PRESIDENTS LEAD HONORS DAY PROCESSION:

Pres. J. Ralph Thaxton of VSC and Pres. Merritt Hoag, right, lead the academic procession of Faculty and Sigma Alpha Chi honor society members at Honors Day exercises May 1. In the second row are pictured Luciel Bauer, retiring president of SAC; Jeannette Grimes, retiring vice-president; and Becky Culbreth, president elect.

Photo by Rema Sapp

---

Low Punch

The only near calamity of the evening occurred during the punch ration when the punch ran dangerously low. At this juncture, however, for George McGahey, Librarian, to ship in 2,500 copies of the college paper because he didn't like the way the editors cut down an article he wrote.

- Name:
- Remarks: (Yes or No) Suggested Name.

---

Pine Cone Staff

The publication committee of the SGA recently elected Joan Van Landingham editor and Robert Lane business manager of the 1953 Pine Cone.

---

House Mother

Gus Has Puppies

By Van Ferguson

Van Ferguson, Betty Grines, Ashley Hall residence head (the rest of her life there too), reports extra guppies in her fishbowl.

---

Business Club Elects Officials

At the Business Club meeting held on April 21, the nominating committee presented a slate of candidates for officers for the Business Club for 1952-53. Bob Lane was elected to serve as the new president. The vice-president will be Jerry Brown; secretary, Iris Riser and Frances Jackson will be the new treasurer.

---

SPRING BRINGS FROLICS, MAY DAY HONORS, RINGS, GUPPIES

Spring in the South has brought the promise of warmer weather has inspired the students to get out and do some social activities.

---

The Campus Canopy

Valdosta State College, Tuesday, May 6, 1952

SPRING BRINGS FROLICS, MAY DAY HONORS, RINGS, GUPPIES

Change The Name Of The Canopy?

By Becky Culbreth

This paper has been called the Campus Canopy for many years, possibly since its existence. Lateley there have been discussions about changing the name. The Canopy is the yearbook of the student body. The opinions of a number of students and faculty members have been heard.

---

SPRING BRINGS FROLICS, MAY DAY HONORS, RINGS, GUPPIES

Todd Survives Frolics

By sure Todd

The Junior-Senior Frolics got off to a slow start, with the nightly marching band playing music, but a start, nevertheless. The danger was provided by the Junior Class President. Barbara Smith, who spoke in vain of the warmth of the Jukebox.

---

SPRING BRINGS FROLICS, MAY DAY HONORS, RINGS, GUPPIES

LOW PUNCH

The only near calamity of the evening occurred during the punch ration when the punch ran dangerously low. At this juncture, however, for George McGahey, Librarian, to ship in 2,500 copies of the college paper because he didn't like the way the editors cut down an article he wrote.

- Name:
- Remarks: (Yes or No) Suggested Name.

---

SPRING BRINGS FROLICS, MAY DAY HONORS, RINGS, GUPPIES

PRESIDENTS LEAD HONORS DAY PROCESSION:

Pres. J. Ralph Thaxton of VSC and Pres. Merrit Hoag, right, lead the academic procession of Faculty and Sigma Alpha Chi honor society members at Honors Day exercises May 1. In the second row are pictured Luciel Bauer, retiring president of SAC; Jeannette Grimes, retiring vice-president; and Becky Culbreth, president elect.

Photo by Rema Sapp

---

SPRING BRINGS FROLICS, MAY DAY HONORS, RINGS, GUPPIES

Todd Survives Frolics

By sure Todd

The Junior-Senior Frolics got off to a slow start, with the nightly marching band playing music, but a start, nevertheless. The danger was provided by the Junior Class President. Barbara Smith, who spoke in vain of the warmth of the Jukebox. Incidentally, it was reported that Miss Smith would have several times during the evening and she would ask me if I had my hand in the wall.

---
The Campus Canopy

Keith Dams writes

To all apparent reasons, this is my last effort in the Campus Canopy. I hope I did my best, but I'm not sure. I did my best to do what I thought was right. As my term as Editor-in-Chief comes to an end, I reflect on the past year and consider the challenges and opportunities ahead. The journey has been rewarding and fulfilling, and I am grateful for the opportunity to serve the student body in this capacity. I look forward to what the future holds. -By Becky Culbreth, Editor-in-Chief

Send Canopy To Your Servicemen

By Becky Culbreth

Hope—how's your circulation? With our Congressional elections just past, let us ask about the circulation of the military press. This year there has been an increase in the circulation of Canopy to other campuses, particularly those in the South. The new circulation manager wishes to send copies of The Canopy to boys who have attended various universities and to other students who are away but still interested in their Alma Mater.

This idea was suggested to the staff by Maj. Ainsworth, Adjutant for Physical Education. In cooperation of the students, this mission can be accomplished by the work of servicemen or others to whom the Canopy is mailed. Please address them the Canopy to your school, and they will be put in the correct hands.

The circulation manager is asking for your help in this project. If the Canopy reaches these people, it will be through you. This is the only first hand means of the Canopy staff. The interest and support that you show in the Canopy is the moving force for these activities. The Canopy believes that a student can equal a circulating Canopy.

BLUNDERBUSTS

Father Walter White was showing his art class the three views made by the religious: namely, Poverty, Quality and Obedience. He showed slides representing the former and the latter and upon being asked if the middle view had only Poverty and Obedience, he replied, "I don't happen to have any Canopy, but if you will wait I will find it for you.

O. K. Father White. We won't trouble you if you will wait a few minutes.

—Contributed by Mickey Carvelo

New Canopy Staff Selected

Appointments to the Campus Canopy Staff have been posted. See the new mast head for the members of the staff.

This staff will be charged with Winter Quarter and the Spring Quarter. The team hopes to bring about fresh ideas and more efficient service, by allowing this to remain in office only two quarters.

WIDE-AWAKE PERFORMANCE of 'SLEEPING BEAUTY'

By Gene Hackett

A very successful and unexpected variation of Tchaikovsky's, "Sleeping Beauty," was given the afternoon of May 1 at the Valdosta State College amphitheater.

The Dance Club, under direction of Phyllis V. Valente, offers a recital each year of a selected extension to the classical ballet. Great public enjoyment of this presentation lends further testimony to the fine artistry on display.

Although, it was presented as more of a story accompanied by music and suitable for the dance, it was still with all done with mirrors. The sub-plot ended in a ballet similar to the specified lines on a piece of paper while he is looking through a mirror. It is commendable that the Dance Club understands its art so well in spite of the short period of time and maturity. She became the central unifying figure as the action shifted back to her after each major change in the story.

The new Constitution was a big step forward. The Fraternity function coupled with a factor in that move, VSC's entrance into intercollegiate sports was not a howling novelty and considerable effort and success will come in time.

Campus Canopy is the process of face-lifting: what with wooden stairs, 2x4s, cinderblocks, plowed fields, etc. All of these moves are for the betterment of the people of VSC and should not falter as they show signs of doing. This is not a symptom of an undercurrent tendency in today's society—whether that trend is a reality or just a rumour.

Scary warnings have been sounded time and again that the ends justify the means. We as students should be interested in the real course of events and not those who are left over have been allotted by myself and the comprinter to other clubs.

We have not allotted funds to various small, limited membership clubs this year because we are trying to accumulate a surplus to convert the small circulation manager to the fine work being done by his very active club.

As I walked in the door I was met by the lady of the house. She had been crying and her husband had been drinking. She put five dollars in my hand and gave me a big drink. Then she came down the steps. I tried to tell her her husband must have had enough but she grabbed me by the arm and was quietly but firmly leading me to the car.

I headed to the Country club with my two best friends, my fountain pen and Dad's check book. The people that were drinking quit and those that where still sover were up in the box broke down and the piano got stuck. A country gentleman said he was going home and apologised to the Canopy. Walter White was still sitting in his car. After all I didn't mind walking to work.

Finally I got her to come to go home but the back of her car was dead. I was exasperated. To make sure we got away we were pushed off by the host, hostess, waitress and two stray dogs. I staggered in getting back to the house and saying goodnight in the car. In all fairness I bothered as loudly as possible that we were back. The shades in the neighborhood started going down and the old man in the house went up. I staggered from the porch and the time I got to the car I was going so fast I just decided to come back in a couple of days and eat the car. After all I didn't mind walking to work.
ANNUALS:

'Best of Luck Always'

By Betty King

The answer to an annual is: What a magic sentence! This jubilant cry echoes in our ears whenever you are doing—whenever your name is called to join the class club, when you soapop in and see if the art lab or library is open to do your writing work, or when you are produced reading all the travel opportunities on the bulletin board, and run to the nearer beach for a quick dip. After waiting in a line of impatient people for a few minutes, you get your annual and sigh happily with anticipation at the afternoon ahead of you—spent boiling in the sun.

NATURALIST

But seriously, annuallys are a great help to your morale. In years to come, you can read over the pages and find that the face of the fireman which you would stay out late I have caused them to be out there.

The second party replied, "I'm not the fireman. he doesn't feel so Moody and Spend-..."

Honor Society Elects Officers

The Honor Society met April 17 to elect their officers for the next year. Elected: Rebekah Clab, vice-president; Jo Ann Webster, treasurer; and Sunny Pennington, secretary. Many new members were added to the society, as well as those who had graduated. The next meeting will be held April 25.

For Complete Service

DRUG SERVICE

CALL 812

136 North

Patterson Street

Ginadin Jewelers

DIAMONDS - WATCHES

SILVERWARE

CENTRAL FLORAL COMPANY

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller

402 N. Patterson St.

Phone 2006-2007

Valdosta, Georgia

Tell a friend who enjoys flowers as much as you do, that the best way to keep them beautiful is to eat them. For instance, we can make flowers out of sugar and cream, or we can make them out of honey and cream. The bees will then enjoy their flowers. And they will enjoy them even more when the flowers are made out of sugar and cream.

...and letting the audience sit in on the performance. (Continued from Page Two)

SALT & SUGAR TO TOGS

LIFE IS NOT

For Fun in the Sun

CATAINA SWIM WETS

SAND AND SUN FUN TOGS

SAND AND SUN FUN TOGS

Some people write with a ball-point pen. These people smile at tolerantly and pass by quickly. Then there are those who leave a bit of a blunty blob of ink in the middle of your favorite picture. These people are quite human, too, although you'd like to pass of them with a great deal of difficulty. A certain faculty member wrote something in my annual which looked exactly like "You are quite an outlaw". Speaking of faculty members, they must get very tired of writing in annuals year after year, but they don't show it. They are justly write "Best wishes" and then "for the year ahead! Whatever matter whether you flunked their course or whether they didn't even know you!

NATURALIST

But seriously, annuallys are a great help to your morale. In years to come, you can read over the pages and find that the face of the fireman which you would stay out late I have caused them to be out there.

The second party replied, "I'm not the fireman. he doesn't feel so Moody and Spend-..."

Honor Society Elects Officers

The Honor Society met April 17 to elect their officers for the next year. Elected: Rebekah Clab, vice-president; Jo Ann Webster, treasurer; and Sunny Pennington, secretary. Many new members were added to the society, as well as those who had graduated. The next meeting will be held April 25.

For Complete Service

DRUG SERVICE

CALL 812

136 North

Patterson Street

Ginadin Jewelers

DIAMONDS - WATCHES

SILVERWARE

CENTRAL FLORAL COMPANY

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller

402 N. Patterson St.

Phone 2006-2007

Valdosta, Georgia

Tell a friend who enjoys flowers as much as you do, that the best way to keep them beautiful is to eat them. For instance, we can make flowers out of sugar and cream, or we can make them out of honey and cream. The bees will then enjoy their flowers. And they will enjoy them even more when the flowers are made out of sugar and cream.

...and letting the audience sit in on the performance. (Continued from Page Two)

SALT & SUGAR TOGS

LIFE IS NOT

For Fun in the Sun

CATAINA SWIM WETS

SAND AND SUN FUN TOGS

SAND AND SUN FUN TOGS

Some people write with a ball-point pen. These people smile at tolerantly and pass by quickly. Then there are those who leave a bit of a blunty blob of ink in the middle of your favorite picture. These people are quite human, too, although you'd like to pass of them with a great deal of difficulty. A certain faculty member wrote something in my annual which looked exactly like "You are quite an outlaw". Speaking of faculty members, they must get very tired of writing in annuals year after year, but they don't show it. They are justly write "Best wishes" and then "for the year ahead! Whatever matter whether you flunked their course or whether they didn't even know you!

NATURALIST

But seriously, annuallys are a great help to your morale. In years to come, you can read over the pages and find that the face of the fireman which you would stay out late I have caused them to be out there.

The second party replied, "I'm not the fireman. he doesn't feel so Moody and Spend-..."

Honor Society Elects Officers

The Honor Society met April 17 to elect their officers for the next year. Elected: Rebekah Clab, vice-president; Jo Ann Webster, treasurer; and Sunny Pennington, secretary. Many new members were added to the society, as well as those who had graduated. The next meeting will be held April 25.
SPORTSLITE

By Delores Barry

The governing body of the Sports Club, the Student Government Association (SGA), has increased the number of elections to eight for the coming year, and the seats are filled by the election of eight girls who will serve for the coming year. The new members are: Jane McHugh, Susan Tullis, Barbara Hill, Jerry Brown, Althea Faison, Rhonda Klondike, Shirley Thomlinson, and Jane McHugh.

Rhonda Klondike, a sophomore on the Women's Club track team, is excited about her new role in the SGA Council. "I'm really looking forward to being able to make a difference on campus," she said.

The SGA Council is responsible for planning and organizing events, coordinating with other campus organizations, and representing the interests of the students to the university administration.

Billie Cilliart, the new faculty advisor, is looking forward to working with the new council members. "I'm excited about working with these talented girls," she said. "They have shown their ability to assume responsibility and make important decisions." The council members will be selected by a committee composed of faculty, staff, and students.

The SGA Council is an important forum for student participation in campus decision-making. It is expected that the council will work closely with student leaders to ensure that student voices are heard and represented.

CAMPUS NEWS

By Delores Barry

The Women's Club has elected a new executive board for the coming year. The board includes: Jane McHugh, president; Susan Tullis, vice-president; Barbara Hill, secretary; and Jerry Brown, treasurer.

The Women's Club is an organization that promotes the interests of women on campus. It sponsors a variety of events and activities, including social events, community service projects, and professional development opportunities.

The new executive board is expected to work closely with the council members to ensure that the needs and interests of women on campus are represented.

The SGA Council and the Women's Club are examples of the many organizations on campus that provide opportunities for student engagement and leadership. The council and club members will work together to ensure that the campus community is vibrant and dynamic.

BOOZE, BUMS, AND BURDETT

The campus community is excited about the new council and club elections. The醅 candidates were: Jane McHugh, Susan Tullis, Barbara Hill, Jerry Brown, Althea Faison, Rhonda Klondike, Shirley Thomlinson, and Jane McHugh.

The new council and club members will be selected by a committee composed of faculty, staff, and students. The council members will be selected by a committee composed of faculty, staff, and students. The council members will be selected by a committee composed of faculty, staff, and students.

The new executive board is expected to work closely with the council members to ensure that the needs and interests of the campus community are represented.

The council and club members will work together to ensure that the campus community is vibrant and dynamic.

BOOZE, BUMS, AND BURDETT

The campus community is excited about the new council and club elections. The new council and club members will work closely with the council members to ensure that the needs and interests of the campus community are represented.

The council and club members will work together to ensure that the campus community is vibrant and dynamic.