Jean Martin, recently elected S. G. A. president to succeed Ida Maude McKeynon, will be inaugurated Tuesday, February 19.

Davis, Thames and Jones Are Other SGA Officers

The hottest S. G. A. election in several years ended Tuesday evening with Jean Martin of Fitzgerald defeating Clarence Carson for the first time. Next, Jean Davis winning out as secretary-treasurer, and Gladys Thomas were unopposed for first and second vice-presidents.

Jean has been very active in a variety of extra-curricular activities in the past, having served as president of her class, her freshman year, chairman of the Sophomore Council last year, and is now president of the Senior Honor Society, vice-president of the League of Women Voters, and librarian of the Glee Club. She is also a member of The Science Editors, The Sock and Buskin Club, the Math-Science Club, the I. R. C. and the Romance Language Club. Jean is a member of The Home Economics Club, the Science-Math Club, and the Dance Club.

Gladys Thomas is News Editor of the Campus Canopy, a member of the Glee Club, president of the Fine Arts Club, Freshman Honor Society, and is secretary-treasurer of the Sophomore class.

These new officers will be inaugurated Tuesday evening and will serve a month under the guidance of the old officers.

Fine Arts Club Has Guest Artists As Speakers

The Fine Arts Club held its regular monthly meeting at the house in the Woods at 8 o'clock, Tuesday evening. Reports were received from all committees and Colleen Geiger was elected club reporter.

Dr. Trenor Is Guest Speaker of I. R. C.

The guest speaker at the I.R.C. meeting Tuesday, February 5th, was Dr. Sapelo Treanor. Dr. Trenor chose as her subject, "France." After a brief resume of the 1848-45 alumnae, the girls acquainted the art and science, and there was a discussion of the present governmental affairs of France.

This week instead of introducing Valdosta we're introducing some of the alumnae. Dr. Trenor was an alumna of commerce.

Introducing Valdosta

By BETTY HUTCHINSON

I will serve a month under the guidance of the old officers.

Y. W. C. A. Officers

Elected for Coming Year

Edith Collins automatically becomes president of the "Y" for the following year as she handed over the past year in the position of vice-president. Editor to serve with her this year was Betty Gunter, and Miss Margaret R. Morgan as associate vice-president.

These officers will be installed the latter part of this month and will be inaugurated under the guidance of the old officers.

This week instead of introducing Valdosta we're introducing some of the alumnae. The girls have become rather scattered and taken up various occupations and I'll try to give you a little information about some of them and what they're doing.

Several of the girls have decided on marriage as a career. Willie Pearl Benton is married and is now living in Mobile. Alta Catherine Garbutt was with us for one quarter as swimming instructor, and then decided to try marriage, too, and is now living in Valdosta. Alpha Margaret Castleberry taught at the Valdosta High School for a semester but has returned to her home in Richland, and plans to be married in early spring.

A few of the alumnae are now doing postgraduate work. Dorothy Hinton is going to Mercer and taking some business work in business administration. Doris King is also doing postgraduate work. Alice M. Chandler is attending the University of Chicago and is working in the F.F.A. office in Cuthbert. Helen Allen is teaching at the Central Grammar School in Valdosta. Alberta Martin is teaching in the city schools in Homerville, and Glenda Hunter, Peggy Passer, and Betty Peters are also teaching.

Others have gone into various professions — Rachel Cunningham is modeling clothes for the Powers Agency in New York and Mary Agnes Wolfe is working in a Thomaston laboratory in New York. Helen Davis is with the Roberts Insurance Co. in Valdosta, Emily Deke is working in the T.V.A. office in Cuthbert, and Betty Mathis is with the C & S Bank in Valdosta. Peggy Pescey and Kathleen Hall are working in Washington.

These are just a few of the girls in the 1944-45 class, but I will give the present student body an idea of what their predecessors are doing and what they might be doing when they acquire the sheepskin and go out to work and make their fortunes.

Brooks, Pauline Jordan, Barbara Kennedy, Beulah Thompson, Martha Collins, Frances Hunsperger, Ann Pickering, Joan Davis, Carolyn Bowen, Louise Newton, Bertha Reynolds, Miss Helen Turver, Clemen Lee, Miss Williams, and Virginia Freeman.
Congratulations

This week has been a week of elections, congratulations and best wishes. But before we start congratulating the new officers, let's stop and congratulate the old officers for the fine job they've done during the past year. As presidents of the two largest student groups on campus, the president of S. G. A. and the "Y" are in a position to be leaders.

This year has seen many improvements in many things. One of the most important improvements has been a few changed ideas about Student Government. These ideas and the record Ida Maude has left behind here are a credit to anyone. We think you've done a swell job, Ida, and we'd like to say "Nice going and the best of luck to you always."

To be an active organization on campus the "Y" must be leaders so that the majority of the students like and this year they have been just that. As president of the "Y", Effie has proven herself to be an able worker and a capable leader. To us, too, we'd like to say that you've done one swell job.

And to all the others who have served in the "Y" and S. G. A. we offer our congratulations for the job you have done so well.

Martin Spellbound!

I am held spellbound by some of the late elections. In a certain southern city I know quite well, years and years ago, there came into question the election of the city mayor. The characters put up for election included these:

1. Farmer Brown—His previous political record was composed of nights in a brawl room, rescue of a lost heifer, and the experience of voting in a "hot" county election once.
2. Merchandise Joe—Previous political record composed of dry goods and cut prices.
3. Dry goods Joe—Previous political record composed of nights in a brawl room, rescue of a lost heifer, and the experience of voting in a "hot" county election once.

Dr. Bedlam—Previous experience included one appointment in local government, and the art of wearing suspenders correctly.

Yes, peoples, these were the candidates; and it was a close election. The result was the honored office of mayor was Dr. Bedlam, because his name was best suited for politics in general.

It does not take but one look of one eye to see that about us, impossible elections are taking place everyday. The groups of gridders in this country should hold existed positions if they would organize and do something about terrible conditions.

I hold that I can think of nothing worse than to start in state politics. What goes on in the brain of a candidate for office is what really gives the "more."

It will soon be time for gathering around the old ballot box. Arnsil is definitely out, and as yet he hasn’t endorsed a candidate. Whoever this ambitious candidate will be, he will have a hard time to gain the seat of the Governor’s chair in Georgia.

I would not THINK of endorsing any candidate for any office, but the situation will soon be at least when the Governor of our fair state will be elected. The result of which will be the making it easy for one candidate, I’m sure.

So I’m staying to you, don’t be so spellbound by our usually "flashy" candidates that you don’t get a 1st repeat in registering your town so you will be eligible to hold your own in the coming gubernatorial scramble. You must register six months ahead of election—so girls, get a hustle on and get your dues in now.

Strolling Through the Dorm

BY JEAN WILLIS

"While strolling through the dorm one day, in the merry, merry month of . . .", say, what rhymes with February? Well, anyway while strolling by some open doors, I saw a quite variety of decorations, doors, animals, signs, etc., in the room. So I inquired a bit about what the girls have stuck around in their dorms one day, in the merry, merry month of February. And from their door, B. T. and DOE DOE and PEG have a large collection of ash trays—15 signs, etc. in the rooms. ^ I

COLLEEN GEIGER collects cards. On her desk is a cap, jeep hat, baseball cap, soccer ball—produced by Elaine Carlin. She can be scrumptious if there were men.

Signs aren't as popular in Senior Hall as they are in the dormitories. But don't forget that "For Action Call Jack" sign over the bed belonging to one J. W I L L I S — an old pal of mine.

ROBBIEE PATTULLO has a very large and interesting collection of pitchers, from only a fraction larger than a pin head up to about nine inches. They are of glass, plastic, pewter, wood and gold. She also has a collection of glasses but only a few are here. She has a series of ash trays that they're heck to dust. The roommates, Nancy, heartedly agrees with her.

MARY RUTH ROUSE has several little picture sitting on her desk—one is an ash tray. "Verra nice." MARY ELLEN COMPTON has several piggy banks and BETTY hauser has picture frames and statues.

"I met Mortimer yet? He is quite a dashing canine Beau adviced in the latest shades of orange and lavender fur. He also sports four beautiful rings. H e is quite a dashing canine. The gay lothario may be viewed at any time on the wall of all rooms in T L E ' s room.

As for decorating walls, the Cassanova of G. S. W. C. whose picture is on the wall in the upstairs hall of Ashley couldn't be left out. He really has that 'fin' touch.

This all goes to prove what we call find while strolling if one just tries.

Math-Science Club Chooses New Members

Lt. McClousky was the principal speaker at the Math-Science Club dinner meeting, Thursday, February 16, in the House in the Woods. "Radu" was the subject of Lt. McClousky's talk. The Chemistry division was in charge of the decoration.

During the business session of the meeting, a nominating committee was appointed to select the officers for the coming year. There was a short discussion on scholarships and fellowships for the coming year.

Faustina Cooper, Betty Gelders, and Sylvia Gelders are the three girls who have been invited to join the club.

Members of Dance Club Participate in Program

An active organization which is still in its infancy on the G. S. W. C. campus is the Dance Club. This is an informal group interested and trained in dancing which meets on Monday and Wednesday of each week.

So far it has no permanent year round membership for various conditions have caused a partial turn-over each quarter. At present it consists of the following girls: Marguerite Storer, president, Adair Myddelton, secretary, Phillip Allen, as book keeper, Mrs. Ellen Compton, Dot Davis, Barbara Hall, Jean Johnson, Elizabeth Faye, Louise Shaw, Louise Wagner and Louise Walker.

Recently three members participated in the "Gay Nineties" program at the Husband's Night special show. From 1900 to 1920, the members played "The American Girl" and "The Forties".

 Jays, Jack and Jill, Sweeney Todd, and the characters of "Rip Van Winkle", "The Old Curiosity Shop", and "Sweeney Todd" were presented.

‘Music, Love and Lust’ is the theme of the program. The club's next meeting will be Thursday, February 25, in the House in the Woods, with Mrs. (Arrington has long felt the need for a means of discovering new talent in the Radio dramatic writing. Sharing belief in this method, the Mutual Broadcasting System is making available a radio award which is the presentation of this unusual series of Carrington Award broadcasts. These awards have been established in clear, farsighted recognition of a need for a higher caliber of radio entertainers.

Phillips Carlin, MBS Vice President in Charge of Programs, who is busy now and the future is new talent in radio writing recently stated: "Mrs. Carrington and I believe that the future of radio writing is in the hands of a new talent, which is why we feel that the present is the time to discover new talent, in the final analysis, upon which the future of radio writing depends. We are convinced that there is a great reservoir of talent in our schools and colleges and that we can make use of this talent.

In recognition of this we have started this award scheme.

Rewards for accepted scripts will be in money and in personal recognition to the author. The first place winner, whose scripts are accepted, will receive $200 plus the nation wide broadcast with having their drama beamed into the homes of the entire country. The second place winner will automatically become eligible for the special Carrington Award of an additional $500 and a handsigned plaque, which will be awarded for the next broadcast. The second place winner will automatically become eligible for the special Carrington Award of an additional $500 and a handsigned plaque, which will be awarded for the next broadcast. This will be repeated for the third, fourth, and fifth place winners.

The prizes will be awarded to the winners of the national competition of the American Legion.
Freshmen Win 24-22 Victory Over Upperclassmen Wed.

One of the biggest and most exciting upsets of the season occurred Wednesday when a bunch of inspired freshmen squeezed out a 24 to 22 victory over the upperclassmen basketball squad. The battle was a thriller from the starting whistle until the end, and many times, proved too close for comfort. Praise is due every player for the alert, fair-minded way in which they manned their positions and the great spirit which pervaded throughout the game.

Upperclassmen had the lead early in the first period and, by flipping the switch, put the uppers on top with a 6 to 10 lead at the end of the first period. Determined not to be outdone, the upperclassmen rallied under McPherson, and Wilkin, but the half ended with a 14 to 7 Frosh lead.

Wilkin started off the third quarter with a bang and in a short time racked up three baskets to a lone Frosh ringer which made the count 16 to 13 at the beginning of the fourth quarter. The uppers, with that "now or never" spirit, turned lose everything they had while Mosley held the fort for the Freshman with a last minute ringer that put the game on ice for the Freshmen—24 to 22.

The line-up was:

- Frosh
  - Upperclassmen
  - Ansley RF
  - Bolen LF
  - Uphaw LF
  - Grantham CF
  - Porter CF
  - Wilkin LF
  - Jackson LF
  - Shippe CG
  - Smith CG
  - Chastain CG
  - Haygood

Uppercrassmen Defeat Freshmen 53 to 24 In Volleyball Game

Wednesday February 13, saw a red hot upperclassmen team swamp a green but hard hitting Freshman team 53 to 24. The victors clicked early to take a commanding lead in the first quarter which was guarded with their lives until the end of the game.

The winning factor of the game proved to be the precise team work of the upperclassmen. After a rather one-sided first half which found the uppers on top with a 28 to 4 score, the freshmen rallied under Jackson into what for a moment looked like a real bid for the lead, but was broken up only moments later by alert upperclassmen.

After this attempt bogged down, no serious threats were made on the upper lead and the game ended in a lopsided upper victory, 53 to 24.

The line-up was:

- Freshmen
  - Position
  - Upperclassmen
  - Efrid BB
  - Hahn L L
  - Efrid RF
  - Hahn RF
  - Hahn CCF
  - Efrid CF
