Lee Graybeal, Barbara Little, Iris Croll, Jane Burdette
Are Class Sweethearts

One of Valdosta State's most impressive and beautiful social events is the Valentine Dance, held on February 13th, at the Women's Clubhouse, 1304 North Jackson Street. The climax of the event was the presentation of the Class Sweethearts.

The Sweetheart Dance will be remembered as one of the highlights of the social activities of this year. The Sophomore Class, which sponsored the dance, decided to present another show of beautiful and enjoyable entertainment.

A young lady with a winning smile and heart of kindness was the sweetheart presented as the choice of the Junior Class. She is Miss Jane Missie Burt, of Columbus, Georgia. Her escort was Mr. G. D. Langdale.

The choice of the Sophomore Class as the sweetheart was made by an overwhelming majority of the voting. Everyone's approval was given the Sophomore sweetheart.

Miss Burt's beauty and charm will be remembered by all those who attended the dance. Her escort, Mr. Langdale, made a fine appearance in his tuxedo and contributed much to the success of the evening.

The dance was a success, and the Class Sweethearts of this year are remembered as the happiest and most successful yet. The atmosphere was filled with joy and happiness, and everyone left the dance with a smile on their face.

(Continued on page 2)
THE CAMPUS CANOPY

Students have been critical of the "Eleven o’clock Rule" that requires them to be out of the dormitories by eleven o’clock. This rule was implemented to reduce noise and disturbance. According to students, the rule has made it difficult for them to study late at night, and they are proposing that an "Annual" be designated for this purpose. An "Annual" would be a day where all the clubs could gather and celebrate, saving the next academic year a great deal of time and work. However, the staff of THE CAMPUS CANOPY suggests that a committee should be appointed to find out if it would be possible to have an "Annual".

The student body appreciated the efforts of the student newspaper, THE CAMPUS CANOPY, in promoting a sense of community among the students. The newspaper has a weekly copy distribution, and it is available free to all students. The staff of THE CAMPUS CANOPY, under the leadership of Mr. Gabard, has been working hard to make the newspaper a valuable resource for students.

MAIZE

One of the focuses of the annual meeting was the proposal for the installation of new dormitories. The students expressed concern about the lack of facilities and the need for better living conditions. The administration promised to consider their suggestions and to make improvements in the future.

The staff of THE CAMPUS CANOPY has been working hard to produce a high-quality newspaper. The editor, Ms. Garbutt, has been taking a proactive role in ensuring that the newspaper is informative and engaging. The staff is grateful to the students for their support.

DOME VIEWS

THE SNOOPER

Gather around all you Kool Kat fans and listen carefully, here’s the latest hot copy on off-campus.

For the first time ever, Sam McGowan, a local Kool Kat, is going to be featured in THE CAMPUS CANOPY. When we phoned him, he was happy to talk about his experiences as a Kool Kat.

Sam McGowan: I’ve been a Kool Kat for over ten years. My secret is that I always manage to "float" under the radar. I think I’ve got that Kool Kat spirit.

Josephine: That’s great! We’re looking forward to seeing more about you. Thank you for your time.

THE BOOKSHELF

By Harold Carter

One of the most interesting novels of the Realist movement in American literature is Theodore Dreiser, Perhaps his most typical novel is An American Tragedy. A newspaper writer at the beginning of his career, Dreiser was never able to realize the concept of an American tragedy. His novel is regarded as a masterpiece in the field of American literature.

Dreiser’s writing is characterized by a realistic approach to the portrayal of human nature. His characters are often flawed and their actions are driven by their desires and aspirations. Dreiser was a prolific writer, and his works have been translated into many languages.

The American Tragedy tells the story of a young man named Clyde Griffiths who loses his job and becomes involved in criminal activities. The novel is a commentary on the American Dream and the consequences of materialism.

The novel was published in 1925 and was a critical and commercial success. It received a Pulitzer Prize and was adapted into a successful play and film.

THE STAFF

Published Monthly by Students of Valdosta State College

M.A.K.E.U.P EDITOR

JACK—You have the most admirable brains, Mabel. Yes, go on. Yes. Yes.

Mrs. Gilmer Odum, Staff Advisor

JOKE EDITOR

Gather around all you Kool Kat fans and listen carefully, here’s the latest hot copy on off-campus.

Our nationalism “swelled” how much? Doesn’t it? It’s a matter of national pride, folks.

STRICKLAND AND—(Continued from page 1) The topics discussed included "Why I Want to be a Teacher," "Characteristics of a Good Teacher," and "Teaching Salaries."

In this inimitable novel, prosaic though it may be, is something of a genius" and indescribable feeling for the whole drama of Christianity. Dreiser’s novels are rigidly deterministic; every important character in them recognizes neither purpose in the universe nor meaning in life. Such a determination to the tragedy is something of an American Tragedy.

Dreiser’s Doubts. Still I believe that it is my duty to do everything that would reinforce by Clyde’s final attitude toward faith. "In the shadow of the Valley of Death it is my desire to do everything that would remove any doubt as to my having found Jesus Christ—My one desire is that I may not have given Him the preeminence—while I had the opportunity to use the whole power of my being to do it. Finally, my task is done, the victory won. Is not that Dreiser’s own acceptance of Christianity as the agent of morality and social virtue?"
A beautiful young woman stood there and spoke with such poise and eloquence, her every word a testament to the beauty and depth of the human spirit. Her voice was soft, yet resounding, and her gaze was piercing, reflecting the wisdom and kindness of a soul that had seen much yet remained pure.

She began by saying, "Life is like a garden, you must plant and water your dreams in order to see them grow. But sometimes, we forget to tend to the soil and the garden becomes overgrown with weeds of neglect."

Her words were met with a hush, as everyone eagerly listened to the wisdom of the speaker. She went on to say, "We must remember to be kind to ourselves and to others, for in doing so, we cultivate the seeds of love and understanding."

The audience was silent, lost in thought, as they pondered the profound message. Finally, she concluded with, "In the end, it is not the flowers we plant that matter, but the beauty we bring to the world through our actions and words."

The room erupted in applause as the speaker left the stage, their words echoing in the minds of all who had the privilege of listening.
The Sports Digest

By BABE YEOMANS

Since the last edition of the Canopy, the Cager's have played eight games.

On January 21, CSC of America, halted the VSC five 91 to 51. On January 23, NPCI won over VSC 70 to 58. This was the first game in which the VSC had stormed the opposition, scoring 77 in the first half, but lost out in the closing minutes when they had to play with only four men. January 26, MAPB Jets beat the Cager's 68 to 50. January 27, SGC played here, winning by a score of 99 to 60. In their return match February 3, SGC came out on top with a score of 77 to 64. This was the largest student turnout for any out-of-town games, on February 4, the Cager's journey to Marianna, Fla., where they were again massacred, this time by a score of 101 to 51. On February 9, the MAPB Jets outscored, the Cager's 68 to 50.

Last Thursday night, February 11, when the VSC students walked into the gym, they had no idea what it was that was going to happen. The team warmed up as usual and the cheer leaders hollered as loud as ever. Before anybody realized what was happening, the (censored) broke loose, and when the final whistle had blown, the Cager's had stunned the crowd with an amazing upset of NPCI by a marvellous score of 101 to 51. At long last, the VSC fans had their revenge.

“World in Sports” was the initial theme of the conference and was the topic of a panel discussion made up of foreign students. In addition to this there were various sports, weight rooms, and get-togethers at which everyone had a delightful time.

The Sports Club wishes to call attention to a coming attraction! Another SPAGHETTI SUPPER! It is still in the planning stage, but watch for the date—that last one was really good!}

SENIORS PRESENT—

(Continued from page 1) was once again it was back in the dining hall. No girl can resist going to a dance when all the laughter and fun. Lovie Godwin entertained with "Monotonous." It was really good!}

The Sports Digest

By BABE YEOMANS

Since the last edition of the Canopy, the Cager's have played eight games.

On January 21, CSC of America, halted the VSC five 91 to 51. On January 23, NPCI won over VSC 70 to 58. This was the first game in which the VSC had stormed the opposition, scoring 77 in the first half, but lost out in the closing minutes when they had to play with only four men. January 26, MAPB Jets beat the Cager's 68 to 50. January 27, SGC played here, winning by a score of 99 to 60. In their return match February 3, SGC came out on top with a score of 77 to 64. This was the largest student turnout for any out-of-town games, on February 4, the Cager's journey to Marianna, Fla., where they were again massacred, this time by a score of 101 to 51. On February 9, the MAPB Jets outscored, the Cager's 68 to 50.

Last Thursday night, February 11, when the VSC students walked into the gym, they had no idea what it was that was going to happen. The team warmed up as usual and the cheer leaders hollered as loud as ever. Before anybody realized what was happening, the (censored) broke loose, and when the final whistle had blown, the Cager's had stunned the crowd with an amazing upset of NPCI by a marvellous score of 101 to 51. At long last, the VSC fans had their revenge.

“World in Sports” was the initial theme of the conference and was the topic of a panel discussion made up of foreign students. In addition to this there were various sports, weight rooms, and get-togethers at which everyone had a delightful time.

The Sports Club wishes to call attention to a coming attraction! Another SPAGHETTI SUPPER! It is still in the planning stage, but watch for the date—that last one was really good!}

SENIORS PRESENT—

(Continued from page 1) was once again it was back in the dining hall. No girl can resist going to a dance when all the laughter and fun. Lovie Godwin entertained with "Monotonous." It was really good!}

The Sports Digest

By BABE YEOMANS

Since the last edition of the Canopy, the Cager's have played eight games.

On January 21, CSC of America, halted the VSC five 91 to 51. On January 23, NPCI won over VSC 70 to 58. This was the first game in which the VSC had stormed the opposition, scoring 77 in the first half, but lost out in the closing minutes when they had to play with only four men. January 26, MAPB Jets beat the Cager's 68 to 50. January 27, SGC played here, winning by a score of 99 to 60. In their return match February 3, SGC came out on top with a score of 77 to 64. This was the largest student turnout for any out-of-town games, on February 4, the Cager's journey to Marianna, Fla., where they were again massacred, this time by a score of 101 to 51. On February 9, the MAPB Jets outscored, the Cager's 68 to 50.

Last Thursday night, February 11, when the VSC students walked into the gym, they had no idea what it was that was going to happen. The team warmed up as usual and the cheer leaders hollered as loud as ever. Before anybody realized what was happening, the (censored) broke loose, and when the final whistle had blown, the Cager's had stunned the crowd with an amazing upset of NPCI by a marvellous score of 101 to 51. At long last, the VSC fans had their revenge.

“World in Sports” was the initial theme of the conference and was the topic of a panel discussion made up of foreign students. In addition to this there were various sports, weight rooms, and get-togethers at which everyone had a delightful time.

The Sports Club wishes to call attention to a coming attraction! Another SPAGHETTI SUPPER! It is still in the planning stage, but watch for the date—that last one was really good!}

SENIORS PRESENT—

(Continued from page 1) was once again it was back in the dining hall. No girl can resist going to a dance when all the laughter and fun. Lovie Godwin entertained with "Monotonous." It was really good!}

The Sports Digest

By BABE YEOMANS

Since the last edition of the Canopy, the Cager's have played eight games.

On January 21, CSC of America, halted the VSC five 91 to 51. On January 23, NPCI won over VSC 70 to 58. This was the first game in which the VSC had stormed the opposition, scoring 77 in the first half, but lost out in the closing minutes when they had to play with only four men. January 26, MAPB Jets beat the Cager's 68 to 50. January 27, SGC played here, winning by a score of 99 to 60. In their return match February 3, SGC came out on top with a score of 77 to 64. This was the largest student turnout for any out-of-town games, on February 4, the Cager's journey to Marianna, Fla., where they were again massacred, this time by a score of 101 to 51. On February 9, the MAPB Jets outscored, the Cager's 68 to 50.

Last Thursday night, February 11, when the VSC students walked into the gym, they had no idea what it was that was going to happen. The team warmed up as usual and the cheer leaders hollered as loud as ever. Before anybody realized what was happening, the (censored) broke loose, and when the final whistle had blown, the Cager's had stunned the crowd with an amazing upset of NPCI by a marvellous score of 101 to 51. At long last, the VSC fans had their revenge.

“World in Sports” was the initial theme of the conference and was the topic of a panel discussion made up of foreign students. In addition to this there were various sports, weight rooms, and get-togethers at which everyone had a delightful time.

The Sports Club wishes to call attention to a coming attraction! Another SPAGHETTI SUPPER! It is still in the planning stage, but watch for the date—that last one was really good!}

SENIORS PRESENT—

(Continued from page 1) was once again it was back in the dining hall. No girl can resist going to a dance when all the laughter and fun. Lovie Godwin entertained with "Monotonous." It was really good!}