Seniors Repeat Stage Show

By MARY F. DEVANE

The Seniors of V.S.C. were proud to present their second meeting, Monday, November 13, 1950, the stage show that was part of the Senior Halloween Carnival. Due to popular requests from students, faculty, and people from the community, it was decided to repeat the show with a few additional changes that the audience enjoyed.

The show proved to be a success and approximately 165 people presented. Many people regretted for the second time to see the show.

The show was a mixture of acts of singing, dancing, tap dancing, music, laughter, dancing, acting and acting. Many of the acts were devoted to family. The part of the show was included by the members of the club. They are Mary Brand, Eddie Water, Betty Henderson, Tom Crouch and Julian LeFiles. Betty English, Anne Murdock, Thad Pitt, Polly Mann, and Betty Henderson.

The program for the show included an act which especially appealed to the audience. The act was Tom Crouch and Julian LeFiles.

Everyone at V.S.C. enjoys the feature act that is presented. Selected in a combination of over 145 people present, the feature act was chosen for the Senior Halloween Carnival. The feature act was presented by the seniors.

The Senior Class wishes to thank those who put in many hours of work. They are Tom Crouch and Julian LeFiles. Betty English, Anne Murdock, Thad Pitt, Polly Mann, and Betty Henderson.

The Thanksgiving Holiday begins Wednesday, November 22, for our Thanksgiving Holidays. Class To Meet Saturday, November 18.

ATTENTION ALL STUDENTS:

If a student of the 1951 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges" and "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." They are Mary Brand, Eddie Water, Betty Henderson, Tom Crouch and Julian LeFiles.

"Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." They are Mary Brand, Eddie Water, Betty Henderson, Tom Crouch and Julian LeFiles.

"Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." They are Mary Brand, Eddie Water, Betty Henderson, Tom Crouch and Julian LeFiles.

The Senior Class wishes to thank those who put in many hours of work. They are Tom Crouch and Julian LeFiles.
Yetien the lark reminded him that they were both of the same family. To have that size was not the same thing as having the skill to carry it off.

Because the lowly skylark spoke to him before he himself had first spoken.

and give delight to the others while the eagle could not. Thbe eagle challenged the lark to a test to flaunt the fact that he could fly higher, sing louder, and possess a voice that at times had a musical quality. Overall, this was perhaps, the best group. Her presentation of classical ornamental devices, such as the portamento, cadence, and the turn, was superb. Her ability to trill was especially outstanding.

The second group consisted of performers―Solcher, Brahms, and Straus. Although some of the singer's higher notes were rather flat in pitch, she showed marvellous breath control and dexterity with a voice at times almost a little too uncontrolled. Jackson's accompaniments, especially the extremely difficult "Standchen" of Richard Strauss, was handled with facility. Gavron was also noted for his interpretation of the songs of the Greek composer, Antonin Dvorak. She is noted by the accompanying evidence of Czech folk song influence. Gavron's understanding of the musical abilities of these two artists, Miss Conner's vocal control, and an unusual ability to project mood, made this a most enjoyable program. Miss Jackson's performances are envied by others.

Following intermission, Mr. Jackson played selections by three modern French composers, Francois Poulenc, Debussy, and Messiaen. After these modern and impressionistic selections, he offered two encore. One of these, "Ravel avec" (Ravel with), had been learned some time ago. The other, "Yma and La" (My love) probably the most enthusiastic applause of the evening. Due to internal power and leadership and a very intimate relationship, Mr. Jackson well-nigh "owns the show." His relaxed manner was infectious enough by itself.

Group Five included songs of German composers, Fauré, Fauré, and Schumann. Containing a great deal of humor and beautiful singing, these songs included an arrangement of "Cock-a-Doodle Doo." Miss Crutchfield and Miss West performed Schumann's "Dorothy," and "Dorothy." The concert was concluded with a encore of "Comin' Through the Rye," a song by Genevieve Liberty, and light opera selections. A large audience left, satisfied that they had indeed heard two of America's finest musical artists, presenting some of the world's most beautiful art music. Everything, including the performer, seemed to thoroughly enjoy the occasion.

Thanks From The Seniors

The Valdosta State College Senior Carnival was a huge success and the after-prompation of the town, V. S. C. faculty and students it would have been a failure.

To you who are responsible we wish to say "Thank you." Also the Senior Class wishes to express its gratitude to the business men of the town for their kind cooperation in contributing items to our Senior Carnival. Thank you.

THADYNE PITT
President, Senior Class

---

BRAND! Eagle—Skylark?

There is a story that goes like this:

One day a skylark and an eagle were sitting on a rock together and the eagle became furious because the lowly skylark spoke to him before he himself had first spoken.

The skylark was very pleased to the eagle, but the latter continued to look about him with little or no notice with cold hauteur. He was highly insulted when the lark reminded him that they were both of the same family. To prove that size was not the same thing as having the skill to carry it off, the lark flaunted the fact that he could fly higher, sing louder, and give delight to the others while the eagle could not.

The eagle challenged the lark to a test to flaunt the fact that he could fly higher, sing louder, and possess a voice that at times had a musical quality. Overall, this was perhaps, the best group. Her presentation of classical ornamental devices, such as the portamento, cadence, and the turn, was superb. Her ability to trill was especially outstanding.

The second group consisted of performers―Solcher, Brahms, and Straus. Although some of the singer's higher notes were rather flat in pitch, she showed marvellous breath control and dexterity with a voice at times almost a little too uncontrolled. Jackson's accompaniments, especially the extremely difficult "Standchen" of Richard Strauss, was handled with facility. Gavron was also noted for his interpretation of the songs of the Greek composer, Antonin Dvorak. She is noted by the accompanying evidence of Czech folk song influence. Gavron's understanding of the musical abilities of these two artists, Miss Conner's vocal control, and an unusual ability to project mood, made this a most enjoyable program. Miss Jackson's performances are envied by others.

Following intermission, Mr. Jackson played selections by three modern French composers, Francois Poulenc, Debussy, and Messiaen. After these modern and impressionistic selections, he offered two encore. One of these, "Ravel avec" (Ravel with), had been learned some time ago. The other, "Yma and La" (My love) probably the most enthusiastic applause of the evening. Due to internal power and leadership and a very intimate relationship, Mr. Jackson well-nigh "owns the show." His relaxed manner was infectious enough by itself.

Group Five included songs of German composers, Fauré, Fauré, and Schumann. Containing a great deal of humor and beautiful singing, these songs included an arrangement of "Cock-a-Doodle Doo." Miss Crutchfield and Miss West performed Schumann's "Dorothy," and "Dorothy." The concert was concluded with a encore of "Comin' Through the Rye," a song by Genevieve Liberty, and light opera selections. A large audience left, satisfied that they had indeed heard two of America's finest musical artists, presenting some of the world's most beautiful art music. Everything, including the performer, seemed to thoroughly enjoy the occasion.

THADYNE PITT
President, Senior Class

---

Thanksgiving

Last Wednesday evening near by everybody is that in 1620 a small group of freedom loving people landed in cold New England to try to begin a new life. A life where they could possess their own love of freedom with many of their old friends.

The next year the people were motivated to set aside a day to be used for the purpose of giving thanks to God who had shown them the way.

Until the year 1864 people celebrated Thanksgiving on the fourth Thursday in November. As a national holiday. At this time the date set was the last Thursday in November. Today there still seems to be some disagreement over the date. We at V.S.C. are observing Thanksgiving on the twenty-third of the month, but many of the calendars give the thirteenth as being the legal holiday.

It is not so much the date on which we decide to thank the Lord for what the way in which we observe the day. A recent editorial in one of the larger newspapers stated that it might be a good idea if we made every day Thanksgiving Day.

We all gripe and groan, but if we had a few minutes we would consider and we really have much to be thankful for. We have everything we take for granted . . . like some of it, we are never at a loss for our food, and we are free to think and act as we wish, as long as we do not harm the other members of our society.

We all know that we should stop and take time to think of the many little things we have taken for granted and we should express our thanks in the expression on our faces and in the little things we do and say.

(Continued on Page Four)

---

WATERS Under Versus Upper

That seems to be what most people think when they start to school. Well, they say, what chance do I have—a Freshman, with all of these upperclassmen running the campus and topping all the honors?

Friend, you are wrong. It is a hard break to make from old and a good one to a High level of upperclassmen. They are not students at all; they are upperclassmen. But there are so many to help you, to pull you through your first quarter. Perhaps you think that no one knows you are here. First you are an unknown, who can ploy—tennis, who can sing or dance, who can play—piano by Henry Jubb. Assis.

---

SMITH Today Is Armistice Day!

Thirty years ago today a group of men met to bring to an end the war that was to end wars. Or at least, that is what they thought they were doing.

Since that time there has hardly been an hour of peace on our little world.

There have been brave attempts at keeping peace in the world among nations and the World Court, and at the present time with the United Nations organization.

To us, living today, it seems that these organizations have had and are having very little effect. The League of Nations did nothing to stop the onset of World War II and it seems that the UN is powerless to stop the war in Korea. Of course, the fighting is under the flag of the United Nations, but the dream of some hopeful individuals was that there would be no more warring between nations or political factions.

Maybe viewed through the prospective of the years these attempts at unification under common ideals will show some result and progress.

But why is man always warring? Why can’t the world live in harmony, instead of discord?

Many people feel that Man’s longing for power and possessions makes him willing to risk his life, under other conditions is his most cherished possession.

The flag of the United Nations bears a view of the map of the world, divided into continents. As the armistice was signed last November 11, 1918, a laurel wreath is a sign of victory. It has been used to denote many kinds of victory—in ancient Greece the winners in various kinds of athletic competition were awarded this laurel wreath to denote his power as a fighter and political leader.

What will the future show the laurel wreath of the UN to mean? Will it be the victory in wars and conquest, or will it be the victory of Man over his conflicting passions? Is it possible that the world can harmonize and keep his world in a state of peace?

---

YOU HOLD HIM—SHOOT THE AX!!
Y.W.C.A. News

The Y.W.C.A. will present the annual Thanksgiving chapel program Wednesday, November 23. Miss Betty Buckner, president of the Y, will lead the program. Rev. Albert S. Trulock will be the speaker. The V.S.C. Glee Club will render several appropriate selections.

The Y Cabinet welcomes into its fellowship two new members, Morning Watch club, Martha McMenemy; and Publicity chairman, Winona Love. Martha is a member of the Junior Class and Winona is a sophomore transfer from Martha Berry College in Rome.

The Sophomore Council for this year has been appointed by the faculty. They are Mary Ann Dykes, chairman; Becky Culbreth, Miss Van Landingham, Theda McMenemy, Sallie Clark Alexander, J. B. Barrows, Rosa Margaret Jones, Betty Jackson, Sylvia Zeigler, Gloria Barry, Ann Bryant, Eleanor Bowyer, and Mary Jackson. Sylvia Zeigler, Gloria Barry, and Ann Bryant are all students, and Miss Van Landingham is a member of the Junior Class.

As Christmas is fast approaching, we may just be here for it. too! And another trip to Atlanta for the Sophomore Council at the University of Georgia. We wish all the students who are going to Atlanta a safe and enjoyable trip.

Hooray For The Holidays Or Henderson Studies Again

I'm going home Thanksgiving! I've been here since the 20th of September, and now I'm going home! I guess one reason I haven't been able to bus is that every time I think I'll catch up on my reading, or catch up on my music, I just have to go see the piano, or get up that de-linquent notebook. Then night I have to make a new skirt, or catch up on some of the letters I should have written. I've been too busy. I have the Christmas presents I got last year, or just go to bed early. Hal! For the past three Thanksgivings I have been planning to do just this.

But do you know what really happens? Nothing makes me wake up at 7:00, and I can't for the life of me get back to sleep. So I get up, and eat breakfast like I haven't been fed since the Bastille burned. Then, I sit down at the piano, and after playing the C major scale once, I can't get settled, then my roommate and I get into a discussion about the French Revolution, and why it happened, and then I think I'll either practice the C scale with one finger at a time, or just go to bed early. Ha!

The last issue of the Canopy carried the story of the presentation of the U. S. flag to the college by the Home Ec. Club in cooperation with American Legion. Ann Tygart, Ruth Miller and Anne Murdock are shown presenting the flag to Dr. Ralph Thaxton.

Faculty Run-A-Round

Not very many of us know of the trips, for business or pleasure, that some of the members of the V.S.C. faculty have made. Mr. Babcock and Miss Speer never fail to make me happy as they return from off-campus division of the University on Monday and Thursday nights.

On Saturday, November 4, Miss Patterson attended a luncheon meeting of the Alumnae Association of Atlanta.

Mr. Van Buren also journeyed to the State capital to see "Der Fiedermacher," directed by her husband, Richard Valente. On another trip to Atlanta she attended a dance recital given by one of the faculty members of the University of Georgia.

Wakulla Springs was honored by visits of the V.S.C. faculty on consecutive Sundays. On October 23, Miss Ross, Miss Herndon, and Miss Deaver made a most enjoyable trip, which inspired Mrs. Thompson, Mr. Treanor, Miss Ivy, and Miss Fink to dip their toes in the key springs on November 5.

A group of faculty and staff attended the full meeting of the Teacher Education Council in Maidselgrove from November 19 to 22. Among attendees were Miss Thaxton, Mrs. Knight, Miss Herndon, and Mrs. Dunson, V.S.C.'s commissioner who weeklyasioned to observe some business procedures instituted at G.S. The purpose of the meeting was to make plans and procedures for the teacher education program throughout the state of Georgia.

Mr. Rivers and Dr. "D" have both visited in Thomassville recently.

Mr. Logan and Mr. Pember have made several visits to Athens and Augusta for business and pleasure. Spectators at the Georgia-Florida game in Jacksonville this week-end will include Misses Rivers, Sawyer, Deaver, Weems, and Herndon.

The pizza pie which has some-where in the middle of the bottom of the pan, and stuff myself in. Goodness, you'd think Mr. Babcock and Miss Speer never set down my roommates and I get hungry, then I get the most wonderful dinner, and the next time I look at the clock, it's midnight. Ah, well, to bed... maybe I can do a little something before play-practice tomorrow. And, maybe, I can study... while the Soprano part of the Glee Choir goes to bed.
THE CAMPUS CANOPY

Sports

By RUTH MILLER

Fresno Stalks Ping Pong

"Wink" McColl, a freshman, placed third in the ping pong tournament. Joan Holstein placed second; and Carol Smith was third. All three are Kappas, this gives the Kappas nine points to the Eta Phi Delta's six. The tournament was shown in this tournament, we hope, will show interest in the future tournaments. These games will continue to sign up for them and really make this tournament a success, especially, if place first, second, or third in a tournament you will be given credit for taking a match which will count toward a letter.

Teams Tournaments

The drawings on the tennis tournament have been posted, so play your match as soon as possible. The time allotted for this tournament is in the future. Students will be expected to have a tennis racket. As shown in this tournament, the Kappas will continue to show interest in the future tournaments.

Rat Caps

Rat caps are on sale, NOW. All Freshmen and transfer women students are expected to have them. They will assist the team captains toward a letter. All three are Kappas, this chance to catch up with the Kappa backfield heid and prevent them from scoring.

Lineline

Kappa Lambda

Brown, M. A.
Bovman

Grogan, M. A.

McCall

Bere, D.
Dekle

Morgan, J. M.

Barry

Speedball: Lambda 2, Kappa 6

The Lambda team drove deep into the Kappa backfield three more scoring threats the Kappa backfield held and prevented them from scoring.

THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving (Continued from Page Two)

Thanksgiving is not just a day set aside by some President and his Cabinet—it is a state of mind and a feeling inside you. Let’s try to observe little Thanksgiving Days more than once a year.

Shrinks in the dining hall one night recently were on the dining hall where they were very nicely and delicately served soup in a plate.

BRIGGS’ CLOTHING

Things Men Wear

Valdosta, Ga.

Men’s Sports

By GLENN DOWLING

Thursday, November 2, the V.S.C. football team defeated Emory Jr. 13-6. A spirited V.S.C. team is scheduled to play Dasher High School. The V.S.C. team is made up of H. Stephenson, M. Carter, H. Stephenson, and E. Paulk.

V.S.C. scored early in the first quarter on a beautiful pass from Charles Daniels to Jack Smith, who received the ball in the end zone. The extra point was nixed after a penalty. The Lambda team scored on a long pass, but the trial for the extra point failed. After several exchanges of down Daniels slipped the ball to Jack Smith, and the extra point was made.

Passes were being thrown by both teams and the V.S.C. team intercepted nine of the Emory passes, while the Emory team intercepted only two.

The victory over the Emory team was largely due to the splendid playing of the V.S.C. team, which is made up of E. Nussbaum, C. Harmon, B. Johnson, H. Stephenson, B. Johnson, and E. Paulk.

The game was played hard by both teams but the superior V.S.C. team deserved the victory.

The basketball team of V.S.C. is readily shaping up into a well organized and fast ball club. The team has been practicing in the afternoon at the Emory Jr. gym. Several scrimmages have been held but a regular game has not been played, although the V.S.C. team is scheduled to play Dartet Hille School. Several other games with colleges in this area arc being planned and we are looking forward to a very good season.

Most of the boys on the tram have played two or three years of basketball in high school and one has played college ball. The team is made up of H. Stephenson, E. Nussbaum, C. Harmon, B. Johnson, H. Stephenson, B. Johnson, and E. Paulk.

As soon as the team can play together and get a regular game, V.S.C. can look for a good representation of VSC on the basketball court—body—stuffed animals.

Said Bobby Zipper as he sat on the bench at Ashby and half time waiting for WOMEN!

Places Off-Limits

Posted By S. G. A.

For Complete

DRUG SERVICE

S & K DRIVE IN

Fountain Specials

N. Ashley Road

MAKE OUR STORE YOUR

DOWNTOWN

HEADQUARTERS

DOSTA

Photo 1979

MOVIES ARE BETTER

THAN EVER

TODAY AND SATURDAY

CHARLES STARRETT

"Bandits of Eldorado"

"Mary Ryan Detective"

WEDNESDAY - THURSDAY

MARSHA HUNT

SUNDAY ONLY

"The Crisis"

"Big Lift"

MONTGOMERY CLIFF

REGISTRY

CLOTHING C.In.

VALE5TA, GEORGIA

Brookwood PHARMACY

Excellent Cooking and Home Atmosphere

Make The

WHITESTONE RESTAURANT

Valdosta’s Finest

Serving the Public for 40 Years

Bob Belcher’s Drug Store

Valdosta Club

(Continued from Page One)

including initiations of the late Al Jolson, Pistonier, and "My Mammy"; Helen Kane’s "I Don’t Wanna Be Loved"; Phil Harris’ Elmer and the Bear" and Jerry Lewis’ version of "I Love a Mystery." Also included were "Cocktails for Two", "Dance of the Silver Bells" and "Phantom," "None But the Lonely Heart", and "Hello Bill Hucklebe" by Spike Jones.

The Valdosta Club invited the entire student body to this very entertaining and unique program.