

Unser Zeichen:

Ihr Zeichen:

Innsbruck, Landhaus, den

Betreff:

Dear Leonie,

Your delightfully new and interesting letter of Aug 12th & 27th came today. Naturally the mails have been so mixed up in the last couple of months that letters written in June come after some of those mailed in the middle of August.

Yesterday I took a 70 mile ride and saw a few interesting things. There was a fearful wreck where two heavy German trucks collided on a curve. Helped get some people in a truck to the hospital. I got lost on some country roads that met

Unser Zeichen:

Ihr Zeichen:

Innsbruck, Landhaus, den

Betrifft:

thriftly farmer would risk taking a good horse on. Once I stopped to look over the most realistic snow I've seen seen. The more I looked the more I wondered whether it was or wasn't Finally I yelled at the top of my voice. He moved and started hoing again. Ran across several heads of sheep each accompanied by a mangy, dirty, ragged old shepherd, typical Pin Van Widen and a couple of bright, smart, attractive, and intelligent dogs who obviously had so much more sense than their masters

Der Landes-Oberschützenmeister

Unser Zeichen:

Ihre Zeichen:

Innsbruck, Landhaus, den

Betreff:

I wondered who thought who about the facts of sheep handling.

Went to a movie and saw a war picture which should have had the forward
"any resemblance to real life or war in your -coincidental!"

Played a few games of cribbage (by the way this is an excellent two handed card game) and lost most of the time.

listened to some fine music on the radio and there ended labor day

September 3, 1945 — pleasant but uneventful.

Your picture smiles constantly and uncharitably
and all the while you are in my thoughts.

Love, Fitzgerald