Seven Students Represent VSC In Who's Who

Barbry, Barry, Culbreth, Lane, McDonald, Roberts, and Wisenbaker Chosen

The 1952-53 edition of Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges will carry the names of seven Valdosta State College students. Chosen for recognition in this year's biographical dictionary of Who's Who are the following: Donald Barbry and Bob Lane, Quitman; Dolores McDonald, Savannan; Rebekah Culbreth, Moultrie; Mary Virginia McDonald, Valdosta; Billy Henry Roberts, Madison, Florida; and Harold Wisenbaker, Clyattville.

Each year the electors Who's Who lists students who have shown excellence and sincerity in scholarship and leadership and participation in student affairs. The VSC campus superlatives are nominated by a student-faculty committee and accepted by the Who's Who organization. Inclusion in this group is one of the top honors which a VSC student may receive.

A chemistry major, Miss Barbry has been a dean's list student and has served as secretary-treasurer of Sigma Alpha Chi honor society. At VSC she is a member of the VSC campus Banana and Buskin Club, Math-Science Club, and the staff of the Pine Cone.

Miss McDonald, a business administration major, Roberts has taken an active interest in the Campus Canopy Club for which he served as president. Last year he was named to the top elective office on campus when she was chosen president of the Student Government Association. He is also president of the Valdosta Student Association.

Although a business administration major, Roberts has taken an active interest in the Student Council for which he served as president. Last year he represented the southeastern association of IR Club at the national conference at Detroit. He is a member of the Sigma Chi honor society, Business, Math-Science, Sock and Buskin, and Dance clubs. In the latter organization he takes a leading part in the annual recitals presented by the group. He also is affiliated with Florida State University.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

I am writing concerning one problem in student affairs which has caused me concern. It is true that we have no student co-op to lounge around in (we keep that we have one as soon as the new gym is built). But we do have a very comfortable and spacious place to relax and play before study periods.

I grant that most of the clubs use the building and that a few couples go down to smoke occasionally, but what we students don’t use the House-in-the-Woods as a place to “escape” the dormitories and that “after the class letdown”, I believe, and I feel sure that others feel the same way, that we should have a juke box and coke machine at the cabin and use it as a place to “hang out”, whether for dancing, looting, playing cards etc., in the afternoons and evenings. If we would only organize something more social that we can do instead of just sitting around and idle.

Earl Yeomans, and Marvin Dennis.

The Night After Rat Day

By DOT SWINDELL

Twas the night after rat day and all through the dormitory
The beds were littered with sleeping forms.
The rats were nestled snug in their beds, with nightmares of Van running through their heads.
When in the room there arose such a clatter,
I sprang from my bed to see what was the matter.

My roommate was slugging the pillow with care.
When in the room there arose such a clatter.
I sprang from my bed to see what was the matter.

The councii members were shivering in their beds,
And the most ambitious in the Chemistry lab.

They had many plates tied with varicolored bows.
Each was told to drop dead twice; and lie there till morning.

The council members were shivering in their shirts.
And they had many plates tied with varicolored bows.

But then I saw figures looming in the moonlight sky,
A great big rat was holding a whip and an egg.
As the upperclassmen did the Charleston with one leg.

The rat was big, bony, and fat, and had on a red starched cap.
He sang out, "On Harold, on Habs, on Jobie, and Mac!"

"Eat that cheese and never come back!"
"Helen Grace, Malcolm, Marianne, and Susan,"
"Start pitching that egg or your eyebrows you!!"

The council members were shivering in their shirts.
And they had many plates tied with varicolored bows.

The election is over. The scrapping is over. The blood and sweat arc abating. The talks, the arguments, the anxiety and mud and smoke are abating. The talks, the arguments, the anxiety and mud and smoke arc abating. The talks, the arguments, the anxiety and mud and smoke are abating.

THE CAMPUS CANOPY
Excuse Me, But . . .

In the first issue of Canopy, there was an article complimenting Student Council for their work. Simply through oversight, mention was not made of the other leading organizations.

It goes without saying that these organizations did an indispensable job this year. The importance of Student Council and the others cannot be overemphasized.

If students are to study abroad, they must take on some of the responsibilities of student government. The only difference is that the group responsible for the program of the students in their country will be students.

Yes, it goes without saying, but that is not enough! Student Council and Canopy wish to take this opportunity to thank each organization for their work and their cooperation shown at the initiation of the fall in the hope that the year will be a very successful school year.

IRC Reports

The International Relations Club met Monday night, November 4, at the hotel. President Joseph J. Dowd and Senator Forrest Beveridge opened the meeting with a welcoming speech for the new students.

Twelve new members were present.

Nina Sessions, Jane Anderson, Norma Lizzie, Miss Louisa Ivey, Delia Holt, Archibald Thomas, Bob Kennedy, Bertie Finley, Miss Gladys Mobley, Jerry Brown, and Nancy Culver.

A most enjoyable and worthwhile program was presented. The Club has grown to a most successful year.

Speak For Yourself

Dr. Booker's Article Appears In Nat'l Magazine

An article by Dr. Ted Booker, head of the education department, appeared in the February issue of the National Parent-Teacher, official magazine of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The article, entitled "Betty and I Went to School," surveys the American educational system today, evaluating teachers, curricula and teaching techniques.

Business Club

The Business Club met on October 17 in the main floor of the office. A business session was held before the program, during which time Sheryl Smith was elected treasurer for the remainder of the year, and the treasurers of the state had resigned.

A definite goal is planned for the future of the business club. A film "Parliamentary Procedure in Action" was shown.
SPORTSLITE

Attention Lambdas and Kappas:

Well, here it is! The day that all Lambdas and Kappas have been waiting for. You guessed it. Pledge initiation will be Nov. 12th. On Monday and Tuesday preceding the day, all pledges will be expected to wear their pledge hats from seven a.m. to six p.m. Many comments have been heard over campus to the tune of, "Oh! Not another rat day!" Really, it's not all that bad. Initiation can be a lot of fun if it is given and taken in the right way. Remember this: The purpose of the Sports Club initiation is to test the sportsmanship of the active Lambdas and Kappas as well as that of the pledges.

Initiations can have many purposes and can be only what the club members make it. The Sports Club has always been proud of the way their pledges have responded to pledge days. They feel sure that this year will be no exception. Every girl on campus is a Phi Lambda or Phi Kappa. Just ask them. They will tell you and they will also say that they are proud of it. Every Lambda and Kappa is looking forward to welcoming their pledges as full-fledged members of the Women's Sports Club.

Formal initiation will be Wednesday night at a time to be announced. After the Lambdas and Kappas put away their age-old rivalry for a night and join in the fun of a good Sports Club party and get-together.

One last word of advice to the pledges. If you have any difficulty in finding them, be sure you find out. If you don't know who they are, be sure you find out. If you have any difficulty in finding out, find their president. Dolores Wynne, a greater contact with the entire Freshman class will be established.

First Match Games of Year Held

Did you hear the yell and cheer last Monday that were coming from the direction of the Speedball fields and the Volleyball courts? Don't be alarmed. The yells came from enthusiastic Lambdas and Kappas. Match games are always exciting times for a Sports Clubber.

Ten points were in the balance to be added to the Plaque points for one team or the other. The points ended up five for Lambda and five for a Phi Lambda or Phi Kappa. Just ask them! They will tell you and they will also say that they are proud of it. Every girl on campus is a Phi Lambda or Phi Kappa. Just ask them. Under the leadership of Becky Tyson, the Kappa Volleyball team came out victorious with a score of 40 to 23. Jane Burdette, coach of the Lambda team, promises that the Lambdas will be out to settle the score come next match game.

The Speedball game, the Lambda team was the victor by a score of 2 to 0. Coach Dolores Barry said that her team "played a very good game", but that the Kappas gave them a bit of tough competition. From all accounts, the Lambda team is well on its way to a championship. With the points all tied up, both Lambdas and Kappas will be out to win come what may. Be sure that you are in on the fun. It's not too late! There are still two more games to be played. See you at the Fields Monday and Wednesday afternoon!

Pledges Organized

The new addition of the Women's Sports Club is at last a full-fledged organization. Many girls who were interested in the aquatic section came out on a warm October day to lay the foundation for what promises to be a very active section of the Sports Club.

The Finns and Flippers plan to start work on a script for the annual aquaqueen which is to be presented by this group in the Spring. Land drills will comprise the activities of the group during the remainder of the fall quarter and winter quarter.

As a result of the Splash Party, twenty girls met the qualifications for the Finns and Flippers. Officers for the section are scheduled to be elected at the first meeting which will be held on the 10th of November.

The members of the aquatic group are: Peggy Maxwell, Berti Haldin, Larine Vann, Jane Ledford, June Porterfield, Anne Linsingworth, Frankie Powell, Wanda Bishop, Rheda Blackwell, Nan Williams, Becky Culverth, Ann Taylor, Claire Wiggins, Ann Taylor, Beverly Grimes, Lucy Patillo, Dolores Barry, Peggy Stewart, Barbara Smith, Pat Carson, Becky Tyson, Susan Tuells, Kat Meeks, Jane McGuff, and Alice Conley. In the spring there will be other try-outs. If others are interested, there will be another chance for you to become a member of the Finns and Flippers.

Feminine Fashions

Feminine Sports Club is looking forward to welcoming their pledges as full-fledged members of the Women's Sports Club. If you have any difficulty in finding out, find their president. Dolores Wynne, a greater contact with the entire Freshman class will be established.

What Would Happen...

After a time we begin to take things for granted. Just think that would happen if some of these things occurred...

If Mr. White lost his speedo costume.
- If Dr. Gulliver's pants fell off or cigarette got lit.
- If Mr. McCoy lost his checkbook.
- If Hackett lost his sense of humor.
- If an electrician fell on Dr. Trooper.
- If Miss Ivey lost her golf clubs.
- If Miss Herndon lost Butch.
- If the freshmen girls lost the telephone.
- If Charlie lost his pejepant pants.
- If the Legion Home burned down.
- If we all lost the flashl-*ers and electricians.
- If Miss Sawyer lost another election.
- If Miss Dewar lost her type-writers.

If copy for the Canopy were ready on time.
