There Goes That Song Again

By SARAH TYSON

This seems to be what everyone is saying these days when they hear their favorite songs. So far, the leaders of this "Sentimental Journey" through the airwaves are DORIS DAY, ELVIS PRESLEY and DOROTHY BUTLER because they are the ones we all know. ANNETTE PICKERILL's song is "The Man I Love". Have faith Annette, be\'ll find your "Man" if you live long enough. KATHARINE HEPBURN's holds sentiment for DERYL McFARLAND because he remembered her back to last year when she sang "I'll Be Seeing You" and spent all their Saturday nights dancing to it. I'm also thinking of CAROLYN BOWEN that "I'll Get By" is a wondrous song. She says it was the popular first night she and RICKY MURPHY danced in front of a flock of girls. Out of all of this, SALLY REYNOLDS is the one I can't get out of my head. So, I'm now crazy about the popular谈恋爱.

Now for a few that are just reminders. For some of them and hold no sentiment to me (mentioned). ROSE MILLIS is reminded of George by "I Dream of You". Dreams is VIRGINIA HEILDER's and her respective sailor's theme song, HARRETT THOMPSON. They lived together for "There's No You" because of Jimmy Futrell. He looks lovely today lighting a cigarette before he tells me, "I Can't Begin to Tell You". ANNIE HENDERSON. An old favorite of SARA ADAMS and is the one she sings "River". She says it reminds her of someone.

For a while, that's all the songs for a while but "We'll Be Seeing You".

I. R. C. Holds
Monthly Meeting

The theme for the past five monthly meetings has been the political aspects of Russia, China, Spain, France, and the United States.

Tuesday night at the meeting, they talked about the relationship between various countries and the United States.

Harriet Arrington spoke on the relationship of China and the United States.

Jean Hall talked on the relations between Russia and the United States.

At these meetings refreshments are always served. June Sears and Simon Tussle choose the snack and pass out the treats for refreshments at this meeting.

Vesper Programs Have
Variety of Themes

Thursday night Vesper programs for March were given. A song service with Betty Rentz in the front of the room. The music is "Ode to Joy".

The Deputation Service of "Y" to be at ABAC

The Deputation Service of the "Y" for this quarter will be given at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College. The song for this quarter is "I'll Be Seeing You". After the April 7, Edith Collins is the speaker. Edith is in charge of the service, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fishbaugh will go with Edith and Betty.

Plans are being made for the Deputation Service at Athens in the near future to be given at the Alpha Xi Chapter of "Y". Since the supper hour has been changed also, "Y" cabinet will meet at 6:30 instead of 7:00. P. M. Thursday night will be at 6:45 instead of 7:15.

GOD NEEDS ME FOR A MISSIONARY

God needs me for a Missionary work. And I'm going to try. My Daddy says that I can't go. I prayed a long time last night. For Him to show me the way. He said, "Go and tell me in a loud voice.

"Go now, they need you today."

When I woke up this morning, "Hey, Mr. Daddy! Don't you think I'll need a car?"

I wanted to tell my Daddy what God had put in my heart. I approached my father in an awkward sort of way. But, he wouldn't hear me. He said, "Forget Missionary today."

No one knows how sad I was.

To tell my Daddy what God had put in my heart.

And that it would save a thousand and fold.

I went about my work all day and thought constantly on my mind. Were the words of God and the words of my Daddy.

And a feeling I can't define.

At the close of the day when all problems had been solved. I decided to slip away alone. God told me to tell what I had said. When I told my Daddy back home.

I went down to the little pine grove.

Where everything was hushed and peaceful.

I lifted my eyes up to the sky and Leansh heavily on a tree. As I prayed to God so earnestly. My heart was heavy but bright.

To tell my Daddy what God had put in my heart.

When I waked up this morning, "Hey, Mr. Daddy! Don't you think I'll need a car?"

Yes, answered my prayer all right. I am on my way to tell Dad.

"Daddy" he is the best friend to be had.

"Daddy" I said in a softer tone. God said that we must share our thoughts with those who love us. With our friends who live over the hill and a sandwich. He was so pleased. I was so happy.

Being a Missionary God wants me to do this with all my might. My heart was relieved but after He told me not to worry but to be Content with things as they are.

Yes, answered my prayer all right.

And I am on my way to tell Dad.

Through The Keyhole

By GRANTHAM and CARSON

March 21st has come and gone with its passing, Spring was officially ushered in. But long before that, the signs of Spring began to develop. Already, the golden, sparkling days of March are changing into more and more beautiful scenes that spell Spring. In the air is the smell of newly sown seed and the fragrance of blooming flowers. The trees are taking on their new green leaves and the grass is turning a more vibrant shade of green.

Wishing Bells! Just around the corner they are chiming for small AEAs, and the Spring Fling is being planned. It usually sits up on these gals who have love in their minds and happiness in their hearts.

Wedding Bells! Just around the corner they are chiming for those small AEAs who are going to be married. We wish you much luck, Jean!!

We have all heard that JEAN MARTIN has a tail (), dark and handsome fellow. We have all heard that she is planning to get married to some one “gals”--who do you suppose is going to help her with her star gazing, (that happy-looking guy)? S E A R S is the chosen one. You got it right, Jean!!!

COLLEN GEIGER has suddenly developed a liking for motor-cyclists. She likes to sit around and watch them come through town. She is planning a trip to Atlantic City, and the members of that same group do also. “There is a representative of such and such a group. We would wish her to be respected as the place we thought with us."

As our school has a deal of traveling done— for the sake of the College— it would be well to stop and think of the more serious side of these trips. Forgetting for the moment the fun we will have and the new experiences we will enjoy.

The Senenades are indeed fortunate to have been asked to go to Atlantic City, and the members of that same group do also. “There is a representative of such and such a group. We would wish her to be respected as the place we thought with us.”

That is all for now. We will be more than happy to plan our trips for the moment the fun we will have and the new experiences we will enjoy.

Now that Spring has arrived and plans are being made for extensive traveling on the part of such organizations as the Glee Club, Senenades, Y. W. C. A. and others, it behooves us to stop and think of the more serious side of these trips. Forgetting for the moment the fun we will have and the new experiences we will enjoy.
