had 12 air raids in Christmas week of 1944. They had heard the death of Hitler and they were in despair."

IF DOTY DAVIS seems to be setting a wee bit queer lately—well, that's because you've been so used to his being so normal. And he knows it! He says, "You know, you can't keep up with the trend and think of Albert at the same time."

A popular trio around town are CELESTE CHAMPION and Jimmie Thorne. Their voices are perfect and seem to be a habit with you. They have been singing together for years. The other members are MARGARET JOYNER and ANNETTE HENDRON. Leave it to some gals to get all the men.

MARY JOHN ROGERS just loves those visits home and specially those rides back. I hope she'll be going quite often.

We can't exactly keep up with DOT HIGHTOWER these days—but we're not worried 'cause we know she has her men well in line. It's rumored 'round that some women beat their husbands with beer bottles. The reason is that they are tired of the moorale up. Westminster Joe and Bette are taking advantage of the situation.

One day I was so mad, I had no more ammunition for my rifle. I went to the German Messerschmitts, the German tanks, and the German 88. One night I was so mad, I had no more ammunition for my rifle. I went to the German Messerschmitts, the German tanks, and the German 88.

TO THE EDITOR

Something that has been brought to my mind lately is the lack of respect I have for the Senate before the American people. It is much better here than the Senate before the American people. It is much better here than it has been in years.

If we could all be a little more thoughtful, and a little less boisterous in the Senate, it would be much better for us. We could all be a little more thoughtful, and a little less boisterous in the Senate, it would be much better for us.

If this were to go on, it would be no cause for complaint. If this were to go on, it would be no cause for complaint.

So, in the future, if you can't hear the blessing, to make sure it is over, and on the next, report to our faculty, wait until they see you sit down.

Sincerely,

AN INDIGNANT JUNIOR

Another of Valdosta's daughters who is in the Senior Class is Dorothy Noel, a native of North Carolina and a minor in Sociology. "Dot will finish her work here in March and plans to lead around for a while. She is an artist and likes to do things she always meant to do."

Along the literary line, Dot added that she is interested in photography and in the musical world but likes all kinds of music. She likes to listen to classical or popular music whenever she is alone or with a circle of friends. "She is in the mood for it, but she doesn't know of a particular song she likes." Whenter Dot feels like a change of different favorite each week or month.

As for clothes, Dot says she likes to dress up once in a while and she has a variety of styles. "She is in the mood for it, but she doesn't know of a particular song she likes." Whenter Dot feels like a change of different favorite each week or month.

Kirst Trip to New York

G. S. W. C. students were honored to have Dot Hines, a television news commentator, as a guest speaker at a special assembly program on Friday, January 18. As one of the National Council of Jewish Women's representatives to the Peace Conference, she talked about her experiences and what she thought of the Conference. She said that it was a very interesting experience and that she learned a lot. She also talked about her experience in Washington, D.C., where she met with many important people and discussed current international issues.

The show? Wonderful! Voices rang out of the theater, music filled the air, and the atmosphere was electric. It was a night to remember, and everyone wanted to see it again. The next day, we went to see the show again, and the experience was just as wonderful as the first time. We were all amazed at the talent of the performers and the production values. The lights, the music, and the dance were all perfect. It was a night to remember, and everyone wanted to see it again.

Lambdas Triumph Over Kappas in Basketball Game

A small but enthusiastic group of spectators saw the Lambdas edge a 22 to 18 victory over the Kappa six in the first basketball game of the year Wednesday afternoon. The Lambdas experienced nothing but a leisurely time, as they made their score of 22-18.

Assuming "Tug" Wilkin paced the winning offensive, hitting the basket for a total of 14 points. Though the Kappa guards played hard, they couldn’t keep this nimble-footed Lambda forward away from the goal.

With Frances Moxley as the spearhead of their attack, the Purples made their first goal in the first five minutes of the game. At the half they were leading by a score of 14 to 10. The Kappas started their score mounting on the basis of their spirits rose when they saw a tic which extended into the second half the Purples, in a momentary surge led by Painter, once again threatened but this attempt logged down as the Kappa forwards tightened their defense. Credit for nearly half of the numerous Kappa points goes to Betty Efird, famous Kappa slugging, backed up by Captain Brunswick and Charleen Miller. Purples stars include printer, King ad Snow.
