110 SENIORS TO GRADUATE NEXT MONDAY

By Martha Mims

One hundred ten Valdosta State College seniors will receive their diplomas at the school’s commencement exercises to be held next Monday morning, June 4. The program will begin at ten o’clock in the college gymnasium. Dr. J. Ralph Thaxton, VSC president, will present the diplomas.

Exercises will be Dr. George E. Manners, who is the Dean of Business Administration at Georgia State College in Atlanta.

The traditional baccalaureate sermon will be preached on Sunday afternoon at four o’clock. The service will also be held in the gymnasium. The speaker will be the Rev. Mr. George L. Zorn, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Tifton, Ga.

Following the baccalaureate sermon the college is honoring the seniors by giving them a tea. This tea will be held on the terrace of Ashley Hall.

Dr. Manners is a graduate of what is now Georgia State College. He received his masters degree from the University of Georgia and his doctorate from Emory. He is listed in Who’s Who in American Education.

Rev. Zorn is a graduate of the University of Alabama and Candler School of Theology, Emory University. He served as a chaplain in the U.S. Army during World War II. He is president-elect of the Board of Education.

Visits College

By Hugh McIntyre

Only 44 percent of the VSC student body have given much consideration to this year’s graduation exercises. Since a survey of 125 students is any indication, a close race can be expected.

All three major Democratic candidates pulled strong support in the poll, taken before the withdrawal of Lt. Governor Garland Gardner from the contest.

Former Governor Marvin Griffin received 35 votes on campus, followed closely by Byrd with 32. There were 28 listed as undecided.

Anticipating Byrd's withdrawal due to his recent heart attack, most of his supporters picked Sanders as a second choice. The Augusta attorney stands to get 22 of the 32 votes cast for Byrd.

The top position may be discounted as far as statewide trends are concerned, inasmuch as Byrd is not a resident of Southwest Georgia, Griffin's home territory. Receiving only a third of the votes cast for Byrd, Gardner, former Governor Gardner, received 28 listed as undecided.

The exercises Monday will mark the end of four years of college work by the graduates.

Committee Elects Editors of Campus Publications

By Juanelle Newton

In accordance with requirements of the SGA Constitution, editors for three campus publications were chosen recently.

Hailing from Nashville, Ga., a TKE man and one of the associate editors of the latest edition of the annual, Bob Cornelius will edit the 1962-63 Pine Cone.

Ann Powell, native Valdostan and vice president of the senior class, was elected editor of the V-Book. She says she is looking forward to helping all of the lost seniors.

Active and popular student Louis Sheffield, from Pearson, Regent's position was vice-chancellor in charge of educational affairs for the university system. She is a member of the board of regents and serves as a trustee of the university system of Georgia.

The Board of Regents reaffirmed Martin's appointment in a closed session on April 10. Martin's resignation will become effective Sept. 1, after which he will serve as a history professor, dean of Franklin College, and dean of the Coordinate College of Atlanta.

One of the influential factors leading to Martin's decision is the fact that he was offered the presidency of Georgia in Mississippi.

The Georgia Board of Regents, governing body of the state's junior colleges, has voted to end its self-liquidating dormitory building program in an effort to halt spiraling expenses of students.

Under the policy, which has been in effect for four years, dormitories are financed by bond issues which are repaid from student dormitory payments.

Financing of future dormitory will be handled by the State Building Authority or with direct grants from the General Assembly.

According to Regents Chairman Robert O. Arnold the change was made because dormitory rates are getting too high. Arnold stated, "We are pricing students out."

The proposed new dormitory at VSC will not be affected by the policy change. The $600,000 building will be financed over a 40-year period and will be repaid from rent charges. The Board of Regents have approved preliminary plans for the dorm. Application has been made to the Federal Housing and Home Finance Authority for the loan.

The "$600,000" design has been chosen, with two wings having a capacity of 100 persons each. Features of the plans are built-in furnishing and beds that convert into couches.

VSC Comptroller Shealy McCloy anticipates an awarding of the contract sometime this fall if no problems develop.

Eugene Patterson tells of Canaveral experience. The Atlanta Constitution editor also emphasized the need for education.
Winter Photos Take Top State AP Awards

Robert Winter III, a 10-year-old photographer and son of Robert Winter, was awarded the Top State AP Award for his photographs taken at the VSC campus.

Top Students Recognized at Honors Day

Valdosta State College gave special recognition to its most outstanding junior college students at the annual Honors Day program in the college gymnasium.

Top honors in the junior college program are sponsored by the VSC honor societies, including Alpha Chi and Alpha Chi Omega.

The highest single award was given to Miss Beverly Anne Greene, senior, and the daughter of Mrs. and Mr. Charles Greene of Valdosta.

Miss Greene received the first annual Annie Pope Hope Award, which is being given annually in honor of Mrs. Hope, who was a member of the VSC faculty.

Another award was given to Miss Lucy B. Brown, a senior at the junior college, for her outstanding work in the field of English.

Music Students Receive Recognition

The Music Department at Valdosta State College presented the annual Music Awards at the Honors Day program.

The high school students of the VSC Music Department were awarded the highest honors in the Junior Generalists' group.

Mrs. Kermit Odom, associate professor of English, was named Teacher of the Year.

The honor societies also sponsored essays on several topics, and the winners were awarded certificates and prizes.

Kay Domingos

The Valdosta State College music department presented Miss Kay Domingos in a senior recital in Pound Hall auditorium on Thursday, May 17.

Miss Domingos, who will graduate from VSC this June, lives in Milner, Ga. Her recital included classical and folk music and an entire operetta called "The Maid" by G. B. Pergolesi.

Miss Domingos was assisted in the program by Ronnie Robinson of College Park, a baritone. Mrs. Lavan Robinson directed the recital. Accompaniment was by Mrs. Janet Robinson.

"New Moon" Presentation Scores Hit

Valdosta State College with a cast of forty gave an excellent rendition of Oscar Hammerstein II's musical, "The New Moon." The performance was so perfect that it snatched the show out of Broadway.

The musical got off to a strong start, rolling along at a lilting tempo amidst appreciative applause from a responsive audience, and ended with a rousing finale which prompted crescendos of applause.

The setting of the musical is in New Orleans during the 1790's where bond servants challenge noblemen and a new moon was rising on the Mediterranean where the bondmen involved in the political throes of France.

The plot revolves around the love of Robert, a bondman for Marianne Beauvoir, the daughter of the nobleman Monsieur Beauvoir.

This triumph made Susan eligible for the Miss Georgia Pageant which was held in Columbus on May 10, 11 and 12.

Besides being an ardent supporter of the Miss Georgia Pageant Miss Domingos was assisted in the program by Dionette Prendergast of Valdosta. Other officers are Patricia Loeb; YWCA, Jane Johnson, Aimee Martinez, Miss Domingos; Sigma Alpha Chi, and Tanya Miley pinned to Johnny McIntyre.

Pi Kappas Elect

Pi Kappa Phi social fraternity has announced the new officers of the organization. The new president is Norman Bennett of Valdosta. Other officers are Ronnie Knoll, secretary and Billy Greene, treasurer.

Pi Kappa Phi is the oldest of Valdosta State's three social fraternities.

SOCIETY

BY ROZ SPRAYBERRY

By Roz Sprayberry

Well, here I am again and the time with the last of the happenings in campus society until next fall.

As everyone knows May is the month for beach parties, and the students were ready to go this year. This was the time to forget about school work and just relax in the Florida sun. Daytona Beach seemed to be a popular spot for many VSC students, especially for the Teles, Alpha Xi Delta, Kappa Delta and Alpha Delta Phi. The Pi Kappas chose Fernandina Beach and the Sig Eps went to Panama City. All in all, it was a wonderful weekend.

Although it was impossible to obtain a complete list, here are just a few of the people who went away.

Miss Sue Warren Tharpe, gton and Mrs. Faith Polk and Misses Warren and Mr. Robert Domingos and on, Miss Caroleon, Andrew Lee Clough Jr., a Joy Wilson and Mr. Maynard Hoyt Evans III, and Miss Kitty Royal and Mr. G.K. Simmons.

Among those who are engaged or pinned are: Barbara Gotchey pinned to Johnny McIntyre.

Larry Davidson, Dianne Booth pinned to Mattland Yates, Susan Hutchings pinned to Buck Mitchell, Sunny Gaengo pinned to Jim Nichola, Pat Barnett engaged to Jerry Adams, Jim Adams engaged to Busy Lilliard and Joy Collier engaged to Carroll Harpole.

Judy Wade seems to be having trouble keeping up with her contact lens lately. As a matter of fact, even she lost one at the pool. It is no fun just seeing half of everything, is it Judy?

With the close of school getting nearer and nearer there are a few girls who are really going to miss a certain area near Valdosta. I am sure that Jeanie, Pinsky, and Lucy know what that certain area is. Oh well, that's the way it goes, girls.

To those people who received honors on Honor's Day, I would like to extend a hearty congratulations and much success in the future. Congratulations are also due to Kay Domingos for her superb recital at Pound Hall.

Susan Hutchings

Now Reigns

As Miss Valdosta

Miss Susan Hutchings, a pretty brown-eyed, brunette from Thomasville, recently won the Miss Valdosta Contest sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. In the talent portion of the contest, Susan chose a Charleston routine. Arrived in a white fringe flapper dress, she sang and danced her way to first place, stealing the audience's heart with her charm and beauty.

This triumph made Susan eligible for the Miss Georgia Pageant which was held in Columbus on May 10, 11 and 12.

Besides being an ardent supporter of the Kappa Delta sorority, she is interested in music, reading and golf.

Susan is a sophomore at VSC and is majoring in business.

Barbara Gotchey and Dawn Groover also of VSC were runners-up in the Miss Valdosta Contest.

Officers Picked

Most VSC student organizations have recently elected officers to serve for the next school year. Some of the new officers have already been reported in the Canopy. In an effort to complete the announcements of new club presidents others are as follows:

International Relations Club, Patricia Loeb; YWCA, Jane Johnson; Wesley Foundation, James Walker; Education Club, Danny Blackstock; Sigma Alpha Chi, Selina Wisenbaker; Newman Club, Mary Helen George; and the Westminster Fellowship, Ann Stroman.

Must Trust Be Denied?

A few weeks ago a container of onions was placed on the checkout desk at the library. The purpose was to loan money (on a self-service basis) for paying overdue fines of persons having no money with them.

Many people have made use of this privilege, but some have not fulfilled their obligation to return the money. A recent inventory showed that the fund had dwindled down to one cent. Apparently, some borrowers are not worthy of the trust placed in them.

A handful of change is not important. The library can operate without it. But there is principle involved. Those who cannot be trusted in small transactions cannot be trusted in big transactions. The VSC student body must not deny the trust placed in it.

Visitors Such As These . . .

VSC was honored on May 16 and 17 by the presence of two outstanding visitors. It makes us proud indeed when persons like Gene Patterson and Ed Smith find time to talk to our students.

Distinguished persons have visited other college campuses quite often, but few make their way to VSC. This is not a criticism of our past assembly speakers. We have had several interesting speakers who are notoriously unknown. But there is a need for inviting men of notability to VSC.

Some could appear informally as Smith did. Last fall 'The Three Sons,' nationally known instrumental recording artists, were presented in concert at West Georgia College. Why can't VSC do as well as West Georgia?

The administration and student organizations—particularly the SGA—should attempt to get other outstanding persons to appear on campus. We want more such eminent visitors.

More Literary Issues Desired

The last issue of the Campus Canopy was a special edition of a literary magazine. If this library issue is an indication of what VSC students can do, more such works should be done.

The Pine Branch was a literary magazine published by the VSC (Then GSWC) students. Its reestablishment would be a fine addition to the list of college publications.

The recent special edition was co-edited by Emily Leonard and Beth McRee, both valued Canopy staff members. We are proud of the job that they have done.

The young minister was talked to an aged member of his church on the beauties of brotherly love, and the old man proudly announced:

On May—Well, Reverend, I'll be 95 next month and I can truthfully say that I haven't an enemy in the world.

Preacher—That's great credit to you, sir. How did you manage it?

Old Man—Simple enough, I just outlawed 'em all.

Emily Leonard

Words . . .

"He who knows does not speak;
He who speaks does not know".

--The Tao-Te-Ching

When there are moments of recognition of love, overpowering beauty of art, the facting of great crises—we find occasion to say, "I haven't the words". No wonder the primitive peoples had rituals of response to mysteries meaningful and meaningless before he learned to speak about these things in the heart, not in speech.

Spirits of the heart and mind and soul can't convey with mere words. They are too feeble and would fall short of conveying in a way that deep rooted spiritual conversation. Truly, there are things that cannot be expressed.

Words are powerful. They can be used in place of facing reality—"The dust of the dead words clings to thee. Wash thy soul with sense".

THE CAMPUS CANOPY

Our Duty to You

If the Campus Canopy fulfills its place in student life on this campus it must recognize and properly execute the responsibilities incumbent upon it. This paper was established as the voice of the students. This does not make it an organ devoted solely to criticism. The administration policies. It would be failing in its duty if limited to such actions. The success of the Canopy can be measured by its ability to keep the VSC student body informed and enlightened.

Today a new staff has assumed publication of the Campus Canopy. The paper's masthead, found elsewhere on this page, gives a listing of those now on the staff. We hope that the new staff will bring new ambition, new determination, and new talent which will result in new success.

The objectives of this staff are editorial policy that will broaden the apprehension of its readers, a means whereby students can voice their opinions, and better service to its readers.

College students should be strongly aware of critical nation, whether they be on the VSC campus, in Atlanta, or in Viet Nam.

Editorials will attempt an analysis of problems on all levels of public affairs. Opinions will ordinarily be nonpartisan, but a leading towards conservative views may often be detected.

State politics will receive frequent editorial comments. In this area we will take progressive attitudes in promoting a progressive Georgia.

Being a school paper, we cannot ignore school affairs. Role and criticism will be forthcoming, as is considered, for any of the administration and faculty, of campus organizations, and the students in general. Being the only publication concerned with VSC activities, the Canopy has an obligation to take definite stand on problems that may arise.

Since the Canopy is the voice of the students, an avenue of expression shall be open to them. Letters to the editor will always be solicited. A new feature open to students will be a guest editorial column wherein students may state their views.

We hope to give better service in at least two areas. Faster and more regular publication will be endeavored. Realizing that a newspaper should not be a history book, an earnest effort will be made to remedy this inefficiency. Better service is also planned through new variety. Features appealing to all readers will be added.

Regard less of the dedication of the Canopy staff, we cannot publish a good newspaper without cooperation from VSC students. Knowing that our fellow students are behind us will give us incentive to do a better job.

In conclusion, the new staff and especially the new editor wish to express gratitude to retiring editor Hugh McIntyre, other graduating staff members, and to resigning advisor Harold Gulliver for the efforts with the paper this year and their aid in helping to organize the new staff.

Summer School

Monday, June 11, marks the beginning of the 1962 summer session of Valdosta State College.

June 11 is registration day for first term; classes begin June 12. Second term registration is July 23, with classes starting the same day.

Among the new courses are first and second quarters of French and Spanish. These courses offer the student the opportunity of completing 2 quarters of language during the summer.

For business majors, Principles of Accounting 110-111 will be taught. Typing will also be offered by the Secretarial Science Department.

Additional sociology, psychology, English, math and biology courses have also included in the summer bulletin.

nisting outstanding achievement in work in those departments were given to thirteen VSC students.

The Art Department made five awards. Mary Anderson of Valdosta for creative achievement in sculpture and ceramics; Nelson Giles of Valdosta for creative achievement in painting and ceramics; and Cleon Phillips Jr. of Lake Park, for creative achievement in painting.

The Speech Department presented George W. Hubert Jr. of Whigham with a gift from the Speech and Debate Club for outstanding achievement in speech and dramatics.

The Speech Department also named six new members of Alpha Phi Omega, National Honorary Dramatic Fraternity. New members of Alpha Phi Omega for Phillip Bar of Valdosta, Danny Blackrock, Richland; Freddie Lawrence, Adel; Grady Mills, Waynesboro; Sandra Smith, Thomasville; and Barbara Walker, Valdosta.

The History Department award, presented to the senior who has achieved the highest average and proficiency in history, went to Miss Suzanne Brown of Valdosta.

Two students were recognized in the Biology Department for superior scholarship: Michael Nevin Lieb of Atalanta and G. O'Neal Jr. of Quitman.

The Business Administration Department made two awards, an accounting award and the Wall Street Junior Investigator Achievement Award. Both were won this year by Richard A. DeLoach of Valdosta.

The Physics Department achievement award for an honor student in first year physics went to Miss Patricia Kerr of Donaldsonville.

Thomas Milner of Quitman received the freshman mathematics award, sponsored by the Mathematics Department and the Chemical Rubber Co.

New SGA Takes Office

The first meeting of the newly installed Student Government Association was held May 8 in the Administration Building.

Retiring President Billy McDaniel, talk to the group, expressed his opinion on the challenge of the group to fulfill their responsibilities.

Tommy Joiner, new SGA president, issued copies of the "V" Book. He stated that the purpose of the meeting was to set up committees.

Nears Completion

Valdosta State's university will move into its newly completed facilities early this summer. The modern facility is located on the back side of the campus behind the House-in-the-Woods.

The present quarters on the second floor of the Old Chemical Building are scheduled for conversion into seven dormitory rooms.

A new nurse is being added to the VSC medical staff. She has already been hired and will report to the college this July.

Mrs. Mary Rogers will remain here as resident nurse and will work with the new staff members.

STEP Tests Given Junior College

The Sequential Tests of Educational Progress (STEP) were administered to the freshman and sophomores again this year. This year in recognition of outstanding achievement in music, 1961-62, went to Miss Suzanne Brown of Valdosta.

Dr. Thomas also recognized the members who checked the most advanced in freshman and sophomore classes. These included Martha Sue Bragg, Dougald T. Calloun, Sally K. Domingos, Beverly Ann Greene, Joseph C. Greene, Patricia Ann Luke, William H. McDaniel, Hugh K. McIntyre, Cecil B. O'Neal, Betty Pace, Sandra Patullo, Linda Jeanne Posey, Lucy Bedell Proctor, James J. Stevens, Joseph A. Tombrell, year was the first time these tests had been given at Valdosta State College. When these tests are returned from the machine scoring center, the students may ask to see their own scores and have them interpreted for them.

The test was achievement tests to determine the improvement of the students knowledge in such fields as mathematics, science, writing and social science. However, at VSC only two areas were covered; these were writing and social science. Since the freshman and sophomores were given the same tests, the sophomores were expected to make a better score on the examinations and their tests would be graded accordingly. These tests will tell whether the college is doing its job of educating students. It will also serve as a basis for admission of transfer students who have taken the tests.
