Pine Cone Staff Begins Preparation For 57 - 58 Edition

The Pine Cone staff has begun plans for the 1957-58 edition. Emma Dell Hendley, editor, stated, "This year the Pine Cone staff hopes to produce the best annual yet to be released from V.S.C. In recent years there has been a feeling, I am told, that our year book has not presented a complete picture of student life. We hope to portray student life. It is our feeling that a normal should be about students and student life-originated by them and produced by them."

All students at V.S.C. have had pictures made for the annual with the exception of about 15. The staff has already had contact with the publishing representative, and work has begun. The photographer will begin making pictures of organizations soon. In the meantime, the staff will be concerned with helping students make selections of their pictures proofs, which will appear in the annual.

Although the V.S.C. Pine Cone will not be one of the biggest college annuals in the state, the staff hopes to make it one of the best.

The staff thus far consists of editor, Emma Dell Hendley; associate editor, Jerome Clegg; photo editor, Guy Jeffress; layout editor, Betty Lou Brown; and business manager, Rudy Bax. Ten additional members have been added to the staff. There is a need for more members and it is expected that even more will be added at the next meeting.

Valdosta State College announces the addition of seven new members to its faculty. They are as follows: Miss Elmina McKeenly, Mr. Leonard J. Wagner, Mr. McCleod, Mr. Evans, Mr. Douglas B. Robinson, and Mr. Donald E. Gerlock, and Mr. Wallace L. Waites.

Miss McKeenly, a native of Macon, Georgia, came to V.S.C. from Limestone College in Gaffney, South Carolina. Here she is teaching in the secretarial science department.

Mr. Wagner is assistant professor of biology. He received his Master of Science degree in Biology from St. Mary's, West Virginia, and was previously a faculty member at Martin College at Pulaski, Tennessee.

Mr. Lindauer came to V.S.C. from the Allied Chemical and Dye Corporation, Hopewell, Virginia. He is serving as the new assistant professor of chemistry.

Mr. Evans joined the English department at V.S.C. For several years he was assistant professor of English at Emory- at Valdosta.

Mr. Robinson, for the past several years, served as head of the Department of Economics and Business Administration of the Junior College of Augusta, Georgia. He is teaching courses in economics and business education.

Mr. Gerlock is a replacement in the staff of the department of teacher education. Since 1948, he had served as principal of the Pine Grove High School in Lowndes County.

Mr. Waites filled the vacancy of Director of Public Relations. A native of Ocala, Georgia, he received his Master of Arts degree in Journalism at F.S.U. in June of this year.

Four of the seven new faculty members are filling vacancies caused by resignations. The other three were added to meet the increased demand for courses in their special areas.

Attention all freshmen, sophomores, juniors, seniors! Have you been to the library yet? Anist planner, pastel, and light fixtures, the V.S.C. library "carried out in order that it might be renovated, and it is now a new wing in the new building. The wing has three floors and contains the government documents, bound and unbound periodicals and the general collection.

On each floor there are well lighted study carrels where a student may study or type. There are student lockers in each floor in the new wing also. There are also 90 new editors that offer students such conveniences.

The browsing room is larger and the ceiling of fancy plaster is now a corner. The walls are a soft grey and the new furnishings are shades of yellow and green and add to its new look and it has also been remodeled.

The workroom has been enlarged and a new room has been added. This is the Teacher Education Reading Room on the second floor which houses the juvenile collection and band books.

It will be of interest to the old students as well as the new ones. V.S.C. students and faculty have moved to the main reading room.

The second floor houses the new library with a new color scheme. This is one of the International Relations with the English Book collection.

One of the star features of the "new" library is that it contains the government documents and a new office for book elevator was also installed.

Here and There...

The completion of the older part of the building and the addition of the new wing took hours of planning, hard work and co-operation. For about nine months the librarians faced a hectic atmosphere: electrical wares dangling from the ceiling, plaster being smoothed on the walls, wet paint, noisy workmen, etc. But the usual activities of a college library had to continue.

One year ago the Student Center was erected, I understand, as a self-financing organization. Today it is possible for the students to buy from professors, for ten cents, many items at a cheaper price than at the Student Center.

One of my pet ideas is that I can pawn out 9 ounce Coca-Cola for a dime—play juke box. Students—"I don't care! For economy's sake buy one ounce Coca-Cola for a nickel each and bring portable radios to the Student Center. As 500,000 students here there is no end to the amount the "Prophets" can extract from us.

Bill Moncrieff

Dear Sir,

I don't mean to be rebellious although we are called Rebels. This year has been rather ineffective.

T K E Launches New Program for Year

T K E has launched a new program which is one of the most ambitious ever undertaken by any V S C fraternity. Included in the "new look" is an expansion program by which the national colony hopes to raise its membership to 50 within a quarter, and a planned social calendar of over a dozen functions.

The first function was a rush affair attended by over 30 men. The rush party was held in the "House in the Woods" in Weeki Wachee; Florida, National Teke Editor and Field Supervisor, guest speaker. Also attending was Mr. Nick Vega, Florida Provence Officer of Tau Kappa Epsilon.

At that time the new look was revealed. The plan met with such success that immediately after the affair, nine men were formally affiliated with the colony making it the largest fraternity on the Valdosta campus. Many more are expected to accept Teke bids in the coming weeks.

New men are being affiliated on an equal basis during with the previous long and tedious "pledge period". Each new man receives an equal vote in the deciding of finances and social functions. All men affiliating this quarter will be regarded as charter members when the group is in operation.

The extensive social calendar will be carried out without any increase in dues. The next Teke affair will be a costume party with dates planned for next weekend. The party theme will be announced shortly. Any man affiliated in Teke's new program may contact Teke Editor and Field Supervisor, Beadle 397, for further information.

Being a Good Listener Has Its Advantages

Are you a good listener? The average person is only a "half-listener," says Dr. Ralph G. Nichols and Leonard A. Stevens of the University of Minnesota in an October Reader's Digest article, "Are You Listening?"

It is material from their book of the same title being published by McGraw-Hill. The conclusion is more than half the battle, they say. "A good listener listens with interest and attention. He closes the eyes . . . moves closer to the person talking . . . interrupts only when it is necessary to clear up a point . . ."

One of the reasons for paying close attention is that it is courteous to do so. But there is a selfish reason too . . . The listener has gotten an advantage of control over the way people talk to you. Intelligent listening on your part helps the speakers . . . give you information that you may need. How you listen has a direct bearing on what you learn.

"You are a good listener," the authors say, also makes you a better, more interesting speaker yourself. "Just as you will get more fun and reward from listening," they added, "so other people will conclude, "so other people will enjoy themselves more and will have a better chance to be understood as well."

Rebels Begin Practice For Coming Season

Coach Walter Cottingham's V. S. Rebels held their annual practice session last week in preparation for the coming season. The Rebels are beginning their special conditioning program for the first few weeks of practice. The actual basketball practicing begins this week. The program will include Valley volleyball, jump roping and running.

The Rebels lost only one starter from last season. He is A. J. Jarvis, high scorer last season, who graduated last spring. Lettermen returning from last season's team are Ed Gandy, Johnny Purvis, Doug Parrish, Jim Akers, L. H. Wood, and Gene Cargile.

Street hockey, a transfer from Middle Georgia College at Cochran, Georgia, and Al Stevens, a transfer from Troy State College in Troy, Alabama, are expected to give the Rebels a boost. Hodge was a star at Middle Georgia last season averaging 31 points per game.

Coach Cottingham commented that he is expecting a better record this season than that of last season. He explained that with the returning lettermen and the two transfers he should give his opponents plenty of trouble.

The Rebels open the season on December 5, when they play the Florida Freshmen in Gainesville.

Little Man on Campus

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

The search for the young beauty who will serve as the 1958 model for the National Cotton Council's annual "Maid of Cotton" contest, began September 1. Applications, with two recent 8 by 10 photographs, should be returned to the Council postmarked not later than November 1.

Twenty girls will be selected as finalists and invited to come to Memphis for two days of judging in early June. The winner will receive $100 toward expenses in connection with the trip to Memphis.

The girl who wins the title of 1958 Maid of Cotton, will be awarded a 1958 Ford car worth $2,995. She will also be awarded a stipend of $5,000. Her performance will be scrutinized by the Cotton Council. Her duties will include educational, social, and civic activities.

The "Maid of Cotton" will carry her to leading fashion centers, promoting the cotton industry. She will be presented with an all-cotton wardrobe created by the Council for the coming year. In addition, the increasing complexity of many of her performances is requiring that each girl have a greater number of them be filled by college-caliber people.

I'd like one of you to think of this term paper due Friday as a "DO-IT-YOURSELF" PROJECT
