Bus Stop Rated Tops

An enthusiastic audience rated "Bus Stop," a romance presented November 16 and 17 by the Sock and Buskin Club, at "tops," "homo-real," "one of the best productions ever seen at VSC." The Sock & Buskin, working to either with the production staff composed of Speech 200 students, presented this successful comedy under the capable direction of Miss Louise Sawyer. "Bus Stop" may be added to the list of the many other successful dramas directed by Miss Sawyer in the past.

The story opens with a conversation between Elma Duchworth, high-school waitress played by Missie Phillips, and Grace Hoyland, an experienced, "woman-of-the-world" restaurant owner portrayed by Carol DeMott. Eventually a bus pulls up to the restaurant, carrying Cherie, a "chance" played by Gall Thomas; Joe Tomberlin, a cowboy portrayed by George Houser; Dr. Gerald Lyman, a former college professor played by Grady McHale, and Carl the bus driver portrayed by Teddy Lawrence. Cherie is being earnestly pursued by Joe, who had fallen in love with her at the Blue Dragon Night Club. Joe doesn't know much about women. He tries to win Cherie as he would rope a stubborn cowboy, telling him that Cherie does not love him.

The meeting was highlighted by a talk by Dr. James L. White, state advisor for the Future Business Leaders of America — Phi Beta Lambda organization at the college on local, state, and national levels.

Another prominent guest was Dr. Parker Lykes, president of the United Business Association.

The assembly was welcomed to the school by Dr. J. Ralph Thaxton, president of VSC.

The Pumpkin on the Oak Tree

There is a story told of a man sitting under an oak tree who noticed a nearby pumpkin vine with its fruit. "Why," he wondered, "is the Pumpkin chosen to burden that frail plant with such a great load, while the mighty oak has to hold up only tiny acorns?" At that moment an acorn fell from the tree and hit him on the head. Thankful that it had not been a pumpkin that hit him, the man realized that God must have known what he was doing.

In this world today many things go on that we do not understand, our teachers tell us that those things seem unnecessary. Laws require some distasteful tasks. The important thing is to first be sure that you are right. Solve into the issue at hand, become familiar with the facts, and then reevaluate your stand.

Hereafter, when an instructor requires some distasteful task, when the administration issues an unpopular regulation, analyze the situation. As the man hit by the acorn realized that there was a reason for the pumpkin being on the vine instead of the tree, even so must we realize that there is a reason for most of our requirements.

Better Service Is Desired

VSC has a very good arrangement whereby the school contracts with a local laundry company to wash clothes for the boarding students. This has resulted in low laundry costs. $1.25 per quarter for students and $1 a week for women. There is no question that this is a reasonable charge.

However, the students have several legitimate complaints concerning the laundry services rendered. Items of clothing have been lost. Items have been returned a week late. When the return of special clothing is delayed there can be much inconveniences. The job of ironing clothes has been poorly done, with some items being left not ironed at all.

The laundry in general has a good reputation. Yet, they are disregarding the future business they could get from several hundred VSC students.

In the spring a young man’s fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love, may be very true, but just as proof that fell as good a time as spring William Adams gave Molly Coleman a beautiful engagement ring. Now with so many engagements, our society editor was beginning to feel neglected, so John Lancaster gave her one (now wasn’t that sweet?). These festivities will be taking place around Christmas time.

If you saw Brenda Houston take a plunge into the pool, you know that Hugh Broom is to blame. Oh well, I guess being pinned is what Hugh Broom is to blame. Oh well, I guess being pinned is certainly sounds like a "Mr. Wonderful," Robert is a 21 year old junior who transferred to VSC from Middle Georgia College this year. At Middle Georgia he was active in baseball and the college choir.

His interests are golf, football, fishing, hunting and chess. He is presently a member of the Science Club and a TKE pledge. He certainly sounds like a "Mr. Wonderful" and I’m sure that Linda Riggins can vouch for him since Buddy Swearengin, Mike Ruble, and Lee Goings were recently initiated into Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Alpha Xi Delta is also proud to announce that Robert Leckie of Blachshear has been chosen as their "Mr. Wonderful." Robert is a 21 year old junior who transferred to VSC from Middle Georgia College this year. At Middle Georgia he was active in baseball and the college choir.
